A SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE IS FAVORED

In accordance with the call by the officers of the Y. M. C. A. and outlined in this paper recently, a group of Superintendents and others, representing several of the largest Sunday Schools in town, met at the Y. M. C. A. building Friday night and discussed thoroughly the advisability of organizing such a league among the Sunday Schools of the city, to encourage Sunday school attendance, foster clean sport, and purify athletics among boys.

It was not thought best to take definite action in the matter before those interested in the Sunday Schools and in boys generally could learn little more concerning the league so the meeting adjourned till next Friday night at 8 o'clock to which all Sunday School Superintendents in town will be invited.

Those present at the meeting expressed themselves favorably to such a league, giving their reasons as follows:--

The Sunday schools exist for the boys and not the boys for the Sunday schools.

The Sunday schools teach manliness, truthfulness, honesty, purity of speech, and fair play. The Sunday school must enter into the boy's play life during the hours outside of Sunday school and help him to practise these virtues.

In almost every season of the year, every red-blooded, healthy boy, during every minute of his leisure time will be found on the back lot, behind the barn, in the street, on the diamond, playing some form of athletics for all he is worth. It is instinctive for him to do so, and in the God-given order of things, it is meat and bread to his life, physically, mentally and morally.

Ninety per cent of the boys from 10 to 18 this summer will play baseball, somewhere, under some condition, good or bad.

Amateur baseball is of itself a manly, innocent sport, calling forth skill, strength, agility, good nerve, an even temper, ability to take care of one's self, and, under proper supervision and stimulation, respect and admiration for the other fellow.

These things being so, the Sunday Schools can and should enter into the boy's own plans by helping him play the sports that make for manliness and strength of character, and help him play them so that they will count most for manliness and strength of character, believing that the Sunday school should be ready to be to him his most sympathetic and helpful friend.

To the meeting next Friday night all superintendents and adult friends of boys are invited, at which time definite steps will be taken to organize the league.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS C. SMITH MONDAY MORNING

Mr. Thomas Carmalt Smith, one of the city's most popular young men, died yesterday morning at ten o'clock at the home of his parents, Maj. and Mrs. S. H. Smith, on Brookstown avenue. He returned from Florida to this city about six weeks ago and was with his parents until his death from Bright's disease.

The deceased is survived by his parents, two brothers, Mr. S. H. Smith, Jr., of Atlanta, and Mr. Marvin Smith, of this city, and four sisters, Mrs. Jas. R. Green, of this city, Mrs. John S. UNIVERSAL GRIEF OVER DEATH OF JUDGE BREWER

WASHINGTON, March 29.—There is universal grief over the death of Supreme Court Judge Brewer. President Taft said he was an able judge.

This leaves but seven active members of the United States Supreme Court. It may have a far-reaching effect on the Standard Oil and tobacco trust and corporation tax cases. Attorney General Bowers is likely to be a candidate for successor to Judge Brewer.

—Mr. J. H. Dillon and Miss Lizzie Whitaker, both of this city, were quietly married Saturday afternoon about three o'clock by Squire P. T. Lehman at his office in the presence of a few witnesses.

SCENES ON DAYTONA BEACH, FLA., WHERE AUTOMOBILE RACES HAVE JUST BEEN HELD

EASTER RECEPTION IS A NOTABLE SUCCESS

No more successful dances have been given in the Twin-City than those of yesterday at the Twin-City Club rooms.

The morning German while much less informal than the one in the evening, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed, the young ladies looking especially attractive in their lovely Easter costumes.

The climax of the Easter pleasures, however, was the brilliant reception and dance of last evening. The club rooms were thronged with visitors from 11 o'clock on, while a most cordial greeting was given them by the members and ladies on the reception committee.

Those on the receiving committee were Mr. A. M. Coleman, Miss Bessie Carter of Danville, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Coan, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Huber Hanes, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hanes, Col. and Mrs. Montague, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gorrell, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Norfleet, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Chatham, Mr. R. M. G. Swanz of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Manly.

The rooms were most effectively decorated in purple and white under the skillful direction of Mr. Herman Fletcher.

