VOL. X. WILKESBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1894. NO. 6.

THE CHRONICLE.

F. A. DEAL, Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the Post-office in Wilkesboro as second-class matter.

THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1894.

Hon. F M Simmons has been confirmed as Collector of the eastern district.

The mugwumps carried the election in Asheville, again, defeating our former countyman, Julius C. Martin. We regret to hear it.

The Supreme Court of South Carolina has decided that the State is under prohibition, since the dispensary law has been declared unconstitutional. Wonder what next?

It may be law to raid during the night time, but if it is, it ought to be changed, and a law passed against it. It may be law to search private property without the authority of a warrant, but if it is all haste should be made to repeal it, in behalf of peace and good government.

We learn the following from the Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, which refers to a Governor furnished by Wilkes county:

Last year Gov. Carr found a portrait of Gov. Stokes. It was in a very dilapidated condition and was covered with dirt. Gov. Carr put it in the hands of Mr. Randall, the artist, who has retouched and mounted it. The portrait, which is in oil, will now be framed and placed on the walls of the executive mansion. Gov. Stokes' grand-daughter presented this portrait to the State.

The commencement exercises of the University of North Carolina embraces the 3rd., 4th., 5th., and 6th. of June. The Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. F J Murdock. The annual address will be delivered by Hon. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, Secretary of the Interior under the present administration.

Major Bill Coley has been elected Mayor of Mocksville. The fight was pretty close between him and Thos. J. Chaffin, but Bill beat him by three votes, by promising all his constituents a pair of "yaller shoes" and a vial of "Coley's Microbe Killer". Here is to you for a successful administration, feeling hopeful that you will in a few days have the financial system of the Country reformed, and the currency expanded (expended) and the tariff reduced to a revenue basis.

The new book called the "Select Poetry of North Carolina", compiled and edited by Rev. Hight C. Moore, of Winston, has been published by Edwards, Broughton & Co., Raleigh, N. C. and is now ready for sale. It is truly a North Carolina Book. The selections are from North Carolina authors compiled and edited by a North Carolinian and published by a North Carolina publishing house. The mechanical part of the book is excellent and the selections are good, giving a fair representation of the poets whom North Carolina has furnished. The book should be in the literary of every North Carolinian.

The Eagle Cotton Gin. We sell the Eagle Cotton Gin, and also the Eagle gin system of handling cotton and the cotton seed. We believe it is the best. Write us for estimates early. We make Screw or Direct Acting Steam Presses, to go with these outfits, as well as engines, boilers, pulleys, shaftings, etc. LIDELL COMPANY, Charlotte, N. C.

A Good Man Passes Away.

Elisha James Eudaly was born March 20th 1826 in Charlotte county Va., and on the 11th of May 1894 was called from labor to receive his everlasting reward. When a young man he professed saving faith in Christ, and never after he received the witness of the spirit did he doubt the genuineness of his conversion. He was married to Miss Fannie Morgan Dec. 26th 1852. We do not know when he was licensed to preach, but he served as a local preacher for some time. He joined the N C Conference in 1876 and was appointed to the Stokes circuit. The next year he came to the Wilkes circuit, and served four years. In 1882 he traveled the Yadkin circuit. The same year Nov. the 21st he married his second wife, Miss Fannie E. Hunt. In 1883 he again traveled the Wilkes circuit. That fall he took a supernumerary relation which he held until his death, serving the church as well as his feeble health would admit. Bro. Eudaly was held in high esteem by the people of the Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro circuits where he had labored long and faithfully. He was truly a faithful servant of God, ever ready to do what he could for the good of the church, by preaching the unsearchable riches of the gospel and with his means helping to sustain those who were sent to preach. On the first Sunday in April at Bethel, a church on the North Wilkesboro circuit near his own beautiful home, and where his remains are laid to rest, he preached his last sermon. He had long stood as a watchman on the walls of Zion warning the people, as from God, telling the glad story of the cross, inviting the heavy laden to come unto Him who hath said "I will give you rest", encouraging christians to press forward in the service of the Lord until they are called to enjoy the saints' everlasting rest. Truly a good man is gone who will be greatly missed as a husband, a father, a citizen, a kind friend and neighbor, a worthy church member, and a noble christian.

