BIG HURRICANE IS MODIFIED; THE DAMAGE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The Florida hurricane has modified to an ordinary storm, according to the weather bureau announcement today, and the cyclone signals have been taken down all along the Atlantic coast.

The storm center is now off the North Carolina coast, having passed out to sea, the wind blowing at a rate of sixty miles an hour.

Damage at Key West.

HAVANA, Oct. 20.—Although Key West is shut off from communication with other parts of the United States cables to Cuba are working. Dispatches received today by the La Lucha announce the principal damage done at Key West by the storm was to shipping. The Florida East Coast Railway below Miami has been washed out and it will require a month to place it in repair.

MAN CHARGED WITH BEING A PICKPOCKET IS ARRESTED

RALEIGH, Oct. 20.—A man who insists that his name is W. H. Hamilton, of Richmond, but whom the police find through a letter in his pocket to be William Tolliver, was committed to jail today in default of a $200 bond, on the charge of picking the pocket of W. M. Pittman, of Selma. Pittman's son, Arthur, claims he saw the man take the purse from his father's pocket and pass it to a confederate, who escaped with the father and son held Hamilton, or Tolliver, for the police.

Big Campaign For New Members Of The Local Y. W. C. A. Nears A Close

Various Committees Will Make Report Tomorrow Morning
But Campaign Will Actually Close Tomorrow Night.
Outline of the Y. W. C. A. Work.

A quiet canvass in behalf of the Young Women's Christian Association has been going on since October 11, the object of which has been two-fold, first, to make the principles and privileges of the association better known outside the ranks of its present membership, and also to obtain new members, who might, if they wished, take some definite place in the organized activities of the association at the time of their opening.

Death of Mrs. S. M. Farabee.

Mrs. R. L. Pfahl received a telephone message from High Point this morning conveying the information that her aunt, Mrs. S. M. Farabee, died there last night after a long illness from paralysis. Her age was almost 75 years. The deceased had many friends and acquaintances in this city. Mrs. Pfahl will attend the funeral service, which will be conducted from the home of the deceased at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be in the High Point cemetery.

Next Wednesday, Oct. 26, Last Day to Take Advantage of Offer

Big Bonus Proposition For New Yearly Business Closes Then
—Winners in Great Contest Will Most Probably Be Those Who Grasp This Opportunity to Secure Extra Votes.

The Greatest Bonus Offer of Contest

The largest and most liberal extra vote offer of the entire contest extends from today until midnight of Wednesday, October 26th. It is for NEW YEARLY subscriptions, and is, briefly, as follows:

For every four NEW YEARLY subscriptions to The Sentinel, delivered by carrier ($20), brought or sent in before midnight of Wednesday, October 26th, a bonus certificate for 100,000 votes, over and above the regular scale, will be issued.

For every five NEW YEARLY subscriptions to The Sentinel by mail ($20), brought or sent in before midnight of Wednesday, October 26th, a bonus certificate for 100,000 votes, over and above the regular scale, will be issued.

Clubs may consist of a combination of new yearly subscriptions, either by carrier or mail, provided the total amount of each club is $20 or more.

Three and six months subscriptions already turned in may be extended to a full year or more, when votes for the full term will be issued and the subscription will count in making up clubs.

Two-year subscriptions will count as two one-year subscriptions and three-year subscriptions will count as three one-year subscriptions in making up clubs.

In order to be absolutely fair and impartial, this offer will include all new business heretofore turned in.

THIS IS POSITIVELY THE BIGGEST OFFER THAT WILL BE MADE DURING THE CONTEST, AND WILL EXPIRE AT MIDNIGHT, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26TH.

It is not necessary to wait until a club is made up before turning in the subscriptions. Turn them in as rapidly as possible, and at the end of this offer the number of clubs due each contestant will be figured out by the Contest Department and the certificates mailed.

There is no better time to enter the contest than TODAY, when the first and largest bonus on new subscriptions is in effect. A few yearly subscriptions during this important period may give a contestant a score to be proud of.

The Sentinel hopes to add a great many new subscriptions to its lists during this contest, and it is offering extraordinarily liberal inducements to those who secure new subscriptions.

Enter the contest TODAY and make application at once for a subscription book. Make us of the book and be among the leaders, or in the "automobile class," before the end of the week.

GREAT MEETING IN THE INTEREST OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The Sentinel is requested to state that the public is most cordially invited to attend the great public health meeting at the Elks' Auditorium tonight. Every citizen of Winston-Salem who is interested in civic welfare, whether a member of the local Anti-Tuberculosis Association or not, is asked to attend.

Great interest is being manifested in the first public meeting of the Anti-Tuberculosis Committee of One Hundred of Winston-Salem to be held at the Elks' Auditorium tonight at eight o'clock. Indications point to one of the largest audiences ever seen at any public meeting in the city.

The principal address will be made by Ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn, although several short talks will be made by prominent visitors. Mr. Glenn is a public speaker of national reputation and he has thoroughly familiarized himself with the great subject of public health. His address will be of great interest and productive of much good.

Great good was accomplished by the recent tuberculosis exhibition here. It will probably be the means of preventing hundreds of cases of tuberculosis and the conservation of thousands of dollars. It is the idea of the committee to continue the public interest along this line.

