

PARTIAL LAW ORDER GREECE IMMINENT, SAYS A LATE REPORT

Business at Athens is said to be growing... ability that Bulgarian will cross border... uses unrest.

Marine activity... ent of Varnar Proves a Minor Naval Action.

Proclamation of Greece is reported imminent. Altho no report is available...

which has occurred... situation is the an-... of the force which... the Greeks in Epirus...

of submarine activity... east is simulated in a... in the sinking of... liner Yasaka Maru.

of the bombardment... of the Russian attack... man per, had stirred... according to reports...

is once more... Possession of... mountain has been... by military...

of the week by the... retained by the...

FACTS OF WAR.

Miss Helen... persons in the... containing uncer-... of belligerent...

NEWS SHOT LIVES OVER HOUR

News has... a bloody tragedy... of Jerry Perry...

College Head At Forty

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur will assume the presidency of Leland Stanford Junior University at Palo Alto, Cal., January 1, and will then be one of the youngest men to occupy such an important post.

EVIDENCE INDICATES LAYTON COMMITTED SUICIDE

That R. A. Layton, the railroad man, who dropped dead in North Wilkesboro early Wednesday morning, did not die from apoplexy but from suicide, was the verdict of the coroner after the inquest, which was held all day yesterday.

It is being circulated in North Wilkesboro that Layton had been gambling consistently there for some weeks, according to Mr. Layton.

Other parties here today from North Wilkesboro report that the talk which has been going the rounds since Wednesday morning to the effect that Layton lost his watch, overcoat and a month's pay in advance to gamblers are absolutely without foundation.

WIDOWED MOTHER TO CAPT. AUSTIN; THE DINNER FUND

The Sentinel this morning turned over to Capt. Austin, of the Salvation Army, a letter, which is one of many appeals that are being made for aid by the poor of the city every day.

ORDER SUSPENDING RATES CANCELLED

Washington, Dec. 23.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today cancelled its order suspending the operation of proposed advanced rates on berries, fruits and vegetables from stations in Virginia and North Carolina to New York and other eastern points...

"AUTO MOONSHINER" KILLED IN ALABAMA

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 23.—M. J. Tambo, known as the "automobile moonshiner," was shot and killed by deputies in Coalington, Carrington county, early this morning.

QUIET NOW PREVAILS AT JUAREZ

City Spends the First Night Under Carranza Control Peacefully.

"WICKEDEST CITY" DULL

Gambling Has Ceased and Disorderly Resorts Have Been Closed.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 23.—General Alvaro Obregon, Carranza command er-in-chief of northern Mexico, who arrived here last night from Nogales, Sonora, said he would go to Juarez just across the border, late today.

Gambling has ceased, the disorderly resorts closed and the "wickedest city in Mexico" was dull and respectable to the average tourist.

The Constitutionalists currency issued to the soldiers now has a purchasing value in the stores and doubt of its worth has been removed.

The telegraph line to Casas Grande where Rodriguez is located with 1200 men is up, but no operator is there.

General Porfirio Rodriguez, commander of the troop train which yesterday brought the last of the Chihuahua garrison to Juarez, stated that General Villa had sent his Rodriguez force of more than 200 men as a vanguard to Bustillo ranch west of Chihuahua city, when Villa determined to leave the city capital.

Instead of preceding Villa to Bustillo, Rodriguez says he had circled back to the city and had barely time to entrain his men for Juarez before the vanguard of the Carranza troops arrived from the south.

Chihuahua City was occupied yesterday by a combined column composed of Generals Jacinto, Trevino, Fortnato, Maycott, Luis Herrera and Colonel Enriquez, the latter the new governor of the city, according to a message received at the Mexican consulate.

NEW BLOW TO "BOOZE" IN WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 23.—Conforming to a recent court ruling, a general order prohibiting the acceptance of whiskey as personal baggage of passengers in West Virginia was put into effect today by four of the railroads operating in this city.

President George W. Stevens, of the C. & O., speaking from his road, and the B. & O., Kanawha & Michigan and Western Maryland lines, told Officer Rathbone, of the State prohibition department, yesterday that it is the desire of the railroads to assist the department in every way in observing the prohibition law.

FRANCE WILL NOT MAKE REPLY TO NOTE YET

Washington, Dec. 23.—Ambassador Sharpe, at Paris, today notified the State Department that France would not reply to the American note protesting against the removal of German and Austrian from American vessels on the high seas by the French cruiser Descaartes until the commander of the warship had reported.

WILL PROBABLY REPORT BILLS

General Waterways and Omnibus Public Building Measures Are Likely.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Despite the pleas of party leaders for economies, Chairman Sparkman, of the House Rivers and Harbors Committee, is planning to report a general waterways bill and there is talk today of the intention of the House Public Building Committee to report an omnibus building bill.

When the Rivers and Harbors Committee meets in January to determine its course, there will be up for consideration favorable reports of the army engineers on new projects aggregating about $120,000,000.

Was Eighty Years Old Last Month

Andrew Carnegie was born November 25, 1835, in Scotland. He therefore was eighty years of age Thanksgiving ago.

BALTIMORE WILL MAKE A PROTEST

Federal Club Officials There to Try to Upset Peace Pact.

Cincinnati, Dec. 23.—Peace between the warring factions of baseball was realized when the representatives of the Federal League and organized baseball reached an understanding and signed an agreement here last night.

