The Hatch Law
The Hatch law recently passed by congress seems to really be a law. News comes from many sections of the country where the teeth of the act is being clamped down on Hatch act violators and the teeth are sharp according to advices received by way of the daily newspapers.

"Smearing" Attempt On Mr. Crater
The attempt to smear the Yadkin county court clerk, Mr. J. L. Crater, by the board of county commissioners, was one of the most absurd atrocities these Democrats and their henchmen have tried since coming into office nearly two years ago.

Solicitor Avalon E. Hall has served public notice on all persons that no crooked actions by election officials will be tolerated in Yadkin county or in any county in his district. Mr. Hall successfully prosecuted two cases of violation of election laws last year and he states he will do the same thing again if any party violates these laws.

be a difference of $461.00. The difference is actually $29.00. Mr. Lee Crater has been register of deeds and Clerk of Court for 42 years and is known by practically every grown person in Yadkin county. Everyone of them know him to be strictly honest in every detail and they know that any discrepancy is due to errors. The auditor checked his bank account and found he had plenty of money to meet all obligations.

When the God of politics reaches out to destroy such men as Lee Crater, whose honesty of purpose and whose character has never been besmirched in a long life of public usefulness, it is time the citizens took a hand looking toward elimination of those responsible for its workings.

Sheriff Reavis Praises Norman

Editor The Ripple: I would like to lend my hearty endorsement to the Republican candidate for the House of Representatives, Mr. Hovey Norman. I have known Mr. Norman and his family for many years and I know them to be among the best people of the county. They believe in their church, their Sunday school and their schools.

Prophecy: And while we're speaking of sports, we might add for those who might be wondering about it, that Tennessee and the University of Washington will play in the Rose Bowl on January 1, 1941.

Religious Note: It is not our intention to speak against preaching, but it is getting so that one cannot clear up the week's work on Saturday's here because of the sound trucks and loud speaker systems cruising the streets, alternately playing hillbilly records and delivering sermons.

Sports: The late World Series baseball games brought before the minds of many Yadkin county sport fans the time when Earnie Shore, Yadkin native, pitched for the New York Yankees in a World Series game years ago before he got to be the Sheriff of Forsyth county. Earnie started with the Boston Red Sox on his baseball career, and he was quite a pitcher in his day. Ernie was pitching for the Yankees against a team whose name escapes us at the moment—six games had been played out of seven, and it was the seventh game; the score was tied in the 10th inning, with 2 men out; the man at the bat had 2 strikes against him, and the next ball meant either win or lose for the Yankees. He pitched, and the bat and ball connected. The short stop made a jab for the ball—and muffed it! It was not until much later that it was ruled that the man was out.

Fair Week: The Yadkin County Fair came and went last week with a bigger than usual list of attractions and concessions and with a better than ever attendance. The free grandstand act was said to be better than ever presented. The midway was crowded to capacity Friday night, but attendance fell slightly on the last night of the fair. It was not known whether this was caused by the cold weather or by the fact that the Sheriff's office closed the girly-girly show after Friday.

Visitor: We were very pleased to have Oliver Crawley, general reporter, columnist, and advertising man for the Mount Airy News, drop by the office Saturday afternoon on his way to Statesville. Oliver has done much newspaper writing for various North Carolina dailies and weeklies, and his column, "An Ear to the Rock," is topped only by a column which appears regularly in the Yadkin Ripple. (Joke.)

Sunday at the opening of the mile-long High Point Speedway when the three Baily brothers of Yadkinville, owners of the huge speedway and grandstand, were announced over the loud speaker hookup as being from High Point by Ira Vail, racing director. However, we forgave Mr. Vail, as he gave us tickets gratis for the opening Sunday afternoon. The owners estimated that there were well over ten thousand people there, and we believe them, as we could not find our car for a full half-hour after the races were over. The fastest cars made speeds of over ninety miles an hour in the afternoon races.

Politics: Sheriff A. L. Inscore made a short talk before a Yadkin County Republican rally and weiner roast one night last week. "A certain Yadkin county politician, Frank Woodhouse, used to run an Auto Wrecking garage in Winston-Salem," the Sheriff said. "His slogan was 'You Wreck 'Em—We Fix 'Em.' Several months ago this man was elected Representative for Yadkin county and sent to Raleigh. I understand

Draft Notes: "Prospective draftees between the ages of 21 and 36 should volunteer for army service rather than be drafted into it," said Army Sergeant Siras Cockerham, of Jonesville, home on leave from Fort Bragg, to your correspondent yesterday. "If they volunteer now, they are allowed to enter any department or division they choose, but if they wait until drafted, they are herded like so many sheep into whatever department happens to be short of men."

Mr. Shore States His Position

Yadkinville, N. C. October 21, 1940
Mr. W. E. Rutledge
Yadkinville, N. C.

Dear Mr. Rutledge: In an article appearing in the September 26th issue of the Yadkin Ripple under the heading "East Bend Democrats Mad" you stated that "As a result of the rift caused over the matter and the threatened revolt of numbers of leading Democrats, Eugene Shore, nominee for County Commissioner in that district withdrew from the race." Where did you get your information that I withdrew as a result of the rift of the Democrat Party?

I have never at any time wanted to be a candidate for County Commissioner and only consented to have my name filed on account of party loyalty. When I heard that Charlie Hutchens would accept the nomination I immediately advised my friends in the Democrat Party that I would withdraw in order that he might be a candidate for County Commissioner in the East Bend-Fall Creek district. I want it understood now that I am a Democrat and am behind Charlie Hutchens 100%, and so far as I know, all Democrats in this district and a large number of Republicans will support him in the November election and he will be elected by the people in my district.

I hereby request that you publish this letter in the next issue of the Yadkin Ripple to be published October 24 in order that the voters of East Bend-Fall Creek Townships might know the truth about my withdrawal and not be misled by the article appearing in your paper under date of September 26th.
Very truly yours,
J. E. SHORE

(For Mr. Shore's benefit The Ripple states that this information came to us from members of the Democratic party whom we consider reliable. The Ripple was also informed by reliable sources that after the death of Dr. T. W. Fulfilling A Pledge

On May 18, 1939, when the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee was formed, a definite and sincere promise was made to the public.

We pledged the beer industry's aid to law-enforcement agencies to the end that retail beer dealers operate lawfully and in the public interest.

The committee believes its pledge has been fulfilled. During the past 17 months it has aided the authorities in ridding the state of 131 undesirable beer outlets—107 by revocation, one by surrender and 23 by refusal to renew licenses.

You can help by restricting your patronage to those places which obey the law.
