VOL. IX

WILKESBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, JAN. 25 / 1894.

NO. 42.

THE CHRONICLE.

R. A. DEAL, Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the Post-office in Wilkesboro as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, JAN. 25, 1894.

Dr. E. Burke Haywood, of Raleigh, died last week.

Senator Walthall, Mississippi, has resigned on account of failing health.

The committee in the contest case between Settle and Williams has reported in favor of Settle, and Settle will hold his seat.

The Manufactures Record says that the outlook for better and easier times is good. Enterprises are in contemplation in the South that will bring some money and put it in circulation.

Some of the people of Winston are making a strong fight against the public execution of DeGraff. They want it to be private, as a public execution is very demoralizing.

The 29th of this month has been set for the vote in the House on the adoption of the Wilson tariff bill. The Senate should at once take up the bill and pass it, and not filibuster about it.

Our Congressmen, and especially Hon. W. H. Bower are still working hard to have the 3 gallon assessment rescinded and still hope that the order may be recorded.

Melvin E. Carter has been confirmed as Collector of the Western District. But from the information we can get hold of, it is a loss of time to be applying for positions now. He has given it out that he will make no changes except for sufficient cause, and even in such cases no appointments will be considered for some time yet.

The reports from Washington are to the effect that Senator Vance is fighting the confirmation of Simmons as collector of the Eastern district. We do not know upon what ground he is making the fight, but, from the information at hand, he appears to be making a mistake, so far as the welfare of the Democratic party is concerned.

Lee Hash, who was caught here by Will Smith and carried back to Virginia some time ago on the charge of murdering a young man Phipps, was tried in Grayson county last week and convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to 14 years in the penitentiary.

The Greensboro scandal calls forth another lesson. The so called religious Journals are doing a great deal of criticism because they say the secular papers are trying to play "shut mouth" in the matter, because the parties concerned are prominent people. And these same Journals at almost every other opportunity are "cussing" out the secular press for printing such "demoralizing stuff." Where's the consistency in any such so-called "religious" proceedings?

Wilkes county people are always laying themselves open to the ridicule of other people by always biting at these pat-right frauds and getting bit themselves. There's no telling how much hard earned money has been taken from the county by these patent right men and such other things, or foreign Building and Loan Associations. If our people had all such money back in their pockets they would be considerably better off. And the ridiculous part about it, is, that after repeated warnings and experiences they still bite, and appear eager for the morsel. Verily the sons of man enjoy being hum bugged.

If John L. Sullivan is still in the ring he is slightly disfigured. Up at Buffalo, N. Y., one night last week, John L. came home on a drunk, and began abusing his wife. She picked up an Indian club, with which he had been training, and knocked him in the head. It required the doctor an hour or two to bring breath back into the old man.

The CHRONICLE is in receipt of the second installment of information and instructions from the literary bureau of the Richmond and Danville R. R. Syndicate, at Washington, D. C., in opposition to the Wilson tariff bill. Such installments of opposing literature are being scattered over the country to all the newspapers with request that they copy the same and comment thereon favorably it is presumed, of course. While appreciating the condescending kindness of this Syndicate in offering to keep us properly informed and our mind led in the proper direction to suit them, nevertheless we must tell them frankly that it is a waste of postage as to the changing of our opinion. This paper is Democratic, because it honestly believes in Democracy. Being Democratic, it stands on the Democratic platform, which declares for honest, conservative tariff reform. Standing for tariff reform, we are in favor of the Wilson bill. While the bill has not all the qualities of absolute perfection, it is the best thing in sight, and one which, to some extent, will relieve the great concourse of the American population which have to live by the sweat of the face, and have not the opportunity of running syndicate literary bureaus and such things. The opposition to the bill has been worked up by the syndicate and monopolies, and we regret to see the Alliance Third party, which professes to be in favor of the people joining hands with the syndicate in opposition to legislation tending toward the relief of our working people, thus assisting in perpetuating the unequal burdens upon the people they profess to favor.

