

BETHLEHEM ITEMS.

July brought intense heat.
—Highest thermometer 106 deg. —Heavy rains have followed. —A water-spout on Aug. 1 did great damage in the vicinity. —Rev. Theophilus Zorn will take a school in Englewood, N. J. —The Alaska Missionaries, reporting their safe arrival, send pressed flowers to Bethlehem friends.

NIR935

A CYCLONE.

Philadelphia, Aug. 3.

A terrible cyclone swept up the Delaware river, and did immense damage to a part of Philadelphia and Camden. The losses sustained amount to about half a million dollars.