

FOR FARM AND GARDEN.

Booby Milk.

This is the cause of rosy milk: The albuminous matter through some agency, is a little more tenacious than usual and it strings.

The Perches for Chickens.

A great deal of nonsense has been written about the liability of crooked breast-bones and wry tails in chickens that are allowed to roost before they are well grown.

Washing Wool.

The washing of wool upon the sheep's back, which has been so frequently denounced in these columns as a barbarous practice for the men and the sheep, and as a wholly useless and delusive means of cleaning the wool, is rapidly going out of use.

Home-Made Fertilizer.

An Ohio farmer, writing to the National Stockman, tells how his poultry increased his wheat yield five to ten bushels per acre.

Farm and Garden Notes.

Collar galls and bruises are benefited by washing with salt water.

About Cutting Timber.

Farmers who cut timber for various purposes may learn something from the practice of the best engineers who have studied the nature of timber as regards its strength and durability.

Celestial Fishing.

Curious and ingenious are some of the Chinese contrivances for catching fish. In Swatow is used a small, wicker, cone-shaped basket.

CHINESE CAFES.

The Elaborate Courses in a Mongolian Restaurant.

Two Days Required to Eat a First-Class Spread.

There are eight thriving Chinese restaurants which can prepare a Chinese dinner in New York.

It is a matter to raise potatoes next year, now is the time to select the ground for them. A piece of clover turned under, will make as good a piece of land for potatoes as you can get.

Rightly managed, the potato crop can be made profitable to any farmer; the more profitable to one near a large town or city, where he can make his own sales, and thus save freight and commission.

A man simply wants to eat a short meal, for himself and a friend or two, he can get ready-made dishes of fish, chicken, duck, pig's feet, rice, tea, etc., cheaper than in any other restaurant.

One of the curiosities found in Maine is a pine tree near Hallowell that smokes. A column of vapor as large around as a man's arm rises from the very top of the tree and extends for several feet into the air.

A woman in Waton county, Ga., claims to have performed laparotomy upon the craw of a sick hen, taking out the organ, cleaning and washing it, and restoring it to its place.

Small People the Best Nutured.

"It is a fact of my observation," said a Pittsburg business man to a Dispatch reporter, "that people of small stature are far better natured than those of large size."

Philadelphia's Twins and Triplets.

Grown-up twins are a curiosity, although over 100 pairs of them were born in Philadelphia last year.

The Depth of the Atmosphere.

An interesting scientific fact has been made known by the aeronauts, those explorers of the sky. It has always been thought that the air surrounding the earth did not reach a great height.

QUAINT AND CURIOUS.

Copper money made its appearance in England in 1669.

A Michigan man has a chicken which is sixteen years old.

How Jet Buttons Are Made.

What you call jet buttons are not jet buttons at all; they are merely glass buttons that serve the purpose just as well, look just as well, and are very much cheaper.

The Pilgrim fathers held that kissing on Sunday was wicked.

Originally the diadem was a band or fillet worn by the ancients instead of the crown.

Sweet potatoes are highly prized for their medicinal qualities.

Bussels, once a capital of Austrian Brauns, now of Belgium, was founded by St. Gery of Cambrai, in the seventh century.

Under what is known as the Union of Calmar, Denmark, Sweden and Norway were united in June, 1396.

A "pos-hull contest" is the latest from Georgia, and three separate and several editors are crowing over it.

A colonial congress met at Albany, N. Y., in the summer of 1754.

During a recent storm at Otonagon, Mich., hailstones as large as small hen's eggs fell with such violence as to perforate the sheet-iron roof of a building.

W. M. Kirby, who lives on the Chattahoochee river in Georgia, has an Indian relic, a piece of pottery or a water vessel, the handle of which represents the gracefully curved neck of a swan.

One of the curiosities found in Maine is a pine tree near Hallowell that smokes.

A woman in Waton county, Ga., claims to have performed laparotomy upon the craw of a sick hen.