The public meeting tonight will, in reality, be the launching of a great public health movement in this community, the value of which cannot be overestimated. The proverb goes that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. The idea of the meeting is to show how the prevention may be accomplished.

The great result of the public health movement, in addition to promoting the public happiness, will be to save thousands of human lives.

A splendid musical program will be one of the features of the meeting. Miss Mary Critz will render some piano solos and Miss Brushingham, of Salem College, will sing.

Seats on the stage are to be reserved for the Ministerial Association, lawyers, aldermen and commissioners of Winston and Salem, members of the Forsyth Medical Society, representatives of the press, presidents and secretaries of the Board of Trade, Merchants' Association, Tobacco Board of Trade and Young Men's Business Association. The above are asked to be present and to occupy the seats reserved for them.

Dr. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health; Dr. R. H. Lewis and Dr. C. A. Julian, president and secretary of the North Carolina Anti-Tuberculosis Association, will be present.

FOUR STAR ATTRACTIONS OF A MUSICAL NATURE.

Among the coming events of the season at the Elks' Auditorium will be the four Badeliff attractions.

The first will be "The Boston Saxette Club," under leadership of C. I. Staats, the most noted clarinetist of the concert stage. This organization has with it Miss Catharine Melley, a soprano soloist who has found favor and praise of the leading musicians of the country.

The second number will be The Larrabee-Hardiman recital.

The third will be Miss Dorothy Lebridge, the noted English pianist, the fourth number the Metropolitan Company, of which Mr. Frederick Martin is one of the soloists. Mr. Martin needs no introduction to Winston-Salem people, having appeared here in "The Messiah" two years ago.

All of these attractions will be a great musical treat to the local people and the advance sale of season tickets promises a crowded house for each one.

Anyone not having subscribed for a season ticket can do so by leaving the name and address at O'Hanlon's drug store before this offer closes.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALEXANDER AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A most impressive service was held this afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, when the funeral of Mrs. J. E. Alexander was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Neal L. Anderson.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, while the selections by Miss Emma Leinbach, the director of the choir were touching and appropriate.

After the services were concluded at the church, the body was laid to rest in the Salem cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Thomas Maslin, A. S. Hange, E. L. Jones, Joe Vaughn, Edgar Vaughn, S. E. Hall, J. R. Fletcher and E. W. O'Hanlon.

The flower bearers were Capt. W. L. Stagg, Messrs. W. A. Blair, J. L. Taylor, J. E. Gilmer, John W. Fries, H. A. Goveil, J. T. Henbow, Sterling Smith, J. J. Norman, G. H. Hastings, M. H. Willis, William Maslin, Major T. J. Brown, Rev. J. Kenneth Pfahl, and Judge H. R. Starbuck.

TOM SETTLE DOES NOT ENDORSE BUTLER'S ACTION.

In the joint discussion between ex-Governor Glenn and Thomas Settle at Hillsboro, Tuesday, Mr. Settle admitted to Governor Glenn that he would not under any circumstances have been guilty of such conduct as that of Butler in the South Dakota bond matter.

Mr. Settle may have hated to thus reflect on Butler, but Governor Glenn called him out, and he had to face the issue, and like all other frank Republicans ought to do, he had to repudiate the record of Butler.

Enter the contest TODAY and make application at once for a subscription book. Make us of the book and be among the leaders, or in the "automobile class," before the end of the week.

The announcement last Saturday of largest and most liberal offer of extra votes that will be made marked the real beginning of The Sentinel's voting contest. During the next week prizes will be won, and at no time after October 26th will effort count for so many votes.

Every contestant, who has begun an active campaign, or who will enter at once and begin an active and aggressive campaign for votes, has a splendid opportunity to win the prize of his or her choice. No contestant at present has a score so high that it cannot be overcome by a few hours of real work. Contestants who expect to win any of the better prizes—or a prize of any kind, for that matter—cannot afford to waste any time between now and October 26th. Only five more working days remain before the largest bonus offer of the entire contest comes to a close. A very few of the new yearly clubs, during this important period, will make a score that any contestant would be proud of, and not a great number of them will be required to give a lead that will put any candidate ahead in the running.

Two energetic persons, residing somewhere in the contest territory, are going to ride in prize automobiles before another month has elapsed, just because this present opportunity was not neglected.

Persons who hold back subscriptions until the close of the contest are going to be disappointed. This is fair warning. They will count for a great deal more now than they will then. Never again, after October 26th, will you be able to secure 100,000 extra votes for four new yearly subscriptions, by carrier, or five by mail—just so the club amounts to $20 or more in new yearly subscriptions.

Remember also that you may secure extensions from subscribers who have already given short term subscriptions. If such extensions are secured from new subscribers, credit for the full number of votes under the regular scale will be given, and the subscriptions used in making up clubs.

In this liberal offer contestants are afforded a splendid opportunity to enter. You may start today and be among the leaders before Saturday night.

One club will give you a good start, and almost any person, with a little energy, can secure a club in a short time. The second club will give you more than a quarter of a million votes. Any others that you secure will count up just as fast.

It all depends upon the energy put forth and the determination behind this energy. There is plenty of time to pick out the prize of your choice and win it. But today is the best day left to make your decision and get busy.
