Ashbrook-James

A wedding marked by simplicity and impressiveness was that of Miss Jennie James and Mr. S. E. Ashbrook, which took place last Saturday at 1 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. James. Rev. J. T. Stover tied the knot, which was witnessed by a dozen most intimate friends and relatives of the family. The bride wore a blue going-away suit with hat and gloves to match, and the groom also was dressed in blue. A sumptuous dinner was served in the dining room immediately preceding the ceremony which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ashbrook left for Washington D. C., where they will reside, carrying with them the best wishes of their friends.

Blown to Atoms by Dynamite

When twenty-five sticks of dynamite exploded in his arm Charles Sprinkle was literally blown to pieces last Wednesday and only a few fragments of the body was found the largest piece being one foot which is said to have been found 200 yards away. The horrible catastrophe occurred in a field near Crutchfield where Sprinkle was engaged in dynamiting stumps.

He had placed one stick of dynamite under a stump and lighted the fuse. After waiting a reasonable length of time returned to the stump to investigate, carrying with him the 25 sticks. Just as he reached the stump the explosion took place. The shock exploded the ones under his arm with the result stated above.

Death of Mrs. Myers

Mrs. Lou Myers, widow of the late Frederic Myers, who died several years ago, and a brother of Rev. T. C. Myers, died in Hickory, N. C., Dec. 8 1912, aged 74, years.

She was a Miss Kenyon of Davie county, N. C. She and her husband left N. C. immediately after the civil war settling in Oklahoma.

In company with her daughter Mary, was returning to her native home, and while in Hickory she was suddenly taken ill with pneumonia living only a few days. She was buried at the old Hendrix grave yard 3 miles south of Yadkinville.

Birthday Dinner

"Uncle John" Hutchens, as he is called by his neighbors, and who lives on route one from East Bend, celebrated his 83 birthday last Saturday with something like 150 of his friends and relatives who called in to see him. Mr. Hutchens says he has been a total abstainer of the coffee drinking habit for 76 years, but during that time he has chewed $380.00 worth of tobacco.

Passing of Good Officer

With the appointment of Mr. Frank Wishon as deputy Sheriff and Jailer one is reminded that Mr. J. E. Shugart is no longer in that position which he has held for the last four years, and in the passing of Shugart is passing one of the most fearless and commanding officers of the law. Conscientious, but daring when necessary. His watchword was duty, always alive to the interest of his friends and offering all accommodations possible to those who were so unfortunate as to fall a prisoner in his hands.

We are sorry to see this faithful servant of the people left out of the service, but hope his successor will meet with the same success in making friends and preserving law and order in his territory.

Two Big Distilleries Are Destroyed

Two big blockade distilleries and nothing but a letter to indicate the ownership of either of them, was what Deputy Marshall Carol and Deputy Collectors Landreth and Hendrix of Wilkesboro, found in Yadkin county Friday. They destroyed both distilleries and nearly 3,000 gallons of fine beer.

The largest distillery was discovered in the neighborhood of Courtaey, about two and a half miles east of that place. It had a capacity of 190 gallons. A pair of overalls was found and in the pocket was a letter addressed to one of the most prominent men of the community.

The other distillery was near Deep Creek church, in the southeastern part of the county. It had a capacity of about 120 gallons.

Smook & McCrump of Winston will have a car load of fine mules at the Zachary Stables next Friday for your inspection. The high grade stock handled by these dealers is well known.

The Christmas Tree

Much interest is being manifested in the Christmas tree to be here next Tuesday night. The merchants say more presents are already being purchased and put away for the tree. The managers are making an effort to have some musical selections rendered, and an address will also be made.

We are requested to ask everybody to come and bring your presents to the tree, no matter where you live or any thing else. The country people are invited to come, and they will be shown every courtesy by our people.

Fire in Elkin

Fire early yesterday morning did considerable damage in the business section of Elkin, burning, as it was the store of J. D. Holcomb, & Co., Fairmont Gro. Co., the Elkin Drug Co., and D. J. Cockerham & Son.

The fire started in the store of Holcomb & Co., but it is not known how. Winston firemen were called on, but when ready to start, were notified that the flames were checked.