"It is a fact of my observation," said a Pittsburg business man to a Dispatch reporter, "that people of small stature are far better natured than those of large size."

Philadelphia's Twins and Triplets.

Grown-up twins are a curiosity, although over 100 pairs of them were born in Philadelphia last year.

The Depth of the Atmosphere.

An interesting scientific fact has been made known by the aeronauts, those explorers of the sky. It has always been thought that the air surrounding the earth did not reach a great height.

QUAINT AND CURIOUS.

Copper money made its appearance in England in 1669.

A Michigan man has a chicken which is sixteen years old.

How Jet Buttons Are Made.

What you call jet buttons are not jet buttons at all; they are merely glass buttons that serve the purpose just as well, look just as well, and are very much cheaper.

The Pilgrim fathers held that kissing on Sunday was wicked.

Originally the diadem was a band or fillet worn by the ancients instead of the crown.

Sweet potatoes are highly prized for their medicinal qualities.

Bussels, once a capital of Austrian Brauns, now of Belgium, was founded by St. Gery of Cambrai, in the seventh century.

Under what is known as the Union of Calmar, Denmark, Sweden and Norway were united in June, 1396.

A "pos-hull contest" is the latest from Georgia, and three separate and several editors are crowing over it.

A colonial congress met at Albany, N. Y., in the summer of 1754.

During a recent storm at Otonagon, Mich., hailstones as large as small hen's eggs fell with such violence as to perforate the sheet-iron roof of a building.

W. M. Kirby, who lives on the Chattahoochee river in Georgia, has an Indian relic, a piece of pottery or a water vessel, the handle of which represents the gracefully curved neck of a swan.

One of the curiosities found in Maine is a pine tree near Hallowell that smokes.

A woman in Waton county, Ga., claims to have performed laparotomy upon the craw of a sick hen.

"It is a fact of my observation," said a Pittsburg business man to a Dispatch reporter, "that people of small stature are far better natured than those of large size."

Philadelphia's Twins and Triplets.

Grown-up twins are a curiosity, although over 100 pairs of them were born in Philadelphia last year.

The Depth of the Atmosphere.

An interesting scientific fact has been made known by the aeronauts, those explorers of the sky. It has always been thought that the air surrounding the earth did not reach a great height.

QUAINT AND CURIOUS.

Copper money made its appearance in England in 1669.

A Michigan man has a chicken which is sixteen years old.

How Jet Buttons Are Made.

What you call jet buttons are not jet buttons at all; they are merely glass buttons that serve the purpose just as well, look just as well, and are very much cheaper.

The Pilgrim fathers held that kissing on Sunday was wicked.

Originally the diadem was a band or fillet worn by the ancients instead of the crown.

Sweet potatoes are highly prized for their medicinal qualities.

Bussels, once a capital of Austrian Brauns, now of Belgium, was founded by St. Gery of Cambrai, in the seventh century.

Under what is known as the Union of Calmar, Denmark, Sweden and Norway were united in June, 1396.

A "pos-hull contest" is the latest from Georgia, and three separate and several editors are crowing over it.

A colonial congress met at Albany, N. Y., in the summer of 1754.

During a recent storm at Otonagon, Mich., hailstones as large as small hen's eggs fell with such violence as to perforate the sheet-iron roof of a building.

W. M. Kirby, who lives on the Chattahoochee river in Georgia, has an Indian relic, a piece of pottery or a water vessel, the handle of which represents the gracefully curved neck of a swan.

One of the curiosities found in Maine is a pine tree near Hallowell that smokes.

A woman in Waton county, Ga., claims to have performed laparotomy upon the craw of a sick hen.

"It is a fact of my observation," said a Pittsburg business man to a Dispatch reporter, "that people of small stature are far better natured than those of large size."

Philadelphia's Twins and Triplets.

Grown-up twins are a curiosity, although over 100 pairs of them were born in Philadelphia last year.

The Depth of the Atmosphere.