After the signing of the peace pact, a telegram was received from Baltimore stating that the Federal Club officials of that city would try to upset the peace agreement by request of Federal Judge Landis in Chicago, not to dissolve the anti-trust suit which the Federal League officials brought against organized baseball.

Members of the national committee and club signers of the two major leagues did not appear to believe that it would have any effect in blocking the ending of the baseball war.

SAFE BLOWN OPEN AND $300 SECURED

Morrisville, N. C., Dec. 23.—The safe in the store of S. R. Horne here was blown some time during last night and the robbers succeeded in getting away with about $300 in money and $300 in vouchers and other valuable papers, according to the statement of Mr. Horne, who is president of a local knitting mill.

NEW AMERICAN NOTE IS WELL RECEIVED

Vienna, Dec. 23.—The new American note regarding the Ancona has made a good impression here and an early answer is expected. Work on it has begun already.

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON PLAY GOLF

Hot Springs, Va., Dec. 23.—The President and Mrs. Wilson made their first appearance on the golf links here today. Other players were on the course, and with these the President and his wife chatted on the rounds.

PREPAREDNESS MEASURES WILL PASS, SAYS BRITT

Asheville, Dec. 23.—Congressman James J. Britt of the tenth district declares that President Wilson's preparedness measures will pass congress, if not in the original shape as planned by the president, at least varied so little that the cardinal principles will remain the same.

PRIZES AWARDED BY THE SENTINEL

Gordon Ambler, Miss Lucile Nichols and Tycho Nissen Winners in Contest.

The Sentinel is today mailing out the cash prizes won by the three students of the city high school standing the best examination on the series of Woodrow Wilson articles run during the months of November and December.

The prizes offered to the students entering the contest were a first prize of $5, a second, $3, and a third, $2.

First Prize—Gordon Ambler, eleventh grade, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Ambler.

Second Prize—Miss Lucile Nichols, ninth grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Nichols.

Third Prize—Tycho Nissen, eleventh grade, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nissen.

Others who entered the contest and who made splendid grades were Miss Ruby Sapp, of the eighth grade; Miss Alice Butler, of the tenth grade; Burke Fox, of the tenth grade; Carl Sink, of the ninth grade; Miss Noelle Parrish, of the eleventh grade, and Miss Alva Goswick, of the eighth grade.

The management of The Sentinel desires in this connection to thank Miss Miller, teacher of history at the high school, for the hearty cooperation in making the contest a success, and other members of the high school faculty for their interest.

As a part of the plot to destroy the canal, the indictments alleged that Koenig and Leyendecker planned to secure employment for their agents in various factories and mills adjacent to the canal.

Breitung Bought Material

Long Beach, Cal., Dec. 23.—Judge A. J. Seay, former territorial governor of Oklahoma, died at his home here last night. He was 83 years old.

JAPANESE SHIP SUNK; ALL SAVED

Liner Sent to Bottom Without Warning, According to Report Received.

ONE AMERICAN ABOARD

Submarine Either a German Or Austrian Boat, It Is Said.

London, Dec. 23.—The new Japanese liner Yasaka Maru, which was sunk in the eastern Mediterranean Tuesday by a submarine while the steamer was on her way from London to Japan with 120 passengers and a crew of 160 aboard, was sent to the bottom without warning, according to a report received from Port Said from the agents of the owners.

All on board the ship, including one American passenger, W. J. Leigh, were saved. The nationality of the submarine is not mentioned by the agent and previous reports referred to the sinking of the ship as done by either an Austrian or German submarine.

The Yasaka Maru was sunk Tuesday afternoon. A French gunboat picked up passengers and crew at midnight and landed them at Port Said Wednesday morning. The company provided hotel accommodations for them and has arranged to forward them to their destinations.

The passenger list were 51 men, 54 women and 15 children, most of whom were British subjects. The agents, in their reports, say further:

"The passengers express great admiration for the skill of the captain and officers and for the discipline of the crew. Perfect order was maintained during the embarkation which was carried out with the greatest promptitude.

Excitement in Tokio

Tokio, Dec. 23.—News of the sinking of the Yasaka Maru reached Tokio today and caused great excitement. Advice received here say the ship was sunk by a submarine of Port Said.

INDICT TWO MEN IN CONNECTION WITH ALLEGED PLOT

New York, Dec. 23.—Indictments were returned today charging Paul Koenig, chief detective of the Hamburg-American line, and Richard Emil Leyendecker, an antique dealer, with conspiring to dynamite the Welland Canal.

The indictments against Koenig and Leyendecker charged them with conspiring to "set on foot in the United States a military enterprise against the Dominion of Canada."

As a part of the plot to destroy the canal, the indictments alleged that Koenig and Leyendecker planned to secure employment for their agents in various factories and mills adjacent to the canal.

Breitung Bought Material

New York, Dec. 23.—Max Breitung, under indictment with Robt. Fay, Dr. Herbert Klenzie, Walter Scholz and Paul Daecher on charges of conspiring to blow up munitions ships leaving this country, today admitted through his attorney, John B. Stanchfield, that he bought 350 pounds of chlorate of potash for Fay.

The admission was made when Mr. Stanchfield moved for a separate trial for Breitung. Breitung purchased the potash, one of the chief components in certain forms of explosives, at Fay's request, Mr. Stanchfield said, and in so doing, acted in good faith and that he was entirely innocent of any intention to destroy ships.

Decision of the matter was put over to January 3, when decisions of similar motions by two of the other defendants will be rendered.