nervousness A Strong Discourse at Calvary Church

Last night another of Rev. Mr. Peele's best efforts was demonstrated Long the case to the jury and in his stirring sermon at Calvary church, from the text Take care of him." Mr. Peele's sermon was espechad adjourned court for fally fine and was heard by a large and attentive congregation. Besides being a deep thinker, he is a consecrated man of God, who sneaks "out of the abundance of his heart." in his sermon last night he touched on God's masterplece, man, explaining how God had a higher estimate of man than man put on himself. Mr. Peele was formerly pastor of the Friends denomination in Berkley, California, at which place he lived during the great earthquake disaster in San Francisco, just across the hay.

The hour for service bas changed from 7:15 to 8 a'clock. Service this evening promptly at eight, lasting one hour.

Arousing Much Interest Among Both Prizes to School Children.

The questions on the subject Prof. Padgitt has been propounding to parents through his special penmanship advertisement this week, has aroused no little interest among the children ged the young people and parents as well.

The class for the course in the night school is about made up. There is still room for a few more in the evening class, which meets from four to five. It is to be hoped that there will not be a single vacant chair when this class Legins work Monday

Prof. Padett and his expert teaches of pennanship are going to exert ev power to make those who take this special course examples of what can be done in two months' time in penmanaldo, so it goes without say ing that each member of both the day and airly classes will be given spe dal attention and taught how to write matural-free and easy,

This is certainly an opportunity of a life-time for $3.00 could not possi ply to better invested in any boy or girl than in this (we months) course in penmanship,
