SPECIAL.

It is with pleasure that we announce to our many patrons that we have (again) made arrangements with that wide-awake, illustrated farm magazine, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Fort Wayne, Ind., and read by nearly 200,000 farmers, by which that great publication will be mailed direct, FREE, to the address of any of our subscribers who will come in and pay up all arrearages on subscription and one year in advance from date, and to any new subscriber who will pay one year in advance. This is a grand opportunity to obtain a first-class farm journal free. The AMERICAN FARMER is a large 16 page journal, of national circulation, which ranks among the leading agricultural papers. It treats the question of economy in agriculture and the rights and privileges of that vast body of citizens—American Farmers—whose industry is the basis of all material and national prosperity. Its highest purpose is the elevation and ennobling of Agriculture through the higher and broader education of the men and women engaged in its pursuits. The regular subscription price of the AMERICAN FARMER is $1.00 per year. IT COSTS YOU NOTHING. From any one number ideas can be obtained that will be worth three the subscription price to you or members of your household, yet YOU GET IT FREE. Call and see sample copy.

Congressman Mills, of Texas, who is booked for the chairmanship of the Committee on Ways and Means, says that Congressman Randall is not a Democrat.

A substance has been found that defies penetration by cannon shot at short range. It is to be used for covering war vessels. A wider demand might result from its use to make base ball umpires out of.

It is understood that a national association of the best young men of the country will be formed this fall with the experts understanding that no member shall pay attention to or marry any young lady who wears a big hat at the church.

Gladstone has one trait which all statesmen should copy. He never allows his anger to get the better of his courtesy. As a consequence, his passionate opponents always get the worst of the contests which they wage against him. A hot temper will weaken the strongest cause.

News comes from Chicago that the condemned Anarchists will certainly hang. There is no doubt that they should expiate their crime on the gallows, and the sooner the event takes place the better will it be for the interests of justice. Too much delay weakens the lesson that a punishment like this teaches.

Let every farmer keep a sharp eye on his Representative in Congress. If he votes for a reduction of the tariff applaud him; if he dodges discard him; and if he votes for a continuation of the present iniquity that piles up $120,000,000 surplus annually that ought to be in the pockets of the people, rebuke him, and keep him at home next year.

Mr. Carlisle, of Kentucky, says that at the recent election in that State the falling off in the Democratic vote was caused by the confidence on the part of the members of the party that its ticket would win anyhow, which caused many of them to remain away from the polls. He says: "The Democrats of Kentucky heartily support the Administration, and I know of no Democrat there who is not sincerely in favor of Mr. Cleveland."

Sam Randall is a good enough man, but, as long as he and his personal adherents combine with Republican leaders to oppose the reduction of tariff taxation, he and they have no right to attempt to shape the policy of the Democratic party. Nine-tenths of the Democrats of the country are in favor of, and are working for tariff reform. It will be a bad day for the Democrats of Pennsylvania if they allow their personal admiration of Randall to make them false to the party.—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dec.

The Inter-State Farmers' Convention recently held in Atlanta, was largely attended and many subjects relating to southern agriculture ably discussed. The convention organized itself into a permanent institution, with Col. L. L. Polk, Ed. of the Progressive Farmer, Raleigh, N. C., as the President; Vice-President at large—F. M. Fishbark, of Ark.; Secretary and Treasurer—B. F. Hester, Granite Co., N. C.; eight Vice-Presidents from as many different Southern States were appointed. The next session of the Association meet in Raleigh, N. C.—N. C. Farmer.

Mr. Azariah Graves, of this county attended this convention and says it was a grand success.

A great deal has been written, and a great deal of speculation has been indulged in, because President Cleveland has taken occasion to invite Speaker Carlisle to his home at Oak View so that he may have a more quiet and extended conference with him upon the subject of the tariff measure, which it is proposed to offer in Congress next winter. It has long been believed by experienced politicians that measures particularly affecting the interests of the whole country, should be drawn up by the Executive after careful consultation with his Cabinet and the leaders of the party, and then presented to Congress as embodying the official views of the administration. Such a measure has a weight and influence which is lacking in a bill prepared by a committee of Congress.

How to Keep Sweet Potatoes. Mr. J. H. Nunnally raises more sweet potatoes than any farmer about here. This year he expects 3,000 bushels. He says the great secret of keeping them, is, not to let them get too warm. He puts his potatoes in a cellar, under his house, gives them plenty air. He does not put any straw or other covering on them. Before he gathers them, he turns his horses and cattle on the field; they enjoy eating the vines and, besides, they get them out of the way.—Danville Times.

QUITE AS BAD AS BULLETS.

An Old Soldier Tells of His Campaign in Virginia—The Enemy in Ambush—Twenty Years After.

SELMA, N. C., Feb. 11, 1887. Gentlemen—Yours inquiring whether or not I had been benefited by Kaskine, and if so to what extent, &c., to hand. In reply will say that my health has not been as good in twenty years as now. I suffered with chills from malarial poison contracted while serving in the Confederate army on the Peninsula Campaigns in Virginia. Did not miss having a chill at least once in twenty-one days, and more frequently once in seven days, for more than fifteen years.

In this condition I visited New York in November, 1885, on business. While there I stopped with Mr. E. D. Barker, of the University Publishing Company. I told Mr. Barker of my condition. He called my attention to your Kaskine and procured for me a bottle. After my return home I took the pellets as directed and found much relief afforded thereby. Of this change I wrote Mr. Barker, who sent two or three bottles during the past year. My health greatly improved. I increased in weight from 165 pounds to 200 pounds, my present weight. I believe the Kaskine did it. Quinine had failed, as had other remedies usually administered in such cases.

Now, unless in case of exposure to extra bad weather, I do not have chills, and my general health is quite good. I turned over half a bottle to a young lady friend a few weeks since. I learn from her mother that she was much benefited by it while it lasted.

I trust you may be able to introduce Kaskine generally in this country, in which many suffer from diseases consequent upon malarial poison in the system. From my own experience I can emphasize its excellence for such diseases. If I can serve you call on me. I am very truly yours, JOHN C. SCARBOROUGH.

Seven years ago I had an attack of bilious remittent fever, which ran into intermittent malarial. I tried all the known remedies, such as arsenic, mercury, &c. This failed, and I was administered to me in heavy and continued doses. Malaria brought on nervous prostration and dyspepsia, from which I suffered everything. Last winter I heard of Kaskine and began using it. A few bottles of the wonderful drug cured me. Malaria and dyspepsia disappeared, and as you have seen a June day brighter for the summer storm that had passed across the sky, so the cloud left my life and my health became steady and strong.

MRS. J. LAWSON, 141 Bergen St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. Gideon Thompson, the oldest and one of the most respected citizens of Bridgeport, Conn., says: "I am ninety years of age, and for the last three years have suffered from malaria and the effects of quinine poisoning. I recently began with Kaskine which broke up the malaria and increased my weight 22 pounds."

Other letters of a similar character from prominent individuals, which stamp Kaskine as a remedy of undoubted merit, will be sent on application. Price $1.00, or six bottles, $5.00. Sold by Druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price.

The Kaskine Company, 54 Warren St., New York, and 35 Farringdon Road, London.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.
