THE CHRONICLE.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Caught Here and There.

—Dr. J. T. Burrus and wife, of Jonesville, were here last week.

—Miss Maggie Hughey is home from the N. & I. College, of Greensboro.

—Miss Gussie Weaver, of Columbia, S. C., is visiting her sister Mrs. Starr.

—Mrs. Albert Gaither, of Newton, is visiting her mother Mrs. Lura Cowles.

—Hessie Dennie, col., died last week, at her home on Mr. H. Pennel's farm.

—Miss Daisy Cowan, of Rowan, is visiting the family of Dr. Turner, her uncle.

—Misses Sue and Ella Bissell of Augusta, Ga., are visiting at Solicitor Mott's.

—Mr. Wellborn Pharr, who has been at Chapel Hill, came home last week. Glad to see him home again.

—We are not going to try to tell all the visitors to the big meeting—they were all here and brought all their neighbors.

—Our friend J. Hamp Forester, of Laurel Springs, and Miss Martha Hammer were married last week. Here's our best wishes.

—It is announced that Congressman Blackburn is to be married to Miss Louise Parker, of Washington City, some time in December.

—A fine rain fell Sunday afternoon, and while it bedrabbled a number of flimsy organ-dies and feathered summer hats, it was mighty good on 'taters and beans and such like.

—Mrs. David Bower, Miss Kiter Bower and Hon. Hort Bower and family attended the last days of the big meeting and are visiting Mr. Winkler's. Mrs. R. D. Horton and Mr. Larkin Hortin were also here.

—Mr. Thad Faw who has been attending school at Rutherford College, was married at that place last week to Miss Abernethy, daughter of the late Dr. R. L. Abernethy. Mr. Faw and bride are now visiting his parents at Millers Creek.

—Glad to have a call from our former townsman N. E. Parlier last week. He is now engaged in training his boy how to kill weeds on his farm at Ronda and of course Lisha himself strikes a few licks as "examples."

—Dr. F. H. Gilreath, of Bandana, Mitchell county, where he is engaged by the State to restore the health and character of the convicts with pills and parajoric, was in town last week, and he has many warm friends here who were glad to see him.

—The revenue officers now state that the other report about one of their horses getting shot, in the Hunting Creek section, is a mistake. It is now stated as a fact by the officers that there was no shooting at all. They went down there, took the "colic," hitched their horses and went to capture a distillery; and while they were suffering with the "colic" and hunting stills, the horse took the "colic" and hunted up some snags and fell on them; he got hurt bad. We are glad that those people down there had nothing to do with giving those fellows and their horses the "colic."

—Miss Mattie Curtis is here visiting friends.

—Dr. W. H. Wakefield, the Charlotte specialist will be at Hotel Gordon, N. Wilkesboro, on Friday July 25th until train leaves in the afternoon. His practice is limited to eye, ear, nose and throat.

—Why not purchase the big tent for the Masonic picnic? It would be a considerable attraction, for it has a way of raining every picnic. The big tent and Bob Taylor ought to bring a big crowd.

—Ex-Senator Col. D. A. Lowe, of Lincoln county, has been married to Miss Cora Henderson. Col. Lowe is 85 years old and is well remembered here and has hosts of friends who congratulate him.

—There was a mad dog scare here Saturday. It had a fit or two near Mr. Iseley's, came around the back way and ran through the window into the basement of Mr. W. C. Winkler's house, where it was killed. If it bit anything it is not known.

—The meeting of the cattle men of the county to organize a cattle association to exterminate the fever ticks, will be held next Saturday the 14th at North Wilkesboro. Every section of the county ought to be well represented. Organize, kill out the pesky ticks and get the quarantine line moved.

—The Lenoir papers give an account of a sad elopement in Caldwell county last week—both prominent people. W. M. Nelson, a merchant at Collettsville, with a wife and three children, deserted them all and eloped with the wife of Lawrence Coffey and she leaves a husband and children. Both are of the best families in that county. It is a sad affair.

From Kentucky.

The Chronicle was received last week and read with great pleasure. The contents of my home paper brought to mind many pleasant memories of friends and relatives in "Old Wilkes." I have a great desire to write a personal letter to many of the friends and relations, but knowing that it is impossible I will, with our kind editor's permission, say a few words to all who may read this.

