Christian Harmony Songs

The old time singing by old time singers from the old time Christian Harmony song book was a feature at the Baptist church last Sunday. The singers were led by Rev. Mr. Brown pastor of the church, and most of the singers came with him from his home church but a few came from all over the county and some from Davie county. Such old songs as "Cambria," "Tribulation" and "Easter Anthem" were sung, and were sung well by the old people and enjoyed by all present.

These famous old aristocratic airs were to many old folks the same of the now famous "Dixie" or some of the less famous State airs are to the several states which have adopted them.

The people of Yadkinville considered this a great treat and pride themselves on this town being selected for the singing.

FOURTH OF JULY

Let every reader of this column plan for a jolly time on the Fourth.

We live too fast in America. We have not enough holidays—not enough resting places—not enough intermission in our work day world. It were better if oftener to have laid aside its tools—traffic and trade stopped, now and then, and to consider its aim an end.

There must be an oasis in every desert. The black Sieras has its sunlit valleys. There are smiling nooks even among the Cordilleras. Halting places they are, great rocks and their shadows, even in the dreariest land. He who builds up a shelter for the storm-beaten and foot weary pilgrim over the road traced by the "great caravan" is a benefactor to his race and his memories should be cherished while holidays are observed.

Holiday time! Who would care to know why and whence came the custom! Enough to know that care-forced must smooth his wrinkled front, and fun and frolic for the time rule the hour. It were folly not to enjoy the glimmers or sunshine that come through the cloud rifts, short lived and evanescent though they be. They prove that there is brightness beyond—that no clouds are so dense but stray beams penetrate them.

Rosy faces, wreathed and joyous, welcome the festive season. With its merriments, its reminders, its regrets, and its hopes, comes the happy holiday. It is well that the builders set up mile posts on the highway of time, also it were a dull and tiresome road.

Mail Carriers Will Fly

This is an age of great discoveries. Progress rides on the air. Soon we may see Uncle Sam's mail carriers flying in all directions transporting mail. People take a wonderful interest in a discovery that benefits them. That's why Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, Colds and other throat and lung diseases is the most popular medicine in America. "It cured me of a dreadful cough," writes Mrs. J. F. Davis, Stickney Corner, Me., "after doctor's treatment and all other remedies had failed." For coughs, colds or any other bronchial affection its unequalled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all Druggists.

WILSON AND MARSHAL HE'D DEM. TICKET

A phone message received here this morning says that Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey was nominated yesterday by the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore for President of the United States on 45th ballot. Gov. Marshal of Indiana was nominated for Vice-President.

Death of Mr. Couch

Mr. E. M. Couch, aged 70 years, died at his home in north Iredell last Friday and was buried at Zion church this county, Saturday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Linney conducting the funeral services. Mr. Couch is survived by a widow and seven children.

A Sudden Death

Mrs. Bloom Calaway of Chestnut Ridge, this county died suddenly at her home Saturday night, death supposed to have resulted from heart failure. Mrs. Calaway was in her usual health Saturday and not until she retired Saturday night was there any sign of her being sick. She lived only a few minutes after she was found to be sick.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.
