WANTS $5,000 FOR WIFE'S AFFECTION

Is the love and affection of a good looking woman worth $5,000? This question will in all probability be decided at the next term of Yadkin Superior Court, an action having been begun against K. M. Thompson, a very prominent citizen of Jonesville, this county, by John Spann of the same place, in which he charges that the defendant seduced his wife and alienated her affection, and asks damages in the above amount.

It seems that the trouble began in 1910 but never reached its climax until a short time ago. Spann and his wife were married in 1895 and have five children. They have become separated over the affair. Thompson is also a man with a large family having several grown children.

This is the first case of this kind ever begun in this county, and no doubt will create a great deal of excitement, especially in the community where the parties live, the defendant being a prominent merchant and Justice of the Peace.

The Ancillary remedy of arrest and bail has been invoked and the defendant will be required to give bond in the sum of $5,000 when arrested which it is expected will be today, to make good any judgment that may be rendered against him. The plaintiff is represented by Atty D. M. Reece of this place and W. W. Barber of Wilkesboro.

Speaking of apples, it may sometime dawn on the people of western North Carolina that the production of large apple crops is one of the certain roads to wealth.—Asheville Citizen.

Local News

—Mr. J. Lewis Talburt returned Monday from Winston where he has been holding a position. Hope he has come to stay.

—Dr. M. A. Royall and E. R. Russell performed an operation on the eye of Miss Connie Reynolds last week. She is improving nicely.

—A real estate deal of much interest was closed here Monday when Mr. H. B. James sold his dwelling house and livery barn and lot to Mess. F. W. Hanes W. G. Wooten and J. E. Zachary. The purchase price being $3,000.

—The next regular meeting of the Teachers Association will be held in Yadkinville on the first Monday in December. The last meeting was well attended in spite of the inclement weather, and the session was an interesting one. It has been arranged for the teachers to suspend their work in the school room, so that they may attend these meetings, and count that day as regular school work. A full attendance of teachers is urged, and all friends of education are cordially invited.

—Mary, the 4 1/2 year old daughter of Mr and Mrs. W. E. Royall, died rather suddenly Sunday at 12 o'clock. The little girl had been suffering slightly with rheumatism, but was not thought to be anyway serious. The funeral was preached in the Baptist church on Monday afternoon by Rev. T. C. Myers, before a large congregation of relatives and friends, after which the burial took place in the town cemetery. We join with the entire community in extending our sympathy to the bereaved father and mother.

BEATTIE WILL DIE 24TH

Governor Mann of Virginia has refused to interfere with the sentence of the court in the case of Henry Clay Beattie Jr., convicted of the murder of his young wife.

The Supreme Court, a few days ago, refused the young man a new trial and executive power was the only hope of him and his lawyers. But the governor stood firm and refused to interfere saying there were many reasons.

Thus ends one of the most famous cases of recent years, and on next Friday [Nov. 24th.] Beattie will pay the penalty for his crime with his own life in the electric chair at Richmond.

Courtney News

Miss Bruce Baity returned last Friday from Durham, where she had been visiting her sister.

Misses Redman, Reece and Smyre were in Mocksville Saturday shopping.

Mr. I. I. Baity left Saturday for Winston to accept a position. He is contemplating moving his family there in the near future.

Mr. J. M. Craver was in Mocksville Saturday.

Misses Mattye and Bruce Baity spent Saturday in Yadkinville shopping.

The school Board has recently built a neat wood house for the school. This is a part of the school equipment often neglected in many districts, however it is a necessity during the winter months.

No Love Like Mothers

If boys are taught to be gentle and chivalrous toward their sisters they will treat all women in the same way. There is no necessity for formality in the home, but brothers and sisters should be just as polite to each other as they would be to strangers. The mere fact that they are closely related does not give them the right to treat each other like wild little animals. It is hard for a busy mother to exact politeness from a large family of children, but if she begins from their infancy they will soon get the habit, and it will become second nature. Don't get too far away from your own people. Don't forget nor neglect them, for they are your best friends. No other woman will fill for you as your mother does. She may not see you for years but your place is there in her heart just the same. Blood is thicker than water, and no matter where you go or whom you meet your own people should always hold the first place in your heart.—Ex.

A gentleman from Vance township tells us that his neighbor Mr. J. L. Helms, an up-to-date farmer, notwithstanding that the drought has cut his crop short, will make 900 bushels of corn, 20 or 25 bales of cotton, 200 gallons of molasses and 300 bushels of sweet potatoes, all with two small mules. Mr. Helms hired no help and thinks that if it had not been for the drought he would have made 40 bales of cotton.—Monroe Enquirer.

Winston's Aviation Meet

Wednesday and Thursday, November 29 and 30, will be red letter days in the history of Forsyth county and Winston-Salem, for on those two days will be given an aviation meet, automobile races and band concerts on a plan never before attempted in North Carolina.

Two flying machines driven by two aviators in a series of six flights, automobile races for cash prizes and continuous band concert between flights. The merchants of Winston will give special bargains on those days. Tickets are now on sale at O'hannous drug store.

Reply to "J. A. L."

EDITOR RIPPLE:

I see an article in your paper of last week signed J. A. L. airing the subject of the McBride the man who was shot in attempt to evade arrest some time ago. I do not believe that an officer should use excessive means in making an arrest at any time but means sufficient to subdue the violator of the law and bring him to justice.

But what struck me so forcibly was that he said that if he had been on that jury he "would have convicted the last one of them or hung that jury until now."

He says further that "it is only in recent years that a blockader of whiskey is considered a great criminal; Remembers a few years ago when the best men of our county was engaged in the business" etc.

Now Mr. Editor I believe those jurymen did the best they could under the circumstances and tried to do the right thing. But I do not understand how a man can be a blockader and at the same time be the best men of our county in Yadkin than this. I do not think that most of our business men and property holders got their start this way.

This would be a little humiliating to remember that we got our start by violating the law and stealing from the government; breaking the hearts of wives, children, sisters, etc. which is the result of the effects of whiskey. If the writer had said that most of the blockaders got their start towards Poverty, Shame, Disgrace and hell I would have understood it better.

I have regard for McBride and hope he will reform and become a good citizen as he is a young man he could be a great blessing to his community.

$ $ DOLLARS FOR YOU $ $

The man who sells his tobacco with the Leader Warehouse, Winston, N. C. is always the best pleased. We know how to sell tobacco and we are in position to get the bids that count. We do not claim everything but we deliver the goods, or in other words, we sell your tobacco for more money than any other house in the State.

The Leader sold nearly twice as large a percent of the tobacco sold on the Winston market in October 1911 as it did in October 1910. Why has our business about doubled over last year? There is a reason. Ask a Leader customer and you will let us sell your next load or tierce.

Your Friends,