Peter DeGraff's Brother in Trouble. Last Thursday afternoon a telegram was received here from the Sheriff of Forsyth directing the arrest of Lee DeGraff, brother of Peter DeGraff who is to be hung at Winston, and one Geo. Brown. These men had come up on the train from Winston that afternoon and had gone up the Mulberry road. Gus Edwards, Allen Faw and others, soon made pursuit and the parties were caught up above Mulberry, road and brought back and guarded. On Friday deputy Sheriff Teague came up and took them back to Winston. The charge against them is that they stole some money from a man in Winston the amount being $20. About $14 were found on the person of Brown. When Lee DeGraff was arrested he made the remark that the officers "must think that he was Peter DeGraff because he had on Peter's cloths." Lee was wearing the suit which Peter had on when he was sentenced to be hanged.

Greensboro Sensation.

Greensboro is enjoying a big sensation and effects some very prominent people.

E. L. Gilmer, son of Ex-Judge Gilmer, had suspicion that his wife, who is a daughter of Col. Keogh, was unfaithful to him. He left for Raleigh one afternoon, with the understanding that he would be gone several days. He returned that night. Along about 11 o'clock he went home and found his wife and a young tobaccoist, from Danville, in a room together. Gilmer went in and shot the young man, Holland by name, the ball taking effect in the thigh. Thinking he had mortally wounded the fellow, Gilmer went out to inform the officers, and, when they returned, Holland had escaped through the window and had reached the depot in time to take the north bound train home. Another man, by the name of McElwee, was in the parlor with Mrs. Julia Dick, a sister of Gilmer, and now a grass-widow, and he left very promptly when the fuss began.

Gilmer has begun a suit for divorce, and it promises to disclose some other sensations involving prominent men in the State.

It would appear from this that Greensboro High Society needs considerable reformation.

What They are Doing.

Revenue officers have been rather active in this section of late. Saturday several of them arrested Mr. Hamp Willborn, who lives near Mitchell's river, this county, for violating the revenue laws. Mr. Willborn gave bond for his appearance before a U. S. Commissioner. Saturday night a raid was made in the State of Wilkes and a blockade still was found in full blast and in a few minutes rendered unfit for further service.

People are wishing each other the compliments of the season and exchanging gifts. Did it ever occur to you to send an ailing friend a package of Ayer's Sarsaparilla? If not, do so now; and try this medicine yourself if you need a first-class blood-purifier.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. Woodson, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, Dover, N. J.

GOODS FOR THE MULTITUDE, WALLACE BROS. A NEW STOCK, ELEPHANTINE IN SIZE, LILLPUTIAN IN PRICE. More Goods than has ever been shown by any House in North Carolina at one time.

When you see them and hear the prices you will understand why we have bought in such quantities. The time to buy is when everybody wants to sell. The bulk of our stock for the spring of 1894 was bought during the Panic, at panic prices, and will be sold accordingly. We do not say, as many do, "that we will not be under-sold," but we say to you that while this stock lasts WE WILL UNDERSELL THE BEST OF THEM.

It is a most gratifying statement to make and we have asked the printer to put it in bold type. A bold statement too it may be seen, yet those who are familiar with the facts know that in the performance of our promises we go a step beyond rather than fall short.

Notwithstanding the great panic we have just passed through, our promises have been fulfilled and our prophecies realized. And considering all the circumstances we look back to it as a year of remarkable progress, made so, in our judgement by the fact that our aim has been not to see how much profit we could make in a single season, but how low we could sell our goods—and our persistent and continuous efforts in driving down prices has brought us the increased business, we have been working for.

An ounce of experience is worth a pound of logic and, with the results of our past efforts before us, we see our way clear to take a decided step forward, and with the opening of our new stock shall deal some sledge hammer blows in the way of low prices that will speak louder than any advertisements we can make.

Knowing that every dollar we can save our customers will prove an equivalent gain to ourselves, and that we have never been so well prepared to serve you as we are at this time, it affords us unusual pleasure to again solicit your valued trade.

Very respectfully, WALLACE BROS., C. S. Tomlin, John S. McRorie, John F. Bowles, H. Wallace and L. E. Bristol will represent us on the road and visit as many of our customers as possible. STATESVILLE, N. C., Dec. 21st, 1893.
