Indigestion.

Many persons lose appetite and strength, become emaciated, suffer, and die, because of defective nutrition, who might have been restored to health by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine acts upon the digestive organs, through the blood, and has effected many wonderful cures.

For years I suffered from Loss of Appetite and Indigestion, and failed to find relief, until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this medicine me, and my appetite and digestion are now perfect.—Fred G. Bower, 496 Seventh st., South Boston, Mass.

Entirely Cured

I have, for years, suffered acutely from Dyspepsia, scarcely taking a meal, until within the past few months, without enduring the most distressing pains of Indigestion. My stomach sometimes rejected all food. I became greatly reduced in strength, and very despondent. Satisfied, at last, that my trouble was of a scrofulous nature, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and believe it has saved my life. My appetite and digestion are now good, and my health is perfect.—Oliver T. Adams, Spencer, Ohio.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

FOR MAN AND BEAST!

Mexican Mustang Liniment

CURES

Sciatica,	Scratches,	Contracted Muscles,
Lumbago,	Sprains,	Eruptions,
Rheumatism,	Strains,	Roof Ail,
Burns,	Stitches,	Screw Worms,
Scalds,	Stiff Joints,	Swinney,
Stings,	Backache,	Saddle Galls,
Bites,	Galls,	Piles.
Bruises,	Sores,
Bunions,	Spavin
Corns,	Cracks.

THIS GOOD OLD STAND-BY accomplishes for everybody exactly what is claimed for it. One of the reasons for the great popularity of the Mustang Liniment is found in its universal applicability. Everybody needs such a medicine.

The Lumberman needs it in case of accident.

The Housewife needs it for general family use.

The Canaller needs it for his crew and his men.

The Mechanic needs it always on his work bench.

The Miner needs it in case of emergency.

The Pioneer needs it—can't get along without it.

The Farmer needs it in his house, his stable, and his stock yard.

The Steamboat man or the Boatman needs it in liberal supply on board ashore.

The Horse-fancier needs it—it is his best friend and safest reliance.

The Stock-grower needs it—it will save him thousands of dollars and a world of trouble.

The Railroad man needs it and will find it so long as his life is a round of accidents and dangers.

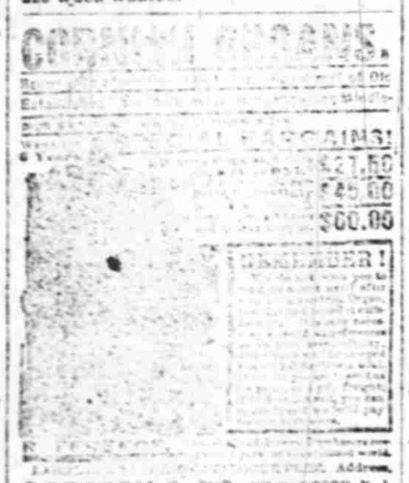
The Backwoodsman needs it. There is nothing like it as an antidote for the dangers to life, limb and comfort which surround the pioneer.

The Merchant needs it about his store among his employees. Accidents will happen, and when those come the Mustang Liniment is wanted at once.

Keep a Bottle in the House. 'Tis the best of economy.

Keep a Bottle in the Factory. Its immediate use in case of accident saves pain and loss of wages.

Keep a Bottle Always in the Stable for use when wanted.



CORNISH & CO. WASHINGTON, N. J.

Farmer Jones' Wise Sayings.

Hard upon hard does not make a good wall.

No flies get into a shut mouth.

Speak little and well, they will think you somebody.

Make your son your heir and not your steward.

Make good flour and you need no trumpet.

Make the night night, and the day day, and you will live pleasantly.

Do ill, and expect the like.

Iron that is not used soon rusts.

Hunger and cold surrender a man to his enemy.

The greyhound that starts many hares kills none.

The hen that stays at home picks up the crumbs.

Beware of a man that does not talk, and of a dog that does not bark.

In war, hunting, and love, for one pleasure a hundred pains.

There are ills that happen for good.

An angry man needs no counsel.

A rash man, a skin of good wine, and a glass vessel, do not last long.

An honest man's word is as good as the king's.

Fools sometimes give wise men counsel.

Honor a good man that he may honor you, and a bad man that he may not dishonor you.

Honor and profit will not keep in one sack.

A handsome hostess is bad for the purse.

One fool makes a hundred.

One grain does not fill the granary, but it helps its companion.

The wrath of brothers is the wrath of devils.

Let the dog bark at me so he don't bite me.

Laws go where dollars please.

What is marriage, mother? Daughter, it is spinning, bearing children, and weeping.

A good word quenches more than a cauldron of water.

What is bought cheaper than a gift.

Better an ass that carries me than a horse that throws me.

Pickings and Clippings.

There is pork in weeds, and manure too.

Use good soap in the kitchen, as it saves the hands.

Rub the tea-kettle with kerosene and polish with a dry flannel cloth.

Flour should be kept in a barrel, with a flour scoop to dip it and to sieve it.

Bent whalebone can be restored and used again by simply soaking in water a few hours, then drying them.

We are told that even the small hair throws a shadow. And so it does. It throws a shadow over your appetite when you find one in your plate.

For a large dooryard, the white and sugar maple from the forest may be used, but they must be set at wide distances, giving room for evergreens, fruit trees and small shrubs. Nothing is better than the maple for street trees.

There are a great many duties that cannot wait. Unless they are done the moment they present themselves, it is not worth while to do them at all

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

QUALITY P PURITY NOT QUANTITY

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT.

THE BEST TONIC.

This medicine, combining Iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers and Neuralgia.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, &c., it has no equal.
