LOCAL NEWS

Shore & Douthit are paying $1.20 for wheat.

Mr. Harry Renegar of Shore, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Great Wooten returned Sunday from a visit to her parents near Forbush.

H. H. Mackie has plenty of nice Cabbage Plants, frost proof 15c per hundred.

Ian Glenn, col. who has been a faithful blacksmith here for the past fifteen years, died last week of old age.

Atty's. S. C. Williams, F. W. Hanson and D. M. Reece left yesterday for Statesville to attend court.

Mr. Charlie Dumanagan is getting ready to erect a five room dwelling on his lots on Highland Avenue.

FOR SALE: Two Males Harness and Wagon, will sell separate or all together. Apply to Mrs. Nettie Williams, Route 2.

Mr. W. H. Gough is getting along nicely with his new two story 8 room dwelling on South Main street.

A dwelling and store house at Mt. Nebo was burned down one night last week. Both were unoccupied.

Mr. Darwin Essie has taken a position with the Yadkinville Buggy Co., he is an expert horse shoer and will be glad to serve you.

The County Supt. of health keeps a supply of diphtheria anti-toxine on hand all the time, which is absolutely free to those who are not able to pay for it.

Mr. D. S. Reynolds was sent to Mocksville yesterday by Sheriff Fletcher after one Miles King who was wanted here, and who was in Davis Co. jail. He was placed in jail here on his arrival last night.

Rev. C. H. Utley preached an interesting and instructive sermon on the "influence of modern Sunday School" at the Baptist church Sunday night. This was Mr. Utley's last appointment here and his successor has not been appointed.

to Statesville where they were allowed to give bond till next term of Yadkin Superior Court.

It is not thought that Cleve McBride is seriously hurt and he is being guarded by deputies until he is able to be carried to prison.

Feeling is running high in favor of the officers.

Press Meeting at Winston-Salem

On Tuesday and Wednesday of last week we had the pleasure of attending the Midwinter meeting of the N. C. Press Association at Winston-Salem, and we came away wishing that city and its good citizens many happy returns for their kind treatment while we were their guests.

The entire party stopped at the Zinzendorf Hotel. On the first day all the editors were taken over the city in automobiles, and a smoker at night in the Board of Trade rooms.

After the business session Wednesday there was a Recital at the historical Salem Academy, which was perfect in every detail and given complimentary to the editors. At night a Banquet was given at Hotel Zinzendorf given by the Board of Trade, and it was a most brilliant affair. The editors who attended will long remember the Twin-City for the cordial entertainment, and we would be delighted to go to Salem Academy again.

FOR SALE, a good Farm six miles south of Elkin (laud all level) on Jonesville and Hamptonville road, containing 182 acres, 8 room house, good barn and other buildings all new. Can be bought on easy terms. Apply to D. M. Reece, Yadkinville N. C.

Bad shooting scrap Officers arrested

Knowing what a desperate character they had to encounter Deputy Sheriff Joe Joyner of Iredell Co. and Constable C. Joyner, got three other men Mell Gross and his two sons, Chas. and Marshall, to assist in the arrest of Cleve McBride last Sunday afternoon. Cleve it seems, had sent the sheriffs of Yadkin, Davie and Iredell Co's. invitations to come and get him, but on their visits he would be out. But he was surrounded this time at the home of Jim Hayes near Footville, and knowing there was nearly a dozen warrants hanging over him in the three counties for blockading and retailing, he made a dash for tall timber, with the result that he was shot with a shot gun. After a chase of 900 yards, was caught.

While the Deputy and Constable was busy telephoning the sheriff and doctor Mr Sant Reavis a justice of the peace, who it is said is interested in the parties and probably in their crimes, was busy issuing warrants for the officers, and Deputy sheriff J. E. Shugart was telephoned to come after all of them. The justice refused any of the men a hearing or bond, except the deputy Joe Joyner, with the result that all were placed in jail here Sunday night without bond.

Sheriff Deaton of Iredell was so aroused at this treatment of his men that he secured a writ of Habeas Corpus from the judge now holding court in Statesville and come over yesterday and took them
