Jonah says it was all done so sudden he did not have time to study over the situation or he would not have confessed so easy.

Grand Jurors Report

To his Honor C. C. Lions, Judge presiding:
We, the Grand Jurors beg leave to submit the following report.
We have finished up the business given us in charge. Many witnesses called and failed to answer and necessarily we could not act on several bills for want of witnesses.
We visited the county home in a body and found the inmates cared well for, but we recommend that a committee of three be appointed by the county commissioners to look after the county home and see that the poor are well cared for and to look after the lands and see that they are kept up, and that this committee be reasonably compensated for their services. We also visited the Jail in a body and found it in good condition, well kept and safe. We recommend that better arrangements be made for the prisoners to sleep.
We visited Clerk's, Sheriffs and Register's office and found them in good condition and books properly kept.
We examined the court house and find that there ought to be a dozen good chairs, also a good easy chair for the Judge to sit in. We further recommend that the over-head ceiling be given a new coat of paint and that the walls be whitewashed and cleaned up generally.
J. A. Lillington,
Foreman Grand Jury.

Damage Suit Settled

The Case of J. A. Logan and M. W. Mackie against J. D. Hodges, which has been in the Superior Court here for some time was settled last week, when the defendant agreed to pay all the cost in the case and at the same time admitted that he was wrong when he said Messrs Mackie and Logan were implicated in the robbery of the Post-office and County treasurer at this place in 1904.
The plaintiffs were suing for $5,000 each, in separate cases, for slander, which grew out of the writing of a postal card to Prof. Martin, who was then County Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mr. Hodges held the same office in Davie county where he lives.
The case was tried one time before, the judge holding that Hodges had a right to send the information on account of his official position.
This ends a suit that has been watched with a great deal of interest by people in Yadkin as well as adjoining counties.

60th Anniversary.

Golden wedding are rare occasions but a sixtieth anniversary is more exceptional. This blessing was the privilege of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Joyce, of Danbury, N. C., who the past week happily enjoyed the sixtieth anniversary in the presence of many relatives and friends. The husband is 85 years old and his good wife is years younger. At one time Mr. Joyce was solicitor of the District and as a lawyer has an ex-

It is getting so it costs about as much to rig up a lady's head as it does to start a National Bank.
Now they say money talks because there's a woman on the dollar. Well well, we learn something new nearly every day.
Ex-Governor Glenn said in Raleigh the other day that the chances were bright for electing a Democratic President in 1912. Didn't this same man say this same thing before the election of 1908?

A Washington dispatch of recent date says that Socialist all over the country are raising funds for the defence of the McNamara's, on trial in Los Angeles for blowing up a building in which 21 persons were killed. If this is what Socialism means excuse me.

In the issue of the Raleigh Times, (Democratic,) on May 8th is something interesting. The left hand column on the front page reads: Democrats traveling rocky road. In the opposite corner it reads thusly: Signs points to Democracy. Oh, consistency thou art a jewel.

Shooting Affair.

It has just come to our ears of a shooting affair that occurred a few miles south of here about two weeks ago. It appears that Mr. Sanford Caudle was accused of "reporting" some illicit distilleries in that section some time ago, and they had it in for him. The intruders went to Caudle's home one night and called him to come out, and being suspicious, he took his gun with him.
No sooner was he on the porch when a shot rang out a short distance away, but missed its mark, then Caudle let go one in the direction of the first one and someone give a yell, but it is not known if the load took effect.
It is understood that one of the party has confessed.

No Sale of Whiskey

No whiskey will be sold at Williams for some time yet according to the decision of Judge Boyd of the federal court, who has rendered his opinion, in which he decided that the bond given for the 30,000 gallons of booze stored in the big warehouse at Williams, this county, is good and has informed Collector Brown that he has no right to make a sale for the taxes.
The case has been pending in the federal court for several weeks. The final hearing in the matter was held last week and the judge reserved a decision in the case until this week and now it is learned that he has decided with the plaintiffs Williams and Foster, and finds that no contingency affecting the validity of the bonds has arisen and that they are still in force, the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore being the surety.
District Attorney Holton has been given 30 days in which to file exceptions.
