

THE CASWELL NEWS.

Published at the Post Office in Yanceyville as second-class matter.

W. H. THOMPSON, - EDITOR.

YANCEYVILLE, N. C. JAN. 6, 1888.

MR. EDITOR: In looking over the county exhibit in your paper of the 16th, I find that the commissioners charge for outside meetings. Now, I would like to know what they do at these meetings.

CIVIL.

MR. EDITOR: I hope you will give me a little space in one column of your paper, I will give you an item from Locust Hill. On Monday, 26th, at 10 o'clock, the young people, as well as those of a more mature age, and representing the Sunday schools of Trinity Baptist church and the new Methodist church at Locust Hill, assembled at Trinity for the purpose of celebrating the day in the form of a Christmas-tree. The weather was bad and the roads muddy, but there was a large crowd to witness the scene and everything went off very nicely. The tree was loaded with nice presents for young and old and everybody went home rejoicing. The tree was worth at least $75.00. Indeed, I can say that the tree did great credit to both schools and will be long remembered. There were several visitors from a distance and as they witnessed the success of the efforts put forth by these schools they must have been stimulated to do more for the work in their own schools. I think when they return home they will tell of the times and things they saw at Trinity. We commend the superintendents and teachers of these schools for the success of their work. Locust Hill is a fine place to visit. All have enjoyed the holidays to the full extent with sociables, big turkey dinners, &c.

A VISITOR.

New Hope Items.

Misses Florence Minns and Bertha Hightower from Reidsville, N. C., spent their Xmas holidays at Mr. W. W. Taylor's.

From all appearances cupid has cast many darts through the hearts of our young men, whom we often hear expressing regrets that their "happy days" are over.

Our community was never more gay than it has been this Xmas season, which will long be remembered, for the many pleasant faces we have met, and those pleasant pictures will forever hang on memories' walls.

It was the writers pleasure to attend several parties, and one of the most enjoyable occasions was at Capt. T. M. McCrary's. After several hours had been whiled away in the gay whirling dances, we partook of a sumptuous supper which might have been prepared for the gods, such was the variety and profusion of delicacies.

Misses Rosa Chandler and Annie Graves have returned to Danville where they will resume the exercises of the Female College.

ROSEBUD.

How to Run a Town.

Father run it with vim or sell out and leave it. Men who are always trying to get out of business will never do much to build up a town. One of two things must be done—run the thing for all its worth, get up steam and keep it, or quit the whole thing; slide out and let nature take its course. If you want business to come to your town, encourage those who do come. If you want a prosperous town where people can come who are disposed to make homes, then do away with and bury from sight all jealousy and spite, work no more for a few individuals, but all work together for a common prosperity and mutual benefit. Wake up, rub your eyes, roll up your sleeves and all go to work. Don't work with fear and trembling, but take it for granted that blood will tell. Leave results to themselves; borrow no trouble, but all unite to make it the biggest kind of a town. Go to work.

For Rent—The Brick Storehouse opposite J. M. Neal's Sons, lately occupied by Robt. Oliver. It contains four good rooms, a cellar and shed rooms. Apply to N. L. WALKER, Minon, N. C.

To Hunters—S. H. W. de, Powder and shot at Vaughan's as cheap as anybody can sell them.

Barnum's Opinion.

You do not, any of you, advertise enough. You ought to use printer's ink every day. You are asleep and want your business to run itself. Standing advertisements in the paper command confidence. The man who for a year lives in one community and leads a reputable life, even though he be of moderate ability, will grow in the confidence and esteem of his fellows. On the same principle a newspaper advertisement becomes familiar to the eye of the reader. It may be seldom read, still it makes the name and business of the man familiar, and its presence in the columns of a paper inspires confidence in the stability of his enterprise.

A Lady's Perfect Companion.