During the evening a most delicious collation in three courses was served by Mesdames J. L. Gilmer, W. T. Brown, J. L. Ludlow and Watt Martin.

Till the wee sma' hours, the light fantastic was gaily tripped by the young people, Duzan's orchestra furnishing exquisite music during this time.

The dances were led by Mr. Henry Shelton and Miss Marguerite Ludlow and a large number participated therein.

In every respect the Easter reception was a most successful affair, being decidedly the best in the history of the Twin-City Club. The officers of that organization and others who aided in making the arrangements for this notable occasion are indeed to be congratulated on the success attending their efforts.

NAPLES, March 29.—Authorities today, owing to Mt. Aetna's resumed activity, have ordered the excavation of the entire Southern slope of the mountain. This means seventy-five thousand people will be temporarily homeless.

Promotion for Ticket Agent W. H. Parnell

Mr. W. H. Parnell, for ten years ticket agent for the Southern Railway in this city, has been notified that he is to receive a deserved promotion, having been appointed travelling passenger agent for the same company, with headquarters in Raleigh.

Mr. Parnell will enter on his new duties April 1. He will succeed Mr. R. H. Debutts, who goes to Charlotte, to relieve Division Passenger Agent R. L. Vernon of some of his arduous duties. Capt. Vernon has been with the Southern many years and has always been held in the highest esteem by the officials of the company and all with whom he came in contact. His qualifications have also been recognized and appreciated, as shown by continued promotions.

Mr. Parnell will likely be succeeded by his assistant, Mr. S. D. Kiser, who is regarded a very capable man, notwithstanding the fact that he has had only a few months' experience. The conductors and others have endorsed Mr. Kiser for the position. His successor as assistant agent has not been selected yet.

Mr. Parnell is a native of Mocksville and came here about fifteen years ago. His first position was in the baggage room. In every department he made good and today he is recognized as one of the most capable ticket agents in the service of the Southern. Before coming here Mr. Parnell was a printer, holding a position with the old Daily Times published at Mocksville.

The Sentinel joins his many friends in extending congratulations upon his promotion and predicts that further positions of honor and trust await him in the railroad world.

ROOSEVELT IS NOT ATTACKED BY DR. STEEL TO HOLD A MEETING AT CENTENARY

CAIRO, March 29.—That the Nationalist Press did not attack Col. Roosevelt yesterday was probably due to a private talk Roosevelt gave the editor, this being considered a clever political stroke.

The family this morning visited the bazaar, buying souvenirs.

Commander Tanaka of the Japanese fleet, called and expressed Japanese gratitude for Roosevelt's efforts in ending the Japanese-Russian war.

Count Hatzfeldt of the German agency, gave a luncheon in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt at the agency this afternoon.

Views of Englishmen. LONDON, March 29.—While they praise Roosevelt's fearless stand as to the Nationalist Englishmen fear it may disturb the delicate Egyptian relations or invite assassination. The foreign office will rejoice when he leaves Egypt.

RELIGIOUS WORKER MAKES TOUR OF 18,670 MILES EASTER EXERCISES IN TWIN-CITY THIS YEAR.

The largest tour ever made in America by a religious worker has just been completed by Luther M. Teah, of this city, Field Secretary of the World-Wide Baraca-Philathes Bible Class Union, who is now here. Mr. Teah started from Winston-Salem Sept. 14th, 1898, went North as far as Watertown, N. Y., returning by Syracuse, N. Y., the home office of this great movement, with only a few days preparation for this long journey; he started for the Northwest, via Buffalo, Detroit and Chicago, from which place an every night speaking tour was begun in real earnest, extending through Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska. A 1650 mile junk was then made through South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana and Idaho to Spokane, Wash.

After making in the towns and cities in Washington and Oregon the trip was continued down the Pacific Coast to Mexico, where another junk was made to El Paso, Texas. Still in the Coast States he pushed forward around the Gulf of Mexico to the extreme end of Florida, from which place a few days and nights on the train brought him safe back to his home in North Carolina, having finished the longest trip of this kind ever undertaken by a religious worker.

