

Wheat Plant Captured With Three Operators

Last Wednesday night two county officers, J. E. Shugart and Joe Harding, and Mr. M. V. West, who was deputised by them, went down below the Shallow Ford, on the Clingman place, in search of an illicit distillery, and the search was not in vain. Just at midnight they went into the hollow where the still was reported to be and found it in full blast with three men and one boy there. At sight of the officers every one made a dash for safety but three of them were caught. Those captured were: Bennett Basset and Fate Hauser, white, and Sin Long, col. The small boy whose name is said to be Church Bowles, a small white boy got away, and the others say he was 'possum hunting.

About 500 gallons of beer was destroyed, and fermenters enough to hold 2000 gallons more but no whiskey was to be seen. The prisoners were taken before a justice of the peace and all but the negro plead guilty, and were bound over to court in a justified bond of $300 each. The negro was bound over in a bond of $100. They were unable to furnish bond at the time and remained in jail until Saturday when a bond was sent in. The negro has been in jail here before, charged with disturbing religious worship.

According to accounts this was a dangerous piece of work and these men are to be complimented on the success of the job.

Mr. R. W. Zachary Dead

Mr. Raleigh W. Zachary, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county died at his home two miles from here early Monday morning at the age of 38.

Mr. Zachary has been keeper of the county home for this county since 1908, and has given perfect satisfaction in his official capacity, besides being a clever and honest gentleman. He was loved by all who knew him, and his death will be mourned by the county at large. He professed faith in Christ about 15 years ago and has lived a consistent christian since that time.

His remains were laid to rest in the town cemetery yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after a short but appropriate burial service conducted by Rev. T. C. Myers, assisted by Prof. Z. H. Dixon, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends.

Although he has been suffering for some time with tuberculosis, his death was somewhat sudden and unexpected, and came as a shock to his many friends.

Mr. Zachary was married to Miss Cora Marler of this place in 1903, which union has been blessed with three bright children. The widow and bereaved children, as well as all the other relatives have the sincere sympathy of the entire neighborhood.

SPECIAL OFFER

For a few days only we make this special offer which is unequal to anything we have ever offered. We will send you The Yadkin Ripple from now until January 1, 1913 for only $1.00.

This enables you to get all the news of the next Campaign as well as the general news of this county and important news of the whole country in a condensed form.

We could not make this offer but we are anxious to increase our subscription list a few hundred.

Your support in this means a better paper and we will be glad to place your name on our mailing list. Tell your friends about it.

RAILROAD MEETING MONDAY

Listen! There will be a meeting in the Court House next Monday to which every person in Yadkin county is invited. The proposition to be considered is the building of a Railroad. We cannot give the particulars of the road this week, but it is safe to say that the prospects for the road are bright; that it comes from the Eastern part of the state via Winston and direct through this county. Every part of the county should be represented as it will be a county proposition. Twenty miles of the road is now in operation.

Accused Of Stealing

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton Mo. boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c. at all druggists.

Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood, strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.
