Little Boy Run Down State Good Roads Meeting

Hackett, small son of Dr. Harding was painfully but not fatally hurt, Monday afternoon, when he tried to run across the street in front of a horse driven by Mrs. W. T. Myers and Miss Lura Cherry of Winston. The boy was knocked down and badly bruised by being stepped on by the horse.

No blame is attached to the ladies' driving.

General News

The "Good old Summer time is here with high temperature and we also still have the offensive pig pen with us, detracting much from the pleasure of the evenings out of doors.

When Charles Lucas, a farmer of Jackson, Tenn., entered his henhouse one morning last week, he discovered that 13 of his hens had been stolen in the night. Under the hen-roost he found a gold watch, which he brought here and a jeweler pronounced it one of the finest timepieces he ever saw. He fixed its value at $250.

The first car of this seasons watermelons were loaded at Candler Fla., the 19 for New York markets. It broke two records. The price it brought is $400, and this is the earliest date at which melons have ever been shipped from there. The vines were planted in January and covered during the cold weather.

Some time ago a gentleman told us to send him our paper and in getting his name on the mailing list he missed one copy, and raised a mighty howl wrote us a letter in red ink, etc. Some days ago we sent him a statement but as yet he has not showed up. An editor can live on wind according to some peoples way of thinking.

Catawba County is claiming strawbenaeas as big as peaches. The editor of the Times is from Missouri and refuses to believe the statement in the absence of proof. If the Editor of the News or Enterprize of Newton will send us some samples we will believe, otherwise not. Elkin Times.

We are from Missouri too if they are going to send out some samples to prove.

STILL AHEAD

WHILE I was being shaved the shop door opened gently and in walked a colored boy of fifteen, who looked around in an embarrassed way for a moment and said to the barber:

"Jim, you was gaiged to my Sister Linca."

"You mean I is engaged to her," was the pompous reply.

"But Linda has sent word."

"Oh, she has? Does she dun want the marriage hurried up?"

"No, sah; she dun wants you to know dat she married Bill Lee, hont two hours ago."

"What? What's dat? Your sister dun married to dat nigger. Very well sah. Den you return to dat sister and gib her my compliments end teell her dot I was dun married mo'dan fo' weeks ago, and dat she hain't dun fooled me worf shucks! Dat's all sah, and please close de doah as pou go out!"—Ex.

Is Cleaner Than Carpet

Paint your floor around the corner of the room with L. and M. Eloor Paint. Costs about 50 cents. It gives a bright varnished finish. Cover the center of the room with your home made carpet rug. Looks splendid. Get it from L. A. Logan.
