Courtney News

Mrs. Phoebe Garner, wife of the late W. W. Garner, was born September 11, 1836 and departed this life March 6, 1911, being 74 years, 5 months and 25 days old. In 1867 she joined the church at Yadkinville, and making it a point to attend services up to the time of her confinement as an invalid six years ago. During these six long years she has been cheered and cared for by the only surviving children, Amy and W. F. C. The love and care of these two for their aged mother is to be commended. She was the mother of seven children. She, of a family of five children, is survived by only one brother, Mr. C. H. Adams, of State Center, Iowa. We join in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

Miss Minnie Cooley, of Dallas, Tex. is spending some time with her mother here. Rev. B. F. Rollins preached here Saturday and Sunday. He is filling the regular appointments until a pastor is elected.

The election Saturday for special tax for our state high school here carried with only ten votes cast against it.

EAST-BEND RT. 2

Mrs. Julia Poindexter had the misfortune to fall and hurt her arm last Thursday. There is quite a lot of sickness in our community.

Most every body has the grippe. Miss Eula Kirk of East Bend was the guest of the Misses Norman last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. T. H. Stimpson, who has been real sick for some time, still remains quite ill.

Messrs. Jess Poindexter and Chester Bowman left last week for Iowa.

There are being several phones installed on the new line from Union Hill to East Bend and we are hoping the line will be extended to Sycamore Ford in the near future.

Miss Lizzie Hall closed her school at Union Hill last Friday night with a spelling.

Mr. Pleas Norman, who left here some weeks ago is now in Maryland, traveling for the Davis Machine Company.

Miss Cornelia Hall closed her school at Chestnut Ridge last Friday night with a box supper. A large crowd attended.

Is Cleaner Than Carpet

Paint your floor around the border of the room with L. and M. Eloor Paint. Costs about 50 cents. Gives a bright varnished finish. Covers the center of the room with your home made carpet rug. Looks splendid. Get it from J. A. Logan.

AIR LINES PROGRESS Train Robbers Sentence

Work on the Statesville Air-Line railroad is progressing nicely. About two and a half miles of the road bed has been graded and the force of State convicts who are doing the work is now nearing Fourth creek. The railroad will cross the creek just below the Turnersburg road, at the Davis place, two and one half miles from Statesville, and will then run alongside the public road for several miles. The road bed will be graded up to the creek and the concrete abutments for the steel bridge put in just as soon as the force gets to the creek, but the bridge will not be built until the work of putting down cross ties and rails begins—Statesville Landmark.

OUR 19TH YEAR

With this issue of the Ripple, we begin our nineteenth year. During the past eighteen years we have been in your midst and are truly grateful for the support that has been given our subscription list as well as our advertising columns.

The Ripple has been under the present management for more than eighteen months, during which time we have increased the subscription list as well as other departments. We take this occasion to thank you all for your past support and assure you of our hearty appreciation of your confidence.

Route two news

Mr. Lee Dinkins died suddenly at his home in Slacktown last Thursday, at an advanced age. The deceased had been splitting wood and came to the house to rest. While resting he fell out of his chair dead. Heart failure was the cause of his death.

An entertainment was given at Williams school house last Saturday night under the direction of Miss Daisy Sherman who has taught a successful school there this winter. The singing, recitations and dialogues by the children were good and did credit to themselves and teacher.

Mrs. Claud Marshall of Winston-Salem has been visiting her father, Mr. John Davis.

Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock the death angel passed over this community and took from our midst Mrs. Mary J. Hobson, aged 62 years. She leaves four brothers and one sister to mourn their loss.

The brothers are, Messrs. R. C. Brown of Farmington, B. B. Brown of Oklahoma, W. B. Brown of California and G. G. Brown and the sister, Miss Rachel Brown of this place.

All four of her children were present at the time of her death. Mrs. Hobson was a good christian mother and will be greatly missed. She joined the church in her early youth and has lived a consistent christian life since, being a member of Forbush Baptist Church at the time of her death. The remains will be laid to rest tomorrow, March 13, in Forbush cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mych is done in the name of friendship; so many.—Exchange.

Gainesville, Ga., March 8—George Anderson, alias "Old Bill" Minor, George Hanford and J. E. Hunter, accused of being members of the gang holding up the United States fast mail, a Southern Railway train near White Sulphur Spring, Ga. on the morning of February 18, were convicted at a special term of the Hall county superior court held here today and sentenced to prison, Anderson for 20 years Hanford and Hunter for 15 years.

Obituary

Many hearts were made sad in the neighborhood of Huntsville, Monday, March 6, by the death of Mrs. Jane E. Long, widow of W. W. Long.

She joined the M. E. church at the age of thirteen years, and lived a devoted Christian the remainder of her life. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bettie Poindexter, with whom she made her home. For some time she had not been well, and on Thursday morning she breathed her last, at the age of eighty years.

Heart trouble was the immediate cause of her death and was conscious to the last, not struggling for a breath.

The funeral services were conducted at 11 o'clock Tuesday by Mr. L. A. Speas, who read a chapter from the Bible; made a few remarks and led in a short prayer, after which "Jesus Lover of My Soul," Mrs. Long's favorite hymn, was sung. The remains were carried to Mt. Sinai and laid to rest beside her husband. The deceased leaves three children: Mr. J. T. Long and Mrs. Bettie Poindexter of Huntsville and Mrs. Walter Smith of Mt. Airy.

"Aunt Jane," as she was known by all, was a dear old lady. She was always jolly and always looked on the bright side of life. If she has a single enemy, no one knows it. She made it a rule to say something good when she said anything about anyone. A few days before her death she said: "I am ready to go at any time, and am only waiting the Lord's call. We are sorry to lose Aunt Jane, but our loss is Heaven's gain, and we should all strive to so live that when our time comes to leave this world, we could say as she did, 'I am only waiting the Lord's call.'"

ROYAL & MYERS

OUT OF SORTS
When you feel lazy, stretchy, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged, look to the liver. It is torpid.

SIMMONS RED Z LIVER REGULATOR
(THE POWDER FORM)

IS THE REMEDY YOU NEED

It is not only an invigorating tonic for a torpid liver, but it extends its cleansing and restorative influence to the stomach and bowels. Helps digestion and food assimilation, purifies the bowels and brings back the habit of regular daily bowel movements. When the stomach, liver and bowels are active, bilious impurities no longer obstruct functional processes, the result of which is renewed energy, mental activity and cheerful spirits.

Sold by Dealers. Price, large package, $1.00. Ask for the genuine with the Red Z on the label. If you cannot get it, remit to us, we will send by mail postpaid. Simmons Liver Regulator is also put up in liquid form for those who prefer it. Price, $1.00 per bottle. Look for the Red Z label.

Attacks School Principal

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga. is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands and bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor try them. Only 50c at all dealers.