An interesting scientific fact has been made known by the aeronauts, those explorers of the sky. It has always been thought that the air surrounding the earth did not reach a great height.

QUAINT AND CURIOUS.

Copper money made its appearance in England in 1669.

A Michigan man has a chicken which is sixteen years old.

How Jet Buttons Are Made.

What you call jet buttons are not jet buttons at all; they are merely glass buttons that serve the purpose just as well, look just as well, and are very much cheaper.

The Pilgrim fathers held that kissing on Sunday was wicked.

Originally the diadem was a band or fillet worn by the ancients instead of the crown.

Sweet potatoes are highly prized for their medicinal qualities.

Bussels, once a capital of Austrian Brauns, now of Belgium, was founded by St. Gery of Cambrai, in the seventh century.

Under what is known as the Union of Calmar, Denmark, Sweden and Norway were united in June, 1396.

A "pos-hull contest" is the latest from Georgia, and three separate and several editors are crowing over it.

A colonial congress met at Albany, N. Y., in the summer of 1754.

During a recent storm at Otonagon, Mich., hailstones as large as small hen's eggs fell with such violence as to perforate the sheet-iron roof of a building.

W. M. Kirby, who lives on the Chattahoochee river in Georgia, has an Indian relic, a piece of pottery or a water vessel, the handle of which represents the gracefully curved neck of a swan.

One of the curiosities found in Maine is a pine tree near Hallowell that smokes.

A woman in Waton county, Ga., claims to have performed laparotomy upon the craw of a sick hen.

"It is a fact of my observation," said a Pittsburg business man to a Dispatch reporter, "that people of small stature are far better natured than those of large size."

Philadelphia's Twins and Triplets.

Grown-up twins are a curiosity, although over 100 pairs of them were born in Philadelphia last year.

The Depth of the Atmosphere.

An interesting scientific fact has been made known by the aeronauts, those explorers of the sky. It has always been thought that the air surrounding the earth did not reach a great height.

JACOBS OIL THE GREAT REMEDY FOR PAIN. Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Toothache, Neuralgia, Headache, Stomachache, Burns, Scalds, Frost-bites.

CAUTION Beware of fraud as our name and the name of our medicine are prominent on the wrapper and on the bottle. A little seal is placed on the wrapper and on the bottle.

W. L. DOUGLAS' $3 SHOE. GENTLEMEN. The only shoe that has been made in America for over 50 years.

DR. SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. It helps the work of the Manifold Pills, sustains systems weakened by disease.

DR. SCHENCK'S MEDICINES. PURELY VEGETABLE. are for sale by all Druggists. Full printed directions with each package.

MARVELOUS MEMORY DISCOVERY. Any book learned in one reading. No matter how long ago.

COMMON SENSE CURE FOR CATARRH, RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, MIGRAINE, HEADACHE, BRUISES, SWELLINGS, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE URINARY AND BILIOUS SYSTEMS.

OSGOOD'S BICYCLES. $100 to $300. Catch them while you can. The best of the simple and reliable.

MARLIN REPEATING RIFLE. 30 DAY TRIAL. $50.00. The only one that will shoot 30 times without reloading.

BEN HARRISON'S SLICKER. 10,000 AGENTS WANTED TO supply FIFTY MILLIONS people with THE LIFE OF THE SLICKER.

DIAMOND DYES. Brilliant! Durable! Economical! Diamond Dyes excel all others in Strength, Purity and Fastness.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM. Cold in Head. Catarrh. The remarkable possibility that mysterious fires may have been set by sparks from other worlds.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM. Cold in Head. Catarrh. The remarkable possibility that mysterious fires may have been set by sparks from other worlds.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM. Cold in Head. Catarrh. The remarkable possibility that mysterious fires may have been set by sparks from other worlds.

ELLY'S CREAM BALM. Cold in Head. Catarrh. The remarkable possibility that mysterious fires may have been set by sparks from other worlds.