 THE CHRONICLE, Wilkesboro, N. C.

Equal Taxation, Direct and Indirect.

VOL. X.

WILKESBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1894.

NO. 5.

THE CHRONICLE.

R. A. DEAL, Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the Post-office in Wilkesboro as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1894.

It appears that the Senate may pass the tariff bill this month, with the income tax attachment, although the New York fellows are against it. It is about time for Democracy outside of New York to have a few words as to the policy of the Democratic party.

The CHRONICLE learns with a great deal of regret, of the death of Esquire Nathan H. Gwyn, of Caldwell county. He has been very feeble for some time. He was about 55 years old, and one of the most prominent and popular citizens of Caldwell. He was a brother of Rev. E. N. Gwyn, of this county and Messrs. R. R. & T. L. Gwyn of Elkin. He had been a life long and consistent member of the Methodist church and an amiable and sociable gentleman of the highest type.

The Coxeys march to the Capital has ended, so they say. His thousands didn't make their appearance, as Coxeys expected. Two or three of his leaders when they reached Washington attempted to run things, regardless of law or anything else, and the police had to give them lodging for the night. But it is over now, and this is the first reference to it that the CHRONICLE has made. It does not believe in giving such cranks prominence, as it only tends to encourage the idle anarchists and charlatans.

Any system under which the labor of convicts is allowed to compete with that of honorable persons is wrong and vicious.—New Bern Journal.

And any system under which convicts are allowed to lay a bout in idleness and thus compelling the "honorable" and honest hard working persons to pay a big tax for their support, thus putting a premium upon crime and idleness "is wrong and vicious". There seems to be something wrong any way you take it. The fact is as long as there are convicts there will be something wrong with any system in the world.

Joe Hendren, who runs a sheet at Elkin, has got up an army of which he is said to be Captain, and last week he had the unsuspecting government to furnish the aforesaid army with Plymouth Rock Rifles, Waterbury Pistols, and bowie knives and brass knuckles in accordance therewith. He doesn't propose to march to Washington, like Coxeys, and attack Congress. His inspirations reach higher. He wants to subdue such prominent public men as Bill Coley, Joe Robertson, and the editor of this great cosmopolitan weekly. He has his men at work now, winding up his Waterbury pistols, and has his plans laid to attack every train between now and the meeting of the Press Association. We can inform him right now if he is expecting to capture a new hat for the Press Association, he has picked out the wrong crowd. There is not a new hat in the whole crowd and has not been in two years.

The Press Convention postponed. Morganton Herald.
 "The North Carolina Press Conventions, which was to have met in Morganton May 23-24, has been postponed until June 13 and 14. A telegram announcing the change of date was received yesterday by the Herald from Mr. J. B. Sherrill, the Secretary of the Association. The meeting of the Association was postponed on account of a conflict with the date of laying the cornerstone of the Confederate monument in Raleigh, and with the commencement of the State Normal and Industrial School for girls at Greensboro, at which Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, is to deliver the address. President McIvett was particularly anxious to have as many of the editors present at the commencement as possible, and put in a strong plea for a change of date.

Attention Masons.

We desire to call attention to the fact at the Masonic picnic at this place last June it was decided to make the picnic a yearly occurrence, and the third Thursday in August was selected as the time for holding it. It is hoped that all the Masons in this and adjoining counties will unite in doing all in their power to make this picnic a success, as the proceeds are to be given to the Masonic Orphanage Asylum at Oxford N. C. than which no nobler charity exists. Let every lodge bring the matter up and begin to agitate the affair in time so that we may have a grand occasion. We want to get speakers and other attractions and if possible run an excursion from Greensboro.

The following committees were appointed last year.

Good for Rutherford College.

Pres. R. L. Abernethy writes the following to the Lenoir Topic:

"It may be some gratification to my friends and brethren in Caldwell to learn that some kind man, unknown to me, has lodged in the hands of a Wall street commissioner Fifty Five Hundred and Thirty Seven Dollars in North Carolina bonds, 25 at par, and 25 at a premium for the Rutherford College.

These bonds are for sale for the use of the college.

Wilkes Tackle in Ashes.

Knowing how health giving are the balmy breezes of our neighboring county of Ashe, I determined sometime since to spend a part of the summer there. So I set out from Dockery on Monday morning the 23rd of April and arrived at Vernon, Tuesday at 12 o'clock.