Lexington, in the midst of the blue grass region, is a very beautiful and healthful city of nearly 35,000 inhabitants, contains eight banks, twenty churches and is noted for its excellent institutions of learning, its historical interests, wealth society and beautiful homes. As many of you know, I am attending the Commercial College of Kentucky University which is located on Main St., upon the site of the old stone fort built by Daniel Boone. The object of this college is to prepare energetic, ambitious young men and women for an active business life. Its doors are thrown open and a hearty welcome extended to all who will come. Gen. Wilbur Smith has been President for 25 years and is an able one. Our teachers are thorough in their instructions, and are very kind and helpful; but as some of my well beloved Wilkes teachers will perhaps read this, I would like to say just here, that while remembering present teachers, I do not forget former ones, and though my years be few or many upon earth, I will remember, with kindest thoughts, those who have instructed me in the days that are past and gone.

And now to those who desire practical business education, I would say come to Lexington. I shall be glad to give any information concerning the school or any assistance possible to any who may desire it. Address me at 158 South Limestone, St., Lexington, Ky.

Notice.

All persons liable to town tax in the town of Wilkesboro are hereby notified to meet me on the days fixed by the town tax collector for Wilkesboro township in said town for the purpose of listing their town tax for the year 1901.

GLORIOUS MEETING.

Thousands Attended the Services and Five Hundred or More Gave the Hand of Repentance; Among Them a Number of Distillers—The Meeting Closed Monday.

The great revival meeting held for a week under the large tent at North Wilkesboro closed Monday with the 10 o'clock service. The evangelists Sam Jones and George Stuart, who have labored faithfully and effectively during the week, left on the two o'clock train, bearing with them the benedictions of a grateful people for their faithful work among us.

The services all the way through were largely attended and much interest was manifested from the beginning, and with every service the interest increased. Over three thousand people attended the Sunday services and there were very few less present at the Monday morning service, the last of the series.

The preaching was good all the way through and always hit the nail straight on the head. Sam Jones used his own peculiar style, now particularly rough, now persuasive, tender and eloquent, now scathing and cutting, now humble and sympathetic. There is only one Sam Jones and all imitators are frauds and failures. Mr. Stuart who assisted in the meeting is different from Jones. He preaches the bible straight from the shoulder in a plain simple though eloquent manner and puts his illustrations so plain and clear that the force of its application can not be resisted. On Sunday afternoon he preached his temperance sermon, which is the finest, most practical and pathetic discourse we ever heard on that subject. Mr. Jones preached the morning and night sermons Sunday and they were both grand. Sunday night over two hundred repentant sinners gave their hands.

Monday morning was a great feast of love and rejoicing. Both Stuart and Jones made talks. Mr. Jones' text was "What wait I for? My trust is in God." At the close of his remarks hundreds went forward and gave their hands, among them distillers and liquor dealers. Such a scene is scarcely ever witnessed at any time or in any country. The spirit of heaven seemed hovering pleadingly over all and eyes unused to tears were wet and hardened hearts were melted into the tenderness of the hearts of babes. Hands that had not touched for years were clasped in friendship and love again, and tongues that had spoken evil were turned to words of forgiving and praises to God. It was glorious to be there.

The influences of such occasions can never die. They work like the leaven.

While the praise belongs to heaven, God always works through human agencies, and while appreciating the efforts of Jones and Stuart and their effective faithful labors, we should not forget that the noble work of our own faithful ministers for untiring years laid the foundation and made ripe the time for the glorious meeting. Let us not forget them in their untiring labors.

Wilkes will be better by reason of the great meeting and we should all be thankful for it.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Beull, Old Town, Va.; "when Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head." It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at Turner & White's drug store.

Leads Them All

"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I have ever tried for coughs, colds, croup, and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curwin of Cogantou, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough-remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done to their little ones; Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip. Dr. Geo. Doughton, druggist.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expell bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c, salve 25c at Turner & White.

Our hoes are the best for the money; our axes are warranted and are standing the test. Our plows are beyond doubt. Unexcelled. Don't think of buying anything but a Chattanooga when you go to buy a plow. For all kinds of Hardware be certain and see me before you buy.
