Tomorrow At Broad Street Baptist Church

Tomorrow will be an epoch-making lay for Broad Street Plans will transtire that will give new life and impetus to our people. At Sanday school the aims of the school and its standard for the winter wil be set forth and every member is urged to be present.

At the 11 a. m. services the pastor will make known some facts and present some plans that will occasion joy and thanksgiving to every true member of the church. It will be a last ing allsfortune for anyone to fail to be present. Everyone interested in Broad Street's future ought to be present. The pastor makes an earnest appeal to the members to come. At 7 p. m. the B. Y. P.-U. will meet

A most interesting program has been prepared and it will have vital rela tion to the meetings for the coming week. Misses Davis and Mallard will sing.

The revival services formerly an-nounced will begin with the evening service. The pastor will preach on "Responsibility for Our Brother."

Rev. R. E. Neighbor, of Spartan-burg, S. C., will arrive in the city on Monday afternoon and will preach for the people twice each day. A fuller announcement of the services will ap pear in Monday's issue of this paper. Mr. Neighbor is one of the best pel preachers in the South, a man of great magnetism, deep sympathies and great spirituality. His coming to our city will be a benediction indeed. The public is most cordially invited to these services.

SALISHURY, Oct. 17 - Arriving here at nime o'clock this morning the Republican presidential nominee. Mr. Taft, and a party of forty prominent politicians were given on ovation in Salisbury which was genuine in many properts.

The Tail special truin was met at Statesville hy the Republican state chairman Spencer B. Adams, Charles H. Cowles, Republican andidate for congress in the eighth district, J El wood Cox, Republican nominee for through the state.

The party was driven racidly to the opera house, where Mr. Taff was in troduced by ex-assistant United States district attorney, A. H. Pilce, whose guest he was while in Solisbury

In the course of his fifteen minute address, Judge Taft declared his sympathy for the South, and especially for North Carolina, where he has many personal friends. He orgod that it is time to shed traditional feelings are work together under one political erced. He declared that unless the protective tariff is maintained the bundreds of industrial enterprises springing up all over the state must be destroyed, and that to elect Bryan would be to continue the depression started last year. The Democrats, he said, are courageous in everything exexpr rolutes.

Mr. Taff said he believed he would be elected without North Carolina. but that if would be a great satisfac tion to him to have the Old North State behind him. He declared there would be mighty few Democrats in the state who would sit up late on the night of November 4th worrying over a Republican victory

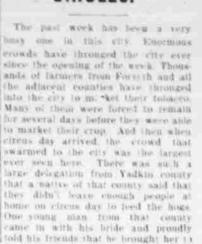

The presidential candidate was reard here by several thousand peo ple, among them being many Deine rats

GREENSBORD, Oct. 17-The visit of Judge Taft to: Greensboro today was made the oc asion of a great immense gathering of federal offic. holders,

The special bearing the Taft party arrived at 11.20 and a large reception committee met the party at the depoand escorted them in automobiles, Judge Taft going to the Grand Opera House and making a thirty minutes speech before a crowd numbering less than five hundred, the vast throng having assembled in the Auditorium where the speaking was advertised t take: place. It was here that Secretary Shaw spoke while Indge Taft was speaking in the Grand. from which place he rode to the Auditorium and his automobile drove immediately Inhe mammoth building, in which had gathered a crowd estimated a several thousand. He was given an ovation and made a short speech, followed by a brief talk by Senator Smith, of Michigan The Taff special train left for Danville at 1 o'clock.