I found the farmers very much behind the people of the great "State of Wilkes" as regards preparations for a crop, but all very busily engaged in their farm work, nevertheless.

Corn is planted generally from the 1st to 15th of May, here.

We have had frost almost every morning since I have been here. Consequently very little gardening has been done, until within the last few days.

Wheat and rye are looking very well and I think an average crop will be made.

I enjoy the cool refreshing breezes and the pure fresh waters very much, but the butter and milk more. There is plenty of game here from the water dogs and trout in the waters, to the wild cats and boomers in the mountain. Uncle has promised to pilot me through the mountains trout fishing and boomer hunting as soon as corn is planted, and I contemplate a fine time camping out.

A magic lantern sleight of hand contraption performed their wonderful and interesting tricks to a delighted (?) audience at Helton Academy, Monday night.

Good luck and lots of it to the great "Cosmopolitan Weekly."

WILKES TACKLE.

Distribution of Soy (Soja) Beans.

The N. C. Agricultural Experiment Station at Raleigh, desiring to extend the cultivation of Soy Beans, proposes to distribute a quantity of seed to careful planters desiring to test their merits. The only condition is that each applicant send 10 cents in postage stamps to pay cost of transportation by mail. Enough seed will be sent to each applicant to plant 1-10 acre. The first 400 applications will be filled in the order received.

The Station regards this as a very valuable forage plant. It is of upright growth 2 to 3ft. high and is a legumine capable of adding nitrogen from the air to the soil in which it grows. It is planted in hills or drills 2 1/2 to 3 ft. apart according to richness of soil, and 15 to 24 inches apart in the row. It can be planted any time from March to July either alone or in the corn row between the corn, and 2 to 4 beans are usually planted in each hill. Soil suitable to it and the general preparation is the same as for corn. When planted for corn both crops can be ensilaged together, and the corn ensilage will be much improved by the combination, or the plants when planted alone can be cut for forage before they get too woody. The seed are found in small pods and can be saved by cutting the whole plant when leaves and pods have turned a golden hue. They can easily be beaten out when dry. If cutting is delayed beyond this time the pods will open and some will be lost on the ground. It will not pay to pick the beans. It is also a good table bean, but requires a long time to cook. Station urges a careful trial of this crop.

Insomnia is fearfully on the increase. The rush and excitement of modern life so tax the nervous system that multitudes of people are deprived of good and sufficient sleep, with ruinous consequences to the nerves. Remember, Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong

GOODS FOR THE MULTITUDE, WALLACE BROS.

A NEW STOCK, ELEPHANTINE IN SIZE,
 LILLIPUTIAN IN PRICE.

More Goods than has ever been shown by any House in North Carolina at one time.

When you see them and hear the prices you will understand why we have bought in such quantities.

The time to buy is when everybody wants to sell.

The bulk of our stock for the spring of 1894 was bought during the Panic, at panic prices, and will be sold accordingly. We do not say, as many do, "that we will not be undersold," but we say to you that while this stock lasts

WE WILL UNDERSSELL THE BEST OF THEM.

It is a most gratifying statement to make and we have asked the printer to put it in bold type.

A bold statement too it may be seen, yet those who are familiar with the facts know that in the performance of our promises we go a step beyond rather than fall short.

Notwithstanding the great panic we have just passed through, our promises have been fulfilled and our prophecies realized. And considering all the circumstances we look back to it as a year of remarkable progress, made so, in our judgement by the fact that our aim has been not to see how much profit we could make in a single season, but how low we could sell our goods—and our persistent and continuous efforts in driving down prices has brought us the increased business we have been working for.

An ounce of experience is worth a pound of logic and, with the results of our past efforts before us, we see our way clear to take a decided step forward, and with the opening of our new stock shall deal some sledge hammer blows in the way of low prices that will speak louder than any any advertisements we can make.

Knowing that every dollar we can save our customers will prove an equivalent gain to ourselves, and that we have never been so well prepared to serve you as we are at this time, it affords us unusual pleasure to again solicit your valued trade.

Very respectfully,

WALLACE BROS.,

C. S. Tomlin, John S. McRorie, John F. Bowles, H. Wallace and L. B. Bristol will represent us on the road and visit as many of our customers as possible.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Dec. 21st, 1893.
