THE CHRONICLE.

TAILOR-MADE

Up-to-Date Matters for Home Wear; Guaranteed to fit or miss.

—Get your Easter eggs ready.

—Mrs. J. D. Smith has been very sick for several days.

—Mr. John Huff, of East Bend, was in town last week.

—Maj. James H. Foote was in town Saturday and gave us a call.

—Mrs. J. E. Hobbs is confined with a bad spell of neuralgia.

—Charles Shora went to down Ronda Saturday on his wheel to visit his Parents.

—Mr. John Davidson and his entire family have been very sick with the Grippe.

—Get your Easter egg dyes at Turner & Berry's drug store. Any shade of color that you want.

—D. E. Smoak, who was confined for several days with grippe, is able to be out again.

—Mrs. Ida Flemming, of Roaring River, visited her sister, Mrs. Teague, at North Wilkesboro last week.

—Mr. Iredell Anderson, who has been in West Virginia for some time, has returned home for summer.

—Our friend Mr. U. A. Miller closed his school at the Miller school house last week. A pleasant and profitable entertainment was given at the close of the school.

—Mr. C. H. Cowles leaves today for Statesville, where he will assist Mr. H. C. Cowles, clerk of the Federal Court, in running the Federal Court docket next week.

—Messrs. W. S. and J. B. Hall returned Saturday from a visit to their brother in Burke county. They tell us that there were some very damaging fires in the woods up in Burke last week.

—There was a sort of a mad dog scare here Thursday afternoon. John Penden's (colored) dog came over in town and was taken with fits. It made its way back home, where it was killed. It had bitten another dog and a cat or two and they were killed also.

—Miss Bertha Eller, aged about 13 years, died near Millers Creek last Friday morning. She was the daughter of the late Simeon Eller, who died last fall of typhoid fever. Her mother died some time ago of consumption. This girl had been suffering with her throat and it developed into consumption.

—Prince Eddie Forester had a lesson Friday which taught him to be hereafter careful about making contracts with hungry boys. He contracted with four boys to furnish them all the sardines they could eat for 50c. The boys only devoured 15 cans, and prince Eddie is wondering where he was when the cyclone struck him.

—This notice is to assure our people that there is no need of getting frightened next Sunday. To be sure you will see "boogars" and such things; but no matter what its shape or size or color, it want hurt you. It is nothing but a new Easter hat and has the "right of way" even though it obscure completely all earthly vision at short range. Just look at the preacher "by faith" and hold your temper.

—Easter Egg Dyes at I. S. Call & Co.

—George Reeves, of Roaring River, was here Monday.

—Miss Kate Cranor is quite sick, we are sorry to learn.

—Mr. Charlie Woods, of Elkin, was in town Monday.

—Sorry to hear of Rev. W. R. Bradshaw's sickness. Hope he will soon be up again.

—Mr. A. M. Church, North Wilkesboro, is seriously ill with erysipelas.

—Mrs. Albert Forester and daughter, Miss Belle, are quite sick with the grippe.

—Mrs. C. F. Morrison left Monday for Salisbury, to be treated at the Sanitarium.

—Lawyer George Pell, of Jefferson, passed through on his way to the State convention.

—Mr. Frank Brown, at Moravian Falls, is very sick with grippe. It is feared that he has pneumonia.

—Mr. W. H. Bower came in from Jefferson court Sunday and went to Raleigh Monday to attend the convention.

—Mr. Frank Clinard, of Hickory, was here last week on business connected with the life insurance policies of the late Mac. Absher, Esq.

—Gen. John Quincy Adams Bryan, the "Red Fox," was in town Saturday, attending the Republican Executive Committee meeting.

—Miss Lizzie White, of Charlotte, came up this week to attend the wedding of her brother Joseph White, to night. She will spend a few days with relatives here.

—We learn that Mr. John Turner, of Yadkin Valley, Caldwell county, died last week from injuries received some days ago while cutting saw logs. We regret to hear this very much.

—The members of Liberty Lodge A. F. & A. M. are requested to be at the regular communication next Saturday night. Important business, conferring degrees, etc.

—To-night at North Wilkesboro Mr. Joseph White and Miss Lola Forester will be married. The wedding takes place at the home of the bride. Here's wishing them an abundance of pleasure and happiness.

—I can make it to your interest to buy your shoes, dry goods, and notions from me, now, as I am closing them out. I will save you a lot of cash on these goods for the next sixty days. Very low prices made on flour and all kinds of groceries. I want to carry a different line of goods. This is not a joke; try me.—F. H. BOBBITT.

—Easter comes next Sunday, the 15th. We have arranged for the diamond dyes, but where we are to get the eggs is yet an undecided question. Our old hen has struck for higher wages or something and will probably not resume business again till Easter is over. Our principal hope is that our neighbors will remember us.

—Rev. H. H. Phelps concluded the services at the Episcopal church Sunday night. The Holy Communion was administered at the eleven o'clock services on Sunday. The services which continued from Wednesday till Sunday, were interesting and instructive. Mr. Phelps is a pleasant gentleman and a preacher of earnestness and power. Our people were very much pleased with him.

—Capt. J. T. Peden's little child is very sick.

