

THE ENGLISHMAN.

No. 7. AUG. 12, 85. PR. 1. 1.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

OUR Experience with THE NEWS is related in last month's paper, and it is thought that it was risky to take subscriptions for as long a time as a year, because our enthusiasm might die out before that time expired, and our subscribers would have to have their money refunded.

This summer we thought we could venture to take subscriptions for the ENGLISHMAN for the two months of August for we were sure we could publish it for that length of

[Continued on next page]