Willeford Meeting Is Being Largely Attended

(Reported for The Ripple)

Rev. W. H. Willeford, known as the blacksmith preacher, of Concord, is conducting a tent meeting on the school grounds here which is being attended by 1500 to 2000 people each night.

Mr. Willeford preached to the colored people at the tent Monday night, several hundred of them being present. The singing was conducted by the colored folks.

Monday afternoon the preacher visited the jail and made a talk to the prisoners.

A midnight prayer service, with L. C. Howell in charge, was conducted at the tent last night.

There have been a number of conversions, among them being "Uncle" Henry Wooten. Mr. Wooten, who was converted at the tent Sunday night, will tell his experience at the tent Friday night, July 24th, and wants all of his old friends throughout the county to be present. "Uncle" Henry has a message of interest to tell the people.

Everybody is invited to attend these services, and especially Friday night to hear Mr. Henry Wooten. The song service will begin at 7:45.

The meeting will continue for a week or ten days yet.

HO! FOR THE LIFE OF A COWBOY

(From a drawing by N. C. Wyeth in Scribner's Magazine.)

Ever eat beans ("Mexican strawberries") dished up from a chuck wagon? Ever sleep out with a saddle for a pillow? It's a great life—if you like it, say the cowboys.

Thousands of Americans, who want to see how real western cowhands live and play, are planning to attend the Chicago Roundup and World's Championship Rodeo beginning August 15. Cowboys from every part of the West will be on hand for this great western spectacle, which will be held under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce. For nine days Chicago's big Grant Park Stadium will look like a scene from the "Covered Wagon days" as the scores of expert bronk riders, lariat throwers and steer wrestlers show their stuff while competing for $30,000 prize money and world championship titles. Tex Austin, who has staged so many successful contests, including the great international contest at Wembley, England, will direct the Chicago event.

Notice of Commissioner's Sale of Lands

By virtue of a judgment of the Superior court of Yadkin county North Carolina, entered at May term, 1925, in a civil action there in pending in which D. L. Holcomb and others were plaintiffs and D. Guilford Woman Found Murdered

Mrs. Eunice Stevenson, wintered 84 years, was found hanging from the rafters of her lonely cabin, 15 miles from Greensboro, last Saturday by small boy who had been sent to her cabin on an errand.

The woman had been struck over the head with some kind of blunt instrument and then hanged to the rafters by a rope made of sacks. It is presumed she was first murdered and then hanged so as to suggest suicide.

The old woman lived alone and had no near relatives. She was very poor, being a county charge, and the motive for the murder is a mystery.

The woman had been dead 24 hours or longer when found.

Surry Man Trampled To Death by Mules

John Flippen, a prominent young farmer of the Francisco section of Surry county, was trampled to death by a team of mules at his home last Wednesday.

Mr. Flippen had hitched the mules preparatory to taking his family to Westfield for vaccination when the mules became frightened and started to run. Mr. Flippen grabbed their bridles and was trampled to death.

Mr. Flippen was a powerful specimen of manhood, weighing 225 pounds.

P. & N. Road May be Extended to Winston

A movement is on foot to extend the Piedmont & Northern railroad. J. B. Duke's electric road, from Charlotte to Winston-Salem by way of Concord, Lexington, Thomasville and High Point.

The road has been in operation between Charlotte and Gastonia for many years and has been a paying proposition.

An Edgemont Woman Nearly Drowns in Mud

This story comes from Rocky Mount under date of June 14, and is vouched for by reliable citizens:

Just after the recent heavy rains a negro woman, tenant on the farm of Ben Lawrence, prominent Edgemont county farmer, started across a cornfield and stuck fast in the mud, and when found twentyfour hours later had mired up to her arms.

The woman was found by Mr. Lawrence, who was out inspecting his crops. Aid was immediately summoned and rescue of the woman begun and with great difficulty she was pulled loose from her moorings.

Although considerably worse from her experience at the time, the woman has almost recovered from the happening.

North Carolina News Told in Brief Form

The annual state peach show will be held at Hamlet today and tomorrow.

The melon crop in eastern North Carolina is said to be the most abundant in years.

The 47th annual Masonic picnic will be held at Mocksville, Thursday, August 13.

Hail storms destroyed tobacco in parts of Stokes and Durham counties the past week.

The tobacco curing season is on in the eastern counties. The crop is reported abundant and the grade excellent.

July 25th is the final limit to secure the 1925-1926 auto license tags. Over 300,000 license tags have been sold by the state.

Reports come Lenoir county of three tobacco barns in that county in less than a week, entailing a loss of more than $1,500.

Counterfeit silver dollars are in circulation. Several of them were passed on merchants at Creedmoor, Granville county, recently.

A new weekly paper, The Ashe County News, has begun publication at Jefferson, making three weekly papers for that county.

The Star Furniture plant at Lenoir was destroyed by fire the past week. Loss estimated at $175,000, partly covered by insurance.

The Alamo Theatre, oldest theatre in Raleigh, was destroyed by fire the past week with a loss estimated around $50,000, with some insurance.

The water shortage became so acute in Asheville, Statesville and other towns the past week that a ban was put on car-washing, lawn sprinkling and shower baths.

Charlotte had $60,000 fire last week, destroying a large warehouse. The was placed at $75,000, but it is thought that $15,000 worth of the contents of the warehouse can be salvaged.

A twelve pound cannon ball was unearthed on a farm in Harnett county a few days ago. The ball had lain hidden there since the spring of 1865, when a battle was fought nearby.

Statesville is to have another daily newspaper, to take the place of the morning daily that failed there recently, it being the third failure of the democratic ringsters to run a daily newspaper in that city. Statesville already has one of the best little evening dailies in the state.
