The Wilkes County Fair.

The Second Annual Fair for Wilkes and adjoining counties which closed last Thursday was a splendid success, the weather was ideal, and large crowds were in attendance each day. The exhibits were splendid, but not as full as ought to have been. The live stock on exhibition, horses, cattle and hogs were very fine indeed. Altogether the Fair was in a measure educational and inspiring to the people of this section, and a fine advertisement of the various industries of this mountain section of the State. It is to be hoped that from time to time these fairs will be a great source of development to our county. We give below the premiums awarded to the prize winners:
