To the Dyspeptic.

Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food that you crave? Consider the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? There are many who have been restored to health by taking these tablets and can now enjoy any kind of food that they crave.

Mr. Hall Entertains Stockholders and Friends

The stockholders of the Bank of Yadkin and the close business associates of Mr. W. A. Hall were entertained by him at his elegant home on east Main Street last Wednesday after the meeting of the stockholders of the bank.

All the guests invited to dinner and all accepted the invitation to dine because they knew what kind of a dinner they would receive when Mrs. Hall looked after its preparation and they were not disappointed. A dinner, beautiful in appearance and taste, was spread and everyone enjoyed himself, for the dinner and also the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hall. And due credit should also be paid to Miss Gertrude Hall, who came home from Boonville, where she is music teacher, to assist in the entertainment of the guests.

Those who partook of the hospitality of these good people were: W. L. Kelly, D. M. Reece, W. E. Rutledge, J. T. Reece, P. H. Norman, F. W. Hanes, Rev. J. E. Robinson, W. J. Byerly, S. C. Williams, C. B. Reavis, J. L. Crater, Wade Reavis, J. C. Pinnix, R. C. Puryear and A. F. Holton, Jr. Mrs. Wade Shore of Boonville accompanied Miss Gertrude home and enjoyed the dinner.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy so freely extended during the sickness and death of our baby Virginia Opal. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wallace.

High Registration of Teachers.

Registration books of the North Carolina Teachers Assembly showed that the assembly had in its session just closed in Raleigh, the most largely attended gathering in its history. A total of 1,350 members were registered, and this number represented an increase of 350 over the high mark of preceding assemblies.

SHEEP HELD IN LOW ESTEEM

1,549 Dogs in Buncombe County Are Estimated to be Worth More Than 2,164 Sheep by $884.00.

Asheville.—The 2,164 sheep in Buncombe county are worth $10,383 and 1,549 dogs are estimated to be worth $11,207, according to official statistics. In other words the dog-raising industry involves a greater amount of money than does the highly necessary production of wool, at least such is the fact in this county.

Whether legislators of the next general assembly had such facts before them is not known, but if they did not the North Carolina legislators were familiar with conditions at any rate.

Recently considerable interest has been aroused among stock raisers in raising sheep and it is expected that the number raised next year will exceed the number in the county this year. It is understood the profits from the wool each year pay for the raising of a sheep and that therefore a sheep is an annual dividend-paying proposition.

Wilmington.—Miss Minnie Overstreet has been awarded by a jury in superior court damages in the sum of $10,000 in her suit against John D. Bellamy. She was struck by the automobile of Mr. Bellamy a number of months ago and brought suit for damages.

Winston-Salem.—Gordon Hawkins, driver of auto which injured and caused almost the instant death of the four-year-old son of J. W. Shouse on the public road was bound over to superior court at a preliminary hearing in bond of $2,000.

Kinston.—Extension of the Kinston-Carolina railroad from Snow Hill to a junction with the Norfolk Southern, its "parent" railroad, at Stantonburg or another point on the line from Raleigh to Washington may be consummated with the return of the railroads to their owners by the government.

Charlotte.—Baptists of the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus association exceeded their quota in the 75 million campaign by more than $62,000, according to figures by Rev. W. A. Smith, of Pritchard Memorial church, campaign chairman of the association.

Asheville.—The first patients for the United States Public Health service hospital at Kenilworth inn, arrived, marking the official beginning of this institution under operation of the public health service.

There were 23 patients received, of whom 27 came from the public health hospital in Greenville, S. C., and one case was admitted from Asheville.

Goldensboro.—Dr. F. J. Hage, of this city, has received several flattering offers by would-be purchasers for an invention he has recently had patented, which is a simple device for tying of tobacco. It is said that this invention will do away with the old mode of tying and that one man can tie as many of the usual amount of leaves together in one hour as possibly six hands could do in the old way.

Fayetteville.—Fayetteville and North Carolina gave a rousing welcome to General John J. Pershing, commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces, on his visit to the state for the inspection of Camp Bragg. A great concourse of people greeted the general as he rode through the streets of Fayetteville following his inspection of the camp and heard him in a brief address delivered from the balcony of the old market in the center of the city.

Kinston.—More than 21 million pounds of tobacco have been sold on the local market since September 2, at a value in excess of the record-breaking sum of $11,000,000.

The pre-season estimate of the crop's value has been surpassed by more than a million dollars, while sales are promising soon to reach the 26,000,000 pound mark set for the season's total. It has been the most successful season this market, one of the largest in the "new bright belt" has ever known.

Guilty of Murder.

Asheville.—Sherman, Robert and Leonard Owen were found guilty of second degree murder for the fatal shooting of Wisdom Patterson, by a jury in superior court at Brevard.

The men were sentenced by Judge Webb. Robert Owen was sentenced to 20 years, and Sherman and Leonard Owen were given sentences of 15 years each in the state prison. An order was made by the court transferring the three prisoners to the Buncombe county jail here for safe keeping.
