THE CHRONICLE.

AN HONEST TRAMP.

He walks 100 miles to restore money to its owner.

Toledo Blade.)
Akron, O., Sept. 20th—About two weeks ago Mrs. Jacob Weyning, a farmer's wife, gave a tramp a pair of her husband's old trousers. It was afterwards discovered that her husband had hidden $200.00 in the lining of the cast off clothing. A vigorous search failed to discover the tramp, and the money was considered forever lost.
Yesterday, however, the tramp returned and with him he brought the full amount of the missing cash. The money was in bills and he had not discovered it for several days. He had walked nearly 100 miles to return it. The man was given steady employment by Mr. Weyning at once. He said his name was Jesse Zing and said his people lived near Avon, Hartford county, Conn.

Company F. Reports.

Our mention recently of Co. B. 1st Regiment, has brought out a report from one of the old veterans of Co. F. 37th N. C. Regiment, which was formed in Wilks about April 1861. Our friend Esq. Phillip Walsh, a member of this Co., was in our office last week, and he remembers about 20 of the old Company who are still living. The Company was under the command of Col. Wm. Barber. These are the ones that Esq. Walsh mentions as still living, out of our original 100 of the original Company: R. M. Staley, John Forester, Joe Edwards, Willis Parks, Franklin Parks, George W. Sales, Francis Sales, Eli Bumgarner, Govan Culler, Eli Roberts, Robert Gibbs, Elihu Luther, Anson Howell, John O. Howell, Sam Ferguson, Pate Shew, Samuel Shumate, George Howell, and Phillip Walsh. Most of these men are still living in Wilkes county.

Esq. Walsh tells us that he was engaged in 33 battles from 1861 to the surrender and came out with only a few slight wounds.

We may remark by way of emphasis that Co. B. 1st. N. C. Regiment, spoken of in a recent issue, was the second Company organized in the State, and that the "State of Wilkes" claims that credit.

Piney Grove Items.

Revs. C. Blevins and James Shumate preached here recently.

Miss Mary Holbrook, of Trap hill, visited in this section recently.

Hardin Spicer, aged about 90 years, made a flying trip to Alleghany on business, a few days ago.

Joshua Spicer attended Alleghany court one or two days.

Mr. J. M. Joines has typhoid fever, and is in a very critical condition. We hope he will soon recover.

It is thought that B. Holbrook's baby has scarlet fever.

Long live the CHRONICLE.

Costs less than one-fifth of what is paid to Capital Companies and is five Times as Secure.

Branch Association of Wilkes Co. C. N. HUNT, President; J. E. FINLEY, (Cashier North Wilkesboro Bank) Treas.; J. F. HOSKINS, Local Agent.

Note what the Press and Prominent Patrons say of it:

"A Branch of 'The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association of North Carolina was very successfully organized in the Court House on Saturday. This branch includes the counties of Forsyth and Stokes, organized by J. F. Hoskins, local agent. This is purely a co-operative plan of insurance for the protection of farm property against loss by fire, wind and lightning at actual cost. Don't fail to investigate this plan it has proven to be the cheapest and safest protection on earth."—Union Republican.

"The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Association is taking a firm hold among the farmers of this county. It is an old organization calculated to do a great amount of good. As its name implies it is a mutual affair; there are no salaried officers and the only cost is the assessment in case of loss, and a fee of 50cts on the hundred dollars of insurance taken at the time of becoming a member."—Greensboro Record.

From the People.

Greensboro, N. C. March 23, 1895. J. F. Hoskins Esq.—In answer to your enquiry as to the promptness of the policy holders of The Farmers Mutual Fire Association in paying their assessments on account of T. E. Cook, of Pomona, N. C., I take pleasure in stating that they have paid their assessments promptly and expressed themselves as being highly pleased with this plan of insurance. The assessment has been but 10cts on the $100 during the last year. R. G. VAUGHN, "Cashier Piedmont Bank" and Treas. Farmers' Mutual Fire Assn., Guilford county.

Greensboro, N. C., May 10, 1895. Mr. Jesse F. Hoskins—Replying to yours relative to the Farmers' Mutual Fire Association of North Carolina, I have for the past year been a member of the Branch Association for Guilford county, and my assessment for pro rata share of losses has been but 10 cents on the $1,000. The first annual meeting was held in the court house last Friday and the workings of the Guilford Assn. had been so very satisfactory that all the old officers were unanimously elected. For farmers and those owning isolated property it is the best insurance on earth. JNO. J. NELSON, Mayor of Greensboro and Ex-C. S. C.

Stokesdale, N. C., March 30, 1895. Mr. Jesse F. Hoskins:—I insured all my buildings with you. One was destroyed by fire and in less than a week you had investigated the matter and together with the Director of the Township adjusted the loss satisfactorily. Your business-like, prompt and satisfactory way of adjusting this matter commends the Association very favorably in this vicinity. T. L. RUMBLY.

Jesse F. Hoskins, Esq., Summerfield, N. C.—Dear Sir: I desire to state that I am more than satisfied with the workings of our Insurance Company. When the damage was done to my property by the storm I reported the loss to Superintendent Linville. He immediately appraised the loss; and you told me the money would be paid me on Aug 13th. On that very day a check was mailed to me for the amount. Very Truly, C. F. DAY.