PAINLESS CHILDBIRTH, a new book by Dr. John H. Dyer, one of New York's most skillful physicians, shows that pain is not necessary in childbirth, but results from causes easily understood and overcome. It clearly proves that any woman may become a mother without suffering any pain whatever. It also tells how to overcome and prevent morning sickness swollen limbs, and all other evils attending pregnancy. It is reliable and highly endorsed by physicians everywhere as the wife's true private companion. Cut this out: it will save you great pain, and possibly your life. Send two-cent stamp for descriptive circulars, testimonials, and confidential letter sent in sealed envelope; Address FRANK THOMAS & Co., Publishers, Baltimore, Md.

The Exchange Warehouse, Danville, Va., Jordan & Bernard, proprietors, not only beat the average made by all the other nine Warehouses of that market (199 1-3) one dollar and ninety-nine and a third cents, but adds new lustre to its glory by excelling largely the average made in the sale of samples exhibited at the late tobacco fair. While the average for the entire sales of all the tobacco exhibited by all the warehouses was $40.33, the Exchange Warehouse made for its large number of exhibits of fillers, smokers, cutters and wrappers the handsome average of $55.88 per hundred. Who'll beat it.

MR. EDITOR: In the grand street parade at the Danville tobacco fair the 24th, the Exchange Warehouse had all about on its wagon and horses the figures 199 1-3. Will you please be kind enough to tell us what it meant and oblige. Respectfully, ENQUIRER.

Certainly, I will. It meant that Exchange Warehouse, Jordan & Bernard, proprietors, sold last year largely over its proportionate part of tobacco sold on the Danville market and that it averaged (199 1-3) one dollar and ninety-nine and a third cents per hundred more than the average made by the other nine warehouses of the Danville market for the same time, showing what hard work and push will do.

NO HOUSEHOLD SHOULD BE WITHOUT

WEAK & UNDEVELOPED

CAUSES OF THE HUMAN BODY ENTAIL WEAKNESS AND UNDEVELOPED POWER. It is an interesting and important question to know the causes of weakness and undeveloped power, and how to overcome them. This is the object of the advertisements in this issue. It is a small and interesting pamphlet, containing full information regarding the causes of weakness and undeveloped power, and how to overcome them. It is a valuable work for all who are afflicted with weakness and undeveloped power. It is available for sale at all drug stores.

What is this Disease that is Coming Upon Us?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. The patients have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint, all gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and clammy. After a while a cough sets in, at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish-colored expectoration. The patient feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become constive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow; the urine is scanty and high colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired, with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms.

It has been found that physicians have mistaken the cause of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of these kinds of treatment have been attended with success; for it is really constipation and dyspepsia. It is also found that Shaker Extract of Roots, or Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, when properly prepared will remove this disease in all its stages. Care must be taken, however, to secure the genuine article. IT WILL SELL BETTER THAN COTTON.

Mr. John C. Hemptinstall, of Chulavine, Cleburn Co., Ala., writes: "My wife has been so much benefited by Shaker Extract of Roots or Seigel's Syrup that she says she would rather be without part of her food than without the medicine. It has done her more good than the doctors and all other medicines put together. I would ride twenty miles to get it into the hands of any sufferer if he can get it in no other way. I believe it will soon sell in this State better than cotton."

TESTIMONY FROM TEXAS. Mrs. S. E. Barton, of Varner, Ripley Co., Mo., writes that she had been long afflicted with dyspepsia and disease of the urinary organs and was cured by Shaker Extract of Roots. Rev. J. J. McGuire, merchant, of the same place, who sold Mrs. Barton the medicine, says he has sold it for four years and never knew it to fail.

SEEK WAS ALMOST DEAD. I was so low with dyspepsia that there was not a physician to be found who could do anything with me. I had fluttering of the heart and swimming of the head. One day I read your pamphlet called "Life Among the Shakers," which described my disease better than I could myself. I tried the Shaker Extract of Roots and kept on with it until to-day I rejoice in good health. Mrs. M. E. Tinsley, Bevier, Muhlenburg Co., Ky.
