YADKINVILLE, YADKIN COUNTY, N. C., THURSDAY, March 11, 1926

VOL. No. 9

DEATH AND FUNERAL OF D. G. WAGONER

This section, together with the entire county was severely shocked to hear of the death of Mr. D. G. Wagoner, which occurred in a Statesville hospital Wednesday night at 11 o'clock, a few hours after he was taken there by Mackie & Hinshaw's ambulance of this place. Mr. Wagoner had been suffering for some few weeks with a kidney trouble and developed the flu, which was too much for him.

Mr. Wagoner was 53 years old. For many years he had been a prominent merchant and farmer of Benbow, where he was also postmaster. He taught school in his younger days and was a very popular teacher. For the past four years he had been a member of the Board of Road Commissioners of Yadkin county. Mr. Wagoner was a Christian gentleman and was held in high esteem throughout the county and section. He was a member of Swaim's (Knobs) church and was one of the leading spirits of that church, always taking an active part in its affairs.

He is survived by one son, Homer Wagoner, and his widow, who before her marriage to him was Mrs. Cal Holcomb.

Hundreds of people from far and near gathered at Swaim's church Saturday morning at 11 o'clock to pay their last tribute to their deceased brother and neighbor. Mr. Wagoner was a member of the Masonic Order and was buried with their honors, many Masons taking part in the services. The funeral was preached by Rev. V. M. Swaim, a life long friend and co-worker of Mr. Wagoner, and he was assisted by Rev. B. H. Vestal. Mr. Swaim paid many fitting tributes to his departed friend in the sermon.

Mr. Wagoner leaves a considerable estate, consisting of more than 500 acres of land, a large mercantile establishment and other interests.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT D. G. WAGONER

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from our midst Bro. D. G. Wagoner, be it resolved by Jonesville Lodge No. 227 A. F. & A. M. as follows:

We note with genuine sorrow that this friend and brother has gone to his Eternal home.

He loved his home lodge and County and was always ready to give liberally of his time and means to promote their welfare.

He was a business man of whom we are justly proud and a counselor of rare ability.

His integrity could be questioned, he was faithful to every trust.

His heart was full of human kindness, it was a real pleasure to him to help the needy and to relieve distress.

His life was that of a Christian gentleman and he has left us an example worthy of our emulation.

He was loyal to the great Master, loved Him, served Him, and trusted in Him.

We extend to his family our sincere sympathy and commend them to the loving care of the Heavenly Father.

Further resolved that a page of our minutes be devoted to his memory. God give us more men like him.

That a copy be furnished his family and published in the Yadkin Ripple, Elkin Tribune and Winston-Salem Journal.

Respectfully submitted,
S. M. VESTAL

Sunshine is a great protector and healer and the child that is gradually and carefully exposed to the direct rays of the sun will benefit in health, say home demonstration workers.

A farmer of Perquimans county sold 30 hogs recently and found that the heads of 19 and the entire carcasses of three others must be condemned for tuberculosis. He then remembered that he had two cows condemned and slaughtered for tuberculosis last summer.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

At the regular meeting of the board of road commissioners for Yadkin county, held here Monday the following resolution of respect was passed in memory of Mr. D. G. Wagoner, who was a member of the board until his death last week.

Whereas, it has pleased God in His divine mercy to take unto himself our beloved friend and co-worker, Daniel G. Wagoner, and remove him from our midst, therefore, be it resolved:

1st. That it is but a just tribute to the memory of our departed brother to say that in regretting his removal from among us we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and esteem.

2nd. That in the death of Bro. Wagoner, we recognize that this board has lost an upright and faithful member and the county one of its foremost citizens.

3rd. That in our bereavement we tender to the family of the deceased the sympathy and friendly feeling of this board and with them we mourn our mutual loss.

4th. That as a mark of esteem it is ordered that this board spread upon its minutes a copy of this resolution; that a copy be sent the family of the deceased and a copy published in the Yadkin Ripple.

GET MONTHS MILITARY TRAINING FREE NOW

The War Department has announced the appointment of Mr. J. T. Reece, Yadkinville, N. C., as a County Representative for the Citizens' Military Training Camps for the coming summer.

Mr. Reece states that he will receive a supply of application blanks for the training camps shortly and will be ready to pass these out to young men between the ages of 17 and 24 who might want to take a month's encampment in July, at government expense.

Congress appropriates nearly $3,000,000 annually to enable young men to develop their physical powers under proper supervision.

Railroad fare, meals enroute and at camp, uniforms, laundry, athletic equipment and medical and dental treatment are furnished.

Four vacancies only have been allotted Yadkin County and it is expected that these will all be taken by April 1st. Others may apply and if vacancies occur later they will be taken care of.