In making this tour, it was necessary to go into thirty states, Canada and Mexico, and travel 18,670 miles. It took 200 days, during which time Mr. Teah visited 137 towns and cities in which he had definite engagements, was the guest of 396 Baraca classes, and a large number of Philathes. He made 287 Sunday School talks, to a combined audience of 46,535 people.

The Baraca-Philathes movement is said to be one of the greatest religious movements of the present century. It is a special form of Sunday School class organization for young men and ladies, and is known throughout the world, having been organized in 1899 by Marshal A. Hudson, a successful crockery merchant of Syracuse, N. Y. It has enjoyed a remarkable growth and now has over 4000 classes enrolled with a combined membership of nearly 500,000.

Mr. Teah is very enthusiastic over this trip and speaks of it as follows: "I am sure in my experience as a religious worker I have never been quite so happy as I am to-day. The remarkable increase in Bible study is enough to make anyone happy. Never before in our past history have men in every walk of life been near as ready for the Gospel as today. To sit in one's office, and think of a net gain of 72 per cent in Organized Bible Class work, in six months, is a pleasant experience, but to go out and come in contact with the actual operation throughout America is a joy too great to express.

"The experience one has on a trip of this kind is so varied it would take volumes to tell of it. I have spoken in all kinds of places and under all conditions, from the wealthy church in Chicago to the streets of San Francisco, from the mountains of Washington to the plains of Texas. The experience with people is just as varied, from the tramp, each presenting a peculiar obstacle that must be overcome to win them to the study of God's Word. Not only were their social conditions different, but often their nationality and the language they used. I recall one of the most pleasant engagements was with a Swedish Congregation. My host and hostess were Swedes and they preached, sang and taught Swedish in all the church services.

"One who travels in work of this kind must be prepared to take the unpleasant with the pleasant, the discomforts with the comforts and the sorrow with the joy. With the unpleasant we might mention the discomforts of travel, change of food, climate and water, together with the sin, vice, deception, indifference and petty church and denominational jealousy. The effect of all this, however, is soon overcome with the joy that comes from Christian service and the many pleasant things that go with it, the happy homes, Christian fellowship, great Bible class demonstrations, street parades, auto parades, bouquets, receptions, and great mass meetings, and were it not for those, the joy that comes from seeing even one soul born into the kingdom of God makes such a trip well worth while."

Throughout the day on Sunday, and even on Saturday evening, the Moravian graveyard and also the cemetery were thronged with visitors. Surly never was there such an array of lovely flowers seen as one time before the graves in both burying grounds were generously decorated. It was quite noticeable that the graves in the centre of the graveyard were pathetically bare of flowers, but when the dais on the head stones were deciphered and some of them read 1771, etc., it was readily understood that no relatives remained; however a certain class of the Home Sunday School had placed palm leaves and Magnolia leaves on many of these "low green mounds," in memory of what these early fathers wrought in their day and generation.

Practically all the churches in the city observed Easter Sunday with special music and appropriate decorations. At all of these churches the congregations were large and the services unusually interesting.

BELL COMPANY TO SPEND SEVERAL THOUSAND HERE. Mr. and Mrs. J. Epps Brown, of Atlanta, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilson Saturday and Sunday, left yesterday for home. Mr. Brown, who is a most affable gentleman, is vice president and general manager of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company and while here he gave out the statement that his company would spend several thousand dollars this year making improvements on the Winston-Salem plant, several telephone lines will be extended in Fairview, Southside and other parts of the city. A number of cable lines will be installed at once. Mr. and Mrs. Brown attended the early morning Easter service on the Moravian graveyard and they regarded it the most beautiful and impressive they had ever witnessed. Mr. Brown accompanied Mr. Wilson over the city in an automobile and he was favorably impressed with the evidence of growth and progress, as seen in every part of the city.

—Rev. L. W. Collins, pastor of the Methodist churches at Madison and Haystack, who arrived in the city this afternoon, reported that the first and biggest of the season was held at Maydan yesterday by the Methodist and Moravian Sunday schools. The crowd was immense and the day was a happy one for every participant. There was a big baseball game and the dinner served was a decided feature.