—Will Smyre, of Washington City, was in town last week.

—Car load of lime and fertilizer just received at C. F. Morrisons.

—Mr. W. R. Hendren is assisting sheriff Johnson in his office this week.

—Mrs. T. P. Parlier, Moravian Falls, who has been quite sick, is improving.

—Mrs. F. H. Bobbitt was quite sick several days last week and this.

—Mr. E. Wallace went over to Jefferson on business last Friday, returning home Monday.

—Mrs. T. B. Finley, North Wilkesboro, who has been quite sick for sometime is improving.

—Dr. White and his entire family were laid up with the grip last week. His mother is yet quite bad off.

—The Board of Education met Monday and settled with the Sheriff and Ex-Sheriff and transacted other routine business.

—Mr. Arthur Cowles, of Ashe, who has been at the point of death for some weeks, is very much improved, and it is thought will recover.

—Mrs. M. L. Mott was able to ride a little while Sunday for the first time since her sickness. Hope she will soon be entirely recovered.

—The road overseers of Wilkesboro township should take due heed of the notice given them by the township Supervisors, and work out the roads before May 20th.

—Jesse Plummer, of Ashe county, was in town the first of the week, and his daughter Mrs. Dora Taliaferro accompanied him home to spend a few weeks.

—Since the quarantine against Alexander has been raised, we see several Alexander faces in town, and we are always glad to see them.

—We have just received a phone message that our bachelor friend Sam Hall at Parsons ville has sold his fine horse, and that he expects to invest the money in marriage license and a longtail coat. Here's our best wishes.

—Mr. R. A. Spainhour has purchased the old Cooper store lot and will erect a brick store house there this summer. Mr. Carlton, we understand, will also build on the corner adjoining Mr. Spainhour. This will place two brick buildings in the stead of the two old buildings that need removing very much.

—Five prisoners from Federal court were brought in Friday. We may look for more. They were Paul Miller, for 4 mos, Ralph Holbrooks for 30 days, Hile Carter for 30 days, Rufus Luffman for 30 days, W. F. Cardwell for 60 days. Nelson Jarvis was brought up Saturday, and goes in for three months. Later—Paul Miller gets out with the payment of cost.

Opening of Spring Millinery. The ladies are cordially invited by Mrs. S. J. Prevette to visit her store to-day (Wednesday) and examine her new selection of millinery. This is her grand opening day for her magnificent line of beautiful and tastefully selected Spring and Summer Millinery. She has a large selection of the latest styles of hats, belt buckles, plumes, flowers, ribbons, silks, etc., and she has them attractively arranged. Come and feast the eyes on something as "pretty as a fairy picture."

About Home Matters.

—To-morrow is examination day for teachers.

—R. C. Lowe has a horse or two for sale. See him.

—Esq. Oliver Hendren, of Moravian Falls, was in town Friday.

—Grant Foster & Co. have opened up a store near Champion.

—Quincy Myers, formerly clerk with I. S. Call & Co., was in town last week.

—Esq. H. Pennel who has been quite sick, is very much improved we are glad to learn.

—In the list of tax listers last week, North Wilkesboro was inadvertently omitted. The list taker is R. R. Bell.

—Mrs. T. S. Miller is over at Beaver Creek with her sister, Mrs. G. H. Hamilton, who is very low with pneumonia.

—Andrew Burchette, North Wilkesboro, and Charlie Burchette, Ronda, went to Norfolk Saturday on business.

—A lot of nice clay peas for sale. For price apply to C. H. M. Tulbert, Hunting Creek, N. C.

—Mrs. Cozart delivered an address on temperance at the Baptist church Friday night. She is Secretary of the State W. C. T. U.

—The next regular examination for teachers certificates is to be held in the court house Thursday, Friday and Saturday if necessary.

—Bro. Robertson, of The Hustler, is visiting his mother at Danville, Va. He will attend the state convention before returning home.

—The railroads will give reduced rates for the Christian Endeavor Convention which meets in Raleigh April 26-29. The society here will send delegates.

—We call attention to the advertisement of N. L. Cranford & Co., clothiers, Winston, N. C. It is a reliable firm and it is offering bargains in clothing.

—The wheat prospects are not good, especially in the low lands. It is badly frozen out and will hardly make a half a crop. This is the information we gather from farmers of observation and experience.

—Reports from Greensboro are that indictments are being made by the wholesale, and the cases continued till after the election. Do you see? Indict a man so the republicans can scare him into voting for negro rule.

—The county republican executive committee met here Saturday and called the county convention to meet April 30th, to nominate county candidates and select delegates to the different conventions. The primaries will be held at 3 o'clock on the 28th, which is Saturday before. Mr. C. H. Cowles resigned as Sec'y to the committee and Mr. E. M. Blackburn was selected in his place.

—The Elkin Canning Co., composed of N. E. Parlier, E. E. Harris and Frank Gray, have obtained from Smoak & Son the right to sell the Rialto Canning Outfit in the counties of Surry and Yadkin. The Rialto Canning Outfit is one of the best things the farmers can invest in. We have seen it tried and know that it is a good thing. Elkin Canning Co. will manufacture their own cans, and expect to do a large business.