"God buries his workman but carries on his work." We therefore bow with humble resignation to this dispensation of His Providence, and pray that Bro. Eudaly's mantle may fall on some one else. For some time before his death his health had been failing and he seemed to realize that his race was well nigh run. He had some heart trouble which was the cause of his death. He expressed himself as ready to go. A few hours before his death he selected the 14th verse of the 4th chapter of 1st Thes., as a text from which he asked that his funeral be preached. His voice is heard no more telling the people the sweet story of Jesus and his love; his supplications for sinners and the welfare of the church are ended. His songs of praise in temples made with hands are hushed forever, but we believe he has gone to join the blood-washed throng and help to swell the anthem in the grand temple not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. Peace to Thy ashes, Brother, rest; Thou art numbered with the best. P. L. TERRELL.

Spley Sprays from Summit. The old man Wesley Waters is dead. He died the 2nd. of this month, about 2 o'clock p. m. He was about 94 or 95 years old.

Death is pronounced upon us all, Who live in hut or stately hall. When that great sentence of death shall come For you and I, for young and old. Then all our work on earth is done, Whether for God or for Satan so bold. While this is the only death that has occurred in this settlement for quite a while there has been four births in the last few days nearly in hearing distance of their mothers song. "By oh baby by, little one dont you cry."

Old uncle Larkin Owens is very ill. He is helpless and so weak that we can scarcely understand anything he tries to say. He is about 92 years old. Only a few days ago, he went a distance of about two miles to see the 31st child of his 4th generation. There are very few to repeat his language, it being the case with them, "I have seen 31 children of my 4th generation."

"The flowers that bloom in the Spring" are not more vigorous than those persons who purify blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The faded Elixir Vitis could scarcely impart greater vitality to the countenance than this wonderful medicine.

Parsonville items.

On the 10, at about 12 o'clock Larkin Owens breathed his last. He was 94 years old, and had been a very able and stout man, and was noted for his adventures as a hunter, in his young days, when these mountains were full of wild animals. He was struck with paralysis and lived only a few days.

Wesley P Waters, of this township, father of L M Waters, died the 2nd. day of this month, aged 94 years, and a few months. Thus the old landmarks pass away. We have now only three or four old men in this township.

There is a great deal of sickness in this vicinity.

We are having a protracted drouth which is damaging small grain very much.

In accordance with an order from the Co. Coms. Sheriff Vannoy has started out this week levying upon property for taxes.

If ever a man feels like "a poor worm of the dust," it is when he suffers from that tired feeling, Ayer's Sarsaparilla removes this discouraging physical condition and imparts the thrill of new life and energy to every nerve, tissue, muscle and fibre of the whole body.

Why folks drink liquor when water is better; why they go to the branch to wash when pans are five cents a piece; why not enough dishes is used when crockery is so low; why their houses get old when there is plenty of paint; why they get in bad order borrowing when they could buy tools of their own; why they use poor plows when the Avery can be had; why they dread cooking, when stoves are so low, and why they do not go to Allen's for what they want, are conundrums that cannot be solved by N. M. ALLEN.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills: "Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colic. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spotsylvania C. H., Va.

GOODS FOR THE MULTITUDE, WALLACE BROS.

A NEW STOCK, ELEPHANTINE IN SIZE, LILLIPUTIAN IN PRICE.

More Goods than has ever been shown by any House in North Carolina at one time.

When you see them and hear the prices you will understand why we have bought in such quantities.

The time to buy is when everybody wants to sell. The bulk of our stock for the spring of 1894 was bought during the Panic, at panic prices, and will be sold accordingly.

We do not say, as many do, "that we will not be undersold," but we say to you that while this stock lasts

WE WILL UNDERSELL THE BEST OF THEM.

It is a most gratifying statement to make and we have asked the printer to put it in bold type.

A bold statement too it may be seen, yet those who are familiar with the facts know that in the performance of our promises we go a step beyond rather than fall short.

Notwithstanding the great panic we have just passed through, our promises have been fulfilled and our prophecies realized. And considering all the circumstances we look back to it as a year of remarkable progress, made so, in our judgement by the fact that our aim has been not to see how much profit we could make in a single season, but how low we could sell our goods—and our persistent and continuous efforts in driving down prices has brought us the increased business we have been working for.

An ounce of experience is worth a pound of logic and, with the results of our past efforts before us, we see our way clear to take a decided step forward, and with the opening of our new stock shall deal some sledge hammer blows in the way of low prices that will speak louder than any advertisements we can make.

Knowing that every dollar we can save our customers will prove an equivalent gain to ourselves, and that we have never been so well prepared to serve you as we are at this time, it affords us unusual pleasure to again solicit your valued trade.

Very respectfully, WALLACE BROS.,

C. S. Tomlin, John S. McRorie, John F. Bowles, H. Wallace and L. B. Bristol will represent us on the road and visit as many of our customers as possible.

STATESVILLE, N. C., Dec. 21st, 1893.
