The Farmers' Institute.

Several people attended the Farmers' Institute which was held here Friday of last week. Unusual interest was manifested by every one present. A large number of ladies were also present. Several had light-bread to exhibit, the best being that baked by Mrs. W. A. Hall, taking the prize of $1.00 offered by the State.

In the Institute for men the $1.00 prize for the five ears of corn was won by Mr. Tom Lynch and a $1.00 prize was also offered for the best pig exhibited. Only one was brought and that was by Mr. Walter Poindexter, and he was, of course, entitled to the prize.

Dr. Chrisman who was to speak on "Live Stock on the Farm" was not present and his assistant, Dr. Clow made an interesting talk in his place.

Tobacco culture, by E. G. Moss was given good attention and beneficial results will be forthcoming by taking his advice.

As a whole the Institute was a success in every respect.

Negress Dies at Age of 116 Years

Perhaps the oldest inhabitant of North Carolina, if not the entire country, died in this city yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, when aunt Mary Summers, col. passed to the great beyond after a pilgrimage of 116 years here, according to her own and her peoples account of her age. It is said that Aunt Mary was born in Virginia in 1795. She had been living in this city, at her home in the negro settlement on East Third street, for a number of years.—Winston Journal, 16th.

Save Your Grass.

Hay next winter will be $30 or more a ton. Better save all the crabgrass you can. Even the ragweed that comes on the grain stubble if cut and cured will make good feed for dry cattle, but should not be fed to milk cows, as it will make the milk bitter. The man who has a good field of peas or soy beans this summer is fortunate, and the farmer who regularly looks out for these generally has them.—Raleigh, (N. C.) Progressive Farmer.

A Trip to Blowing Rock.

The more I go into Western North Carolina the more I am impressed with the greatness and grandeur of that section of this glorious old State of ours—its fine climate and beautiful scenery, its wealth of forests and fertile fields, its vast waterpowers and mineral resources, and its still greater wealth of splendid citizenship.

On Saturday morning, August 12th we left North Wilkesboro in Automobiles, the party being composed of Messrs. C. E. Jenkins, the popular traveling salesman, C. A. Hadley, Richmond Co., J. W. West and Mrs. J. W. West of Wilmington, Miss Hannah Taylor of Rocky Mount, two Chaffeurs, Barnes and Paris of Wilkesboro and myself, and we were bound for Blowing Rock, that famous summer resort, 55 miles west of Wilkesboro.

Our first stop was at Moravian Falls and took a peep in at the Yellow Jacket office, from which office flows more columns of original and caustic "dope" than any place in North Carolina. Our next stop was for the night at Lenoir, where we spent a most pleasant night at the Martin House, and we might add here that many thanks are due Mr. and Mrs. Farthing for their efforts in entertaining us.

On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock we were on our way up the mountain a distance of 23 miles over a splendid road. Now it traverses the heart of the forest fragrant, with balsam and ferns, then emerges into the sunlight, where wide-spread views of matchless grandeur are spread out before you. And from another point you get a glimpse of some sweet quiet valley with perchance, the modest home of some mountaineer, in its little clearing, far below.

Aside from a few small mishaps, the trip was made without accident, to Blowing Rock where:

The girls are very sweet, And dress very neat, On the mountain top At Blowing Rock.

Blowing Rock stands 4300 feet above the sea level, commanding a splendid view of the surrounding country, one of the finest views which all our mountain country affords. For miles and miles up and down the valley and across toward the north and west until mountain tops and sky seem to come together and sight is lost in the mist-like haze that rims the horizon there is spread out a picture the varied coloring and magnificent beauty of which language fails me to describe.

Reaching Blowing Rock a little after noon, the time was delightfully and quietly spent enjoying a fresh cool breeze. To the west from this point can be seen the peaks of Grandfather mountain, so called from the resemblance of its profile to that of an aged man, and which stands up as majestic as Gibraltar, 5964 feet above the sea.

Leaving Blowing Rock at 5 o'clock p. m. Monday, on our return we visited the Rock from which the place takes its name, also took a drink, (of water,) out of the spring that is the head of the Yadkin river which, further down, furnishes so much power and other beneficial enterprises for North and South Carolina, before entering into the great Atlantic.

Nothing unusual happened before reaching Lenoir except when (for a minute) the thoughts of those in the front car were lost to the fried chicken they were expecting when they reached Lenoir and the Automobile was run into a toll gate, demolishing the same.

At Lenoir the night was spent again and the drive to Wilkesboro occupying about three hours. Here it was necessary for us to tell the remainder of the party good bye. Mr. Jenkins is due many thanks for his kindness during the trip. Mr. and Mrs. West left the following Friday for their home. Mr. West being a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line and having a short vacation. Miss Taylor left the same day for Baltimore, Md. on business.

The party enjoyed the trip to the fullest, and it will long be remembered by all.

Accused Of Stealing

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me. boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c. at all druggists.

The Country Needs a Rest.

By ROGER W. BABSON, Economist, of Harvard University.

THE country has been going too long at top speed, and it NEEDS A PERIOD FOR REST AND READJUSTMENT. Any country or any person would after working itself up to such a pitch of excitement.

If you or I go, without sleep for a night or two we have to make it up, haven't we?

WE ARE SPENDING TOO MUCH MONEY. EVERYBODY IS SPENDING TOO MUCH MONEY. NOT ONLY INDIVIDUALS, BUT FIRMS, CORPORATIONS, CITIES, STATES, THE NATION, ARE SPENDING TOO MUCH. HOW CAN THINGS IMPROVE WHEN WE HAVE NO MONEY SAVED TO INVEST? WHO SAVES MONEY? PEOPLE HAVE GOT TO HAVE LUXURIES AND CAN'T BE SORED WITH THE IDEA OF SAVING.

Our habit of mind has got to be that we must have what our neighbor has. We really accept this as the reason for spending money. Next door they have an automobile. It is convenient and pleasant. So the NEIGHBOR MUST HAVE ONE TOO.

It was expected that ABOUT $700,000,000 THIS YEAR WOULD BE SPENT IN AUTOMOBILES, including the money put into the plants and the money spent for the machines. And this is only one item. We simply MUST LEARN TO PUT MONEY BY, must learn to invest it, if we want to have any lasting prosperity.

THERE IS NOTHING SERIOUS ABOUT THE MATTER WITH THE COUNTRY, AND CONDITIONS WILL QUIETLY ADJUST THEMSELVES IF THEY ARE LET ALONE, BUT THE MORE YOU ATTEMPT TO MANIPULATE THEM THE WORST YOU ARE GOING TO MAKE THEM.

The Yadkin Ripple, $1. per year.
