DISASTROUS FIRE AT EAST-BEND

Two Stores-Dwelling and other Business wiped out by Flames

Fire Saturday night destroyed the store building and stock of goods of Davis & Co., the residence of Mr. Bruton Davis, the residence of Mrs. J. G. Joyner and the confectionary store of R. G. Patterson at East Bend.
 The fire started about 10:45 o'clock in Golden Belt Tobacco Bag agency of which Mr. Zeno Hutchens is manager, but the origin is unknown. Fed by a strong wind the flames spread to Davis and Company's store, which was very near, and then caught Mr. Davis' house. The flames crossed an alley to the East Bend Refreshment Co's store and Mrs. Joyner's home next caught. Within an hour and a half the buildings were all burned to the ground.
 It was by strenuous efforts and unceasing work on the part of the large number of volunteer fire fighters and the dense shade along the street that the flames were held on the one side. On the other side of the street the houses of Messrs. J. M. Whittington, Jas Smitherman and Franklin Williams were in great danger and caught a number of times, but the flames were stopped before they were damaged to any great extent. The furniture was removed from all these buildings.
 The total damage will probably amount to $20,000 with very little insurance. Mr. Davis was the greatest loser, his stock of goods being worth $10,000 or $12,000 and insured for about one third of its value. All of the other people had some insurance except Mrs. Joyner.

Keeper of Donaha Bridge Falls Dead

Mr. Taylor, an old gentleman, who is toll keeper at the bridge over the Yadkin river at Donaha, dropped dead last Thursday about 12 o'clock, while standing in the road before the house in which he lives.

Mr. Taylor was getting rather old and feeble and it is supposed that his death was caused by heart failure, although very few facts connected with his death could be learned. He lived in a house built at the end of the bridge on the bank of the river and he was standing before the house when the end came without warning.

The Wilkesboro Chronicle accuses us of being "nature-fakers" in connection with our cucumber-squash story of a few weeks ago. It does look like any gentleman who pushes an editorial pen in Wilkes county has no right to raise a howl, knowing as he does the large number of long years that have issued from Wilkes in the last decade without a single act of criticism from us. He will perhaps remember next time, as Bob Deal is a "jolly good fellow."

Case Pellegra in Yadkin

Charity Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Dunn, near Courtney, has a well developed case of pellegra.
 The young girl is about 20 years old and has been deaf and dumb all her life and it is said her mind is affected to some extent which is a symptom of the dreadful disease. Dr. Harding has been to see her several times. He says the breaking out is only found on portions of the body that is exposed to the sun.
 The disease has many symptoms of different kinds and may prove fatal at anytime or may disappear altogether during the winter and return in summer.
 So far as is known this is the first case that has appeared in this county.

THE SINGING SCHOOL

Have you heard any rumors about Yadkinville being the worst place on earth? Well, they are afloat. It came about as a result of a "rumpus" among the stockholders of the Singing School Co.
 In the first place the Stock Company was organized without the people of Yadkinville having a chance to subscribe stock with the exception of a few young men who had no families. The object of the promoters was to get their children through the school free of charge and if any deficiency occurred then all share alike in making up the necessary funds.
 With this object still in view, still keep in mind they approach none in Yadkinville who had children to send. At the first meeting of the Stockholders a resolution was passed allowing children of Stockholders to go free.
 The good people, after being slighted in this manner, submitted the Methodist church to them to hold the school in, then they began to talk about the town not furnishing more students. Next they wanted the Court House to hold the Concert in, and this was granted, then came the worst. Mr. S. T. Hinchshaw, President of the Singing School Co., accused the citizens in public, of causing the Normal to be unsuccessful financially. He said Yadkinville contained some of the worst citizens to be found, calling them "Low down stenching scoundrels" and many other names.
 This operated as a climax to his and others two weeks abuse and resentment was forth coming from us. Think of it! After being slighted in the first place, then still doing them favors, these ungentlemanly remarks came uncalled for.
 In regard to town taxes, the contention of the town is that it was a scheme for speculation, and as for part of the Stockholders it was a scheme for speculation.
 When this became apparent to the others, who live here, they immediately exposed the "bunch" and consequently the out of town bunch are telling great things about our people which are unjust, as the country people know that the merchants and all other business men here treat them well when they come to town in time of plenty or in time of
