-Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Michael, of Asheville, will arrive this week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carrigan.

-Editor Deal is recuperating out at Oakwood for a few days. His recovery is slow, but he keeps improving and he will soon be himself again.

-Mrs. J. T. Hubbard returned last night from Richmond, Va, where she has been with her husband at the hospital. She left him very much better. -The "May Season" has certain'y been of sufficient length to convince everybody that it is a "rale sesin". It is also known as the "Sheep Killer," and it has been suff! cient to kill the sheared sheep, too.

-This section was visitied by a heavy rain last week, the river was out over the bottoms in the low places and quite a lot of damage was done to corn and wheat, corn will in many places have to be planted over again. The extent of the damage is not known, but we hope it is not as bad as at first thought.

- John Hays, R. P Blevins, Walter Dimmette, E. S. Hendren, Joe and John Prevette, who have been attending Wake Forest College, have re turned to Wilkes. Three of the boys graduated. Two, Joe Prevette and E. S. Hendren, recieved the degree of Bache lor of Arts, and one, John Hays, recieved Doctor of Laws, The boys graduated with hon-

-The decision of the Su preme Court concerning the North Wilkesboro injunction case concerning the purchaseof the Hackett water power seems from the papers to be mixed and it is hard to tell just how it is. As we figure it out, the Supreme Court reversed the rulings of the court here, but dismissed the case for want of jurisdiction. This leaves the matter either to be abandoned or begun anew by the plaintiff.

-A letter from Dr. C. U Hubbard conveys the welcome news that Mr. J. T. Hubbard of this place who underwent a surgical operation at a private hospital in Richmond Va., last Thursday is doing fine, and will be able to return home in about a week, the friends of Mr. Hubbard will be glad to know that his case was not as will be the means of a permanent cure. -Dr. Hutchins made a post mortem examination of the stomach of Mr. Lee Bently who died so mysteriously last week, on the Brushys near Poors Kncb, Dr. Hutchins Will have the contents of the stomach anylized to see if any poisen can be found.

We learn the people are very much wrought up and will spare no pains to find the guilty parties and some sensational developments are looked for.
