Farmer Jones' Wise Sayings.

Love has no law.
A lie has short legs.
Money lent, an enemy made.
A sharp tooth for hard bread.
Mouth of honey, heart of gall.
God permits, but not for ever.
A stout heart breaks ill fortune.
They are rich who have friends.
Truth and oil come to the surface.
Money is the measure of all things.
An innocent heart expects no guile.
Of soup and love, the first is the best.
A good thing is known when it is lost.
A ragged colt makes a handsome horse.
Give a grateful man more than he asks.
The cat is a good friend, only she scratches.
The dead and the absent have no friends.
From a closed door the devil turns away.
Nothing falls into the mouth of a sleeping fox.
Show me a poor man, I will show you a flatterer.
A bad knife cuts one's finger instead of the stick.
The envious man's face grows lean and his eyes swell.
Tell her she is handsome, and you will turn her brain.
Let every one be content with what God has given him.
It is well to know how to be silent till it is time to speak.
Tell your friend a lie; if he keeps it secret tell him the truth.
A rich widow weeps with one eye and laughs with the other.
Tell your friend your secret, and he will set his foot on your neck.
Every one sings as he has the gift, and marries as he has the luck.
Of the good man a good pledge, and of the bad neither pledge nor surety.
She is well married who has neither mother-in-law nor sister-in-law.
A finger's length in a sword, and a palm in a lance, are a great advantage.
It befits the king to be liberal, for he is sure of never falling into poverty.
Go to bed late, rise early, you will see your own harm and that of others.
Chastise the good man, he will grow better; chastise the bad, and he will grow worse.
A toilet luxury in every respect, Ayer's Hair Vigor never fails to restore the youthful freshness and color to faded and gray hair. It also eradicates dandruff and prevents the hair from falling.
He whose heart never warms with generosity knows no Christmas.—[Still-water Lumberman.

Physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla in cases of scrofula, and in every form of chronic disease, because this medicine is safer to take, and is more highly concentrated, than any other preparation. It can always be depended upon as an effective blood purifier.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC.
This medicine, combining Iron with vegetable tonic, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia.
It is an unrivaled remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.
It does not injure the stomach, cause headache, or produce constipation—other iron medicines do.
It stimulates and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, restores the nerves and exhilarates, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
For Intermittent Fevers, Languor, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal.
