CERTAINLY

Dispatches state that in Ky. they arrested a girl on the charge of insanity because she imagined herself a princess. Here in Winston-Salem we have numbers of women who are regarded as queens.—Winston Journal.

Quite true Bro. Gunter, but we have both in Yadkinville.

From where we sit, we cannot see why a few big preachers, news papers and other selfish beings should criticise the mode of dress adopted by the feminine gender. Just so long as the world desires beautiful women, we will have them, regardless of what it takes to make them.

—FOR SALE, Two good yoke cattle, age 5 and 6, one-half interest in a Saw Mill, one Milch cow. Will sell at bargain as I must raise some money. W. B. Blakley Crutchfield N. C.

Mrs. Mackie Entertains

IN HONOR OF MISSES NORMAN AND SPEAS

One of the most charming affairs of the week was a delightful party given at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Mackie, Saturday night. Mrs. Mackie has always proven herself a charming hostess, and she fully sustained her reputation at this time.

The party was given in honor of Mrs. Mackie's cousin, Miss Myri Norman, of East Bend, and Miss Adeline Speas of Huntsville.

The parlor was beautifully decorated with Holly and presented a neat appearance on the gay young people.

Several amusing and interesting games were played, after which all were invited into the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served. After supper the guests were amused in different ways until the stroke of 11 when the guests parted wishing Mr. and Mrs. Mackie many happy returns.

WYO. LETTER

Sheridan Wyo., Dec. 10, '10
Mr. W. E. Rutledge,
Yadkinville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—Please find enclosed $1.00 for the Yadkin Ripple for one year. I like the paper fine and am glad to see such an improvement in it.

Yours truly,
G. C. Centry.

A woman whose husband died recently, leaving her $2,000 life insurance, reported the sad news to her eastern relatives thusly; "Jim died this week, loss fully covered by insurance"

That Kansas City man who was fined $200 for breaking two of his wife's ribs by hugging her too hard, probably has the sympathy of all the fair sex.

There was no issue of The Ripple last week except a small sheet for legal ads, which smallness was caused by the smallness of desire to work when everybody else was playing.

—The Christmas tree at the Court house Saturday night was a great success.
