When in Winston, for an easy shave and good hair cut see O. D. Castevens, prop. of the Antiseptic Barber Shop on Liberty Street between Auditorium and Liberty Theatre.

Let Warden the Tailor take your measure for a nice tailor-made suit. The truth is, no one that has ever worn a tailor-made garment could ever be satisfied with the poorly machine made ha d-me-down kind.

Reece is Principal and has as his assistants Miss Ethel Reece who has charge of the intermediate department and Miss Connie Reynolds who has charge of the primary work. Miss Reece has not yet arrived but will be in in a few days.
Mr. Reece is a son of our townsman Atty D. M. Reece and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina while his assistants have had much experience as teachers.
We predict for Mr. Reece much success in this work as well as his assistants and sincerely hope that they will keep up the high standard of educational and moral training set by his predecessor Prof. Z. H. Dixon.

Singers Convention Here

The Yadkin County Singers Convention will meet next in Yadkinville on the fifth Sunday in September.
Some time last year the Singers convention met here and the singing was greatly enjoyed by all, and the citizens of the town turned out in goodly numbers to hear them. Our people will no doubt be glad to hear that this convention will come here again.
In the last convention at Deep Creek eight choirs participated in the contest and it is said the largest crowd that was ever witnessed at that church was there that day.
As said above we are glad these people are coming to Yadkinville again. We welcome them here.

Woman Preaches Funeral

The funeral of Jno. S. Harkney, of Spencer who was accidentally killed by a traction engine running into a ditch near Lexington, June 20th, was preached by Mrs. G. A. B. Holderby, of East Spencer at Friendship, Stanley county, Sunday afternoon. It is unusual for a woman to preach the funeral of a man but such was the case this time.—Spencer Dispatch.

A liar.
A sponger.
A know all.
A girl that giggles.
A woman that talks.
Some weather prophets.
More loafers than it needs.
Boys who cut up at church.

A few girls who will go with a thing like that.
Some men who are to gray for the town.
A few who know how to run the affairs of the country.
A green young man who laughs every time he says anything.
A girl who goes to the post-office every time a mail comes in.
Scores of men with the gable end of their trousers worn as smooth as a window pane.
People who look around in church when anyone comes in and could not tel. for their life whether the preacher took his text from the Bible or an almanac.

Progressive Convention.

The Progressive Convention advertised to be held here Monday at 1 o'clock, with Mr. J. A. Gray as temporary chairman.
After a few preliminary remarks a committee was appointed to name the candidates and they were only a few minutes in reporting. Only a part of the ticket was nominated, these being: For Representative A. A. Willard for Treasurer, J. Lee Norman, and County commissioners J. A. Gray, Frank Woodhouse, and J. M. Casey.

Some of the Progressives present objected to this method of selecting candidates and a heated argument ensued, but so far as could be seen no one went away mad.
The convention was held in the court room and when called to order a little less than 100 people were present, a good many of these being Democrats.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes weeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

What Makes a Woman?

One hundred and twenty, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's just what Electric Bitters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by all Druggists.
