Great excitement was caused in this community last Friday morning when a phone message from Baltimore stated a mad dog was headed this way. Several men with guns went in pursuit and succeeded in killing it near Mr. A. Dinkins' home. When found it was fighting with several dogs. Each county is thereby given full power to regulate its liquor traffic.

Cost of Bad Roads

Danbury Reporter
Dr. J. H. Elington of Sandy Ridge, was in Danbury Monday and dropped in to see the Reporter. He is among those of the county who favor better roads, and told the Reporter that he was willing to be taxed to get them. The doctor said he recently had the pleasure of driving over some of Guilford county's excellent macadam roads and that he enjoyed it very much. As an instance of the disadvantage of our bad roads he cited a case near his home where on account of the dreadful roads a man who owned only a one-horse team had to hire his crop of tobacco hauled to market with two horses which cost him nine dollars. The doctor stated that the extra cost this man was put to on account of bad roads would have paid his road tax for many years.

Another citizen from the same section stated that he recently hired a team to go to market twelve miles away, paying him $2.50 per day for the team. It required two days to make the trip of only 24 miles, making the team cost him $5.00 and he did well to pull twelve hundred pounds through the mud. With good roads the trip would have cost him only $2.50 and one day of his time, and he would have hauled twenty-four hundred pounds. That is paying bad road tax at a high rate.

The Dead Letter Office

When you write an important letter be sure to place a return stamp upon it or have something on or in it indicating your exact address. At the Dead Letter auction every year the increasing national carelessness in correspondence sends over a hundred thousand letters and parcels to be auctioned off by the Post-office department. This year the net revenue from this sale amounted to $8,749.75, and among the auctioned matter were more than 7,000 parcels.
At the sale there are always a number of bidders ready to take a chance of finding contents of value in the letters and parcels from the dead letter office, and it is needless to say that myriads of tragedies and comedies can be read between the lines of these waifs of the great ocean of postal communications.

Pointers

We guess the continuing cool weather is caused by an attempt to put wool on the free list.

Doctor Cook ought to be in that Democratic body at Washington. He has all the accomplishments—telling hot air stories.

That Democratic Congress might change the date of Easter to a little later in the season, that it may be in warmer weather.

The Durham Sun says with much truth "Mose Speaks is about the only man put on trial in this State in years who had any sort of grounds for a plea of insanity, and yet he is about the only one who failed to make it.

Congressman Kitchen says the Democratic house has done more in a few days than the Republicans have in many years. Strange we had not heard what they done. Can some Democratic editor tell us what it was?

A Maori clergyman sojourning in Chicago suggests that the Maori custom of rubbing noses be substituted for kissing. This gentleman ought to go to Newport or Paris if he wants to start a new fashion. We refuse to adopt the custom until it is endorsed by them.

Only In Jersey.

W. J. Bryan, Champ Clark and Governor Wilson will all make speeches the same night from the same platform in New Jersey at an early date. Can they get a platform that they can all stand on?—Elkin Times.

We are of opinion that you might expect anything to happen up in Jersey, but they cannot all stand on the same national platform.

Taking Away From the Subject.
