PREDICTED END OF WORLD LAST FRIDAY AT MIDNIGHT

New York, Feb. 6.—A band of followers of Mrs. Margaret Rowan, of Los Angeles, and self-styled members of the Seventh Day Adventist Reformed church are steadfastly awaiting the end of the world, which they claim will occur tonight.

All over the United States, in New York, California, Nebraska, Washington, and scores of other places, waiting for the second coming of Christ to lead the faithful to heaven.

These people believe they are to a high mountain near San Diego, California, from which they will watch the destruction of the world by fire and pestilence, after which these people will begin a seven day trip to heaven, stopping at various planets en route, for food and to gather others of their kind.

Raleigh Branded As Housing Dope Dens

Raleigh, Feb. 6.—A den where in nightly some score of "dope fiends" gather for the visitation of negro narcotic peddlers was pictured as existing here, by Solicitor W. F. Evans during argument in superior court today.

The solicitor's allegation came during the trial of Ed Poole, a negro, charged with illegal possession and sale of narcotics. Joe Hill, witness in the case, admitted having purchased narcotics from the defendant.

Officer Gargis, who arrested Poole, testified that shortly before taking the negro into custody he had seen a number of men in Hill's room, two of them taking cocaine shots.

A WINSTON MAN KU KLUX KLAN SHOOT ROBBER ACTIVE IN ASHE

Over in Winston-Salem one night last week a negro, John Jackson by name, walked into the store of A. Cory and at the point of a pistol robbed him of $32.70. Mr. Cory told the negro he had overlooked a dime and when the negro reached for it Cory grabbed him and a scuffle ensued, Cory seizing his pistol, which was nearby, and shot the negro four times, killing him instantly.

When Cory shot the negro fell on his face, and Cory thinks perhaps the negro was playing 'possum, and as he had to step over his body to reach the door to call officers, he fired three more shots into his body to make sure he was perfectly harmless.

Cory, who is an Assyrian, was exonerated, the coroner's verdict being "justifiable homicide."

Eskimo's Marriage Fixed in Infancy

New York.—Shortly after an Eskimo baby is born it is promised by its parents to the little child of some of their friends or neighbors held in high esteem. This pledge is mutually binding and hardly ever disregarded, so that an Eskimo's destiny as to wedded life is settled from the beginning, says Christian Leden. By sixteen or seventeen the Eskimo girl has reached maturity, and then she prepares for herself her first long-hooded coat or amant, the kind her mother wears. This is a sign to her affianced sweetheart she is ready to marry. Perhaps he is away at the time, but word reaches him of her step, so he starts forth to claim her. As a matter of form he shows little impatience in getting to her. He does not tell his errand to anyone, and out of courtesy no one mentions it to him, but the purpose of his journey is thoroughly understood.

New York.—The Industrial Middle West, Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana, is probably the heaviest loser in the country by the operations of the fraudulent stock promoter, according to a nation-wide survey now being undertaken by the national vigilance committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World. The survey is based upon the answers to a questionnaire sent out to forty better-business bureaus and nearly three hundred chambers of commerce in every state in the country. It revealed that the per capita stock loss throughout the country is about $6, and that the group of individuals who pay the highest toll are mine and factory workers, chiefly of foreign birth.

Next to Michigan, Ohio and Indiana, the Industrial East—Pennsylvania, New York, Massachusetts, and, to a less extent, New Jersey—is the heaviest loser in the country. The old South and the agricultural Middle West of Iowa, the Dakotas, Kansas and Nebraska are relatively immune from fraudulent stock promotion. The highest per capita loss of any town or group of towns, $40, was reported by seven adjoining towns in Pennsylvania. The combined population of all of these towns is about 10,000. Two cities of 40,000 population, one in Michigan and one in Ohio, each reported a loss of $1,000,000, or $25 per capita.

It is a significant fact, however, Lou E. Holland, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, said in commenting on the survey and its objective of "Investigate Before You Invest," that although 90 per cent of the organizations reported losses in their communities during the last year through fraudulent or highly speculative investments, 75 per cent of this number believed that their educational and vigilance methods had proved effective in reducing them.

Although the aggregate stock losses throughout the country are now about $300,000,000 a year, Mr. Holland estimates that in the next two or three years, with adequate public co-operation in the "Before You Invest—Investigate" movement, this amount will have been cut in half, and $300,000,000 will be turned back into the pockets of the American public.

The Ku Klux Klan has been active in Ashe county recently according to news reports from Jefferson.

The Klan has been turning out at night, robed, masked and armed, and have been going after bootleggers proper, and it is said that at least three men have been whipped by the Klan.

Public sentiment is divided between Klan and anti-Klan factions. Some say the state of affairs in Ashe is sufficient to warrant the attack of the Klan, but of course, some others think differently.

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 6.—Work of mining a new shaft to reach the body of Floyd Collins, pinioned in Sand Cave goes on in an effort to rescue the man who has been imprisoned in the narrow channel leading to the cave since last Friday, January 29.

Collins, who was exploring the cave, became caught in a narrow channel through which he was crawling when a large rock became dislodged and caught his feet, pinning his feet fast.

Miners, soldiers and an army of rescuers have been working day and night, trying to reach and release the man, but other rocks have become dislodged, cutting off all entrance to the great cave which Collins had discovered and explored.

Mining machinery has been brought here and miners are engaged in cutting a shaft down through the 80 foot of dirt and rock above the entombed man, this being deemed the only way in which Collins could be reached.

It is thought that Collins is still alive, but this doubted by many of those engaged in the rescue work.

Collins, who is 38 years old and unmarried, spent much of his time in exploring caves, of which there are many in this section.

Collins was found last Saturday by a partner. He had then been held fast by the huge rock on his feet since Friday. Work of rescue was started at once, but cave-ins behind and in front of Collins' body retarded work of the rescuers.

Latest News Reports

The latest news from Cave City reads as follows:

Rain has hindered work of the rescuers.

Collins still thought to be living.

Expect to reach the entombed man today or Friday.

Collins' sweetheart spent day at the cave.

Collins thought to be dead.

Collins not thought to be in cave.
