HAZING AT WAKE FOREST

Hazing in our colleges is not so frequent or severe as it was a few years ago. Now it is confined largely to gulling the fresh Freshmen and occasionally one's hair is cut. We understand that three boys were suspended from Wake Forest lately for cutting hair.

It is an old saying that young men will sow their wild oats and the boys will have their fun. Often a Freshman feels he must live up to his name and "get fresh" by calling upon some young woman, or painting his class numerals high where all who run may read. The sophomores likewise feel they must live up to their name as wise fools, and so they play the Ku Klux and disguised by mask or night, they proceed to mutilate their underclassman for his breach of sophomore etiquette.

Joshing, gulling, whistling or trotting a "newish" is a harmless sort of hazing, but when one's person is mutilated in such a way as to shame or make ridiculous in the eyes of others, we believe it should not be done.

Most of our colleges are now run by Student Government. The students themselves formulate a set of rules or regulations for the student body, and the Freshman has special consideration in these. When one or more takes it in hand to independently administer justice, immediately the principle of mob law supercedes the higher law of student government and the perpetrators become themselves law breakers without personal provocation. It is only just and even necessary, that such should be summarily punished according to the outlined regulations as adopted by the student body for its government.

We sympathize with the young men who were suspended from Wake Forest, but think they will see, after due reflection, that their punishment is not only proper, but was necessary for the future welfare of the whole student body and the college generally. Wherever there is a higher law either of God or man, in State or college, no man has the right to become a "law unto himself" until the higher law has broken completely down and failed wholly to function for the common good. Then would otherwise be a rebellion of traitors, because a revolution of patriots.

The lack of a due respect for parental discipline in the home, regulations in our institutions of learning, laws in our State, is showing its effects in the crime wave that has been sweeping our country for some time. Let us obey the law everywhere.

CHILDREN'S WEEK

We understand that this week is Children's Week. By special request pastor Davis will preach a special sermon at the Baptist church Sunday morning to the parents on the Relation of the Child to the Home, the church and the school. All the fathers and mothers of the community are especially invited to bring their children to this service.

The evening service will be at 7 o'clock. The subject will be Eating a Book. The public is invited to this service.

Rules of Contest

1.—Any reputable man, woman or child, residing in Wake, and surrounding territory is eligible to enter this election and compete for a prize.
2.—No employee or near relative of any person in the business office of The Zebulon Record is eligible to enter this distribution. Correspondents are eligible. The management reserves the right to reject any nominations.

3.—The winner of the prizes will be decided by their accredited votes, said votes being represented by ballots issued on subscriptions, and advertising cards and by coupons from the paper.
4.—Candidates are not confined to their own particular town or community in which to secure votes and subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or for that matter, anywhere in the United States.

5.—Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Candidates will be allowed to collect subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions, and votes will be issued on both.

6.—Votes are free. It costs the subscriber nothing to vote for their favorite. Subscribers should ask for votes when paying for their subscriptions.

7.—Votes cannot be purchased. Every cent accepted through the Election Department must represent subscriptions.

8.—Votes are not transferable. Candidates cannot withdraw in favor of another candidate. Should a candidate withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for candidates to give or transfer subscriptions to another candidate. Votes on such transferred subscription will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.

9.—Any collusion on the part of candidates to nullify competitions, or any other combination arrangement or effort to the detriment of candidates or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any candidate or candidates entering or taking part in such agreement, arrangement or effort will forfeit all rights to a prize or commission.

10.—Any ballot issued on subscription may be held in reserve and voted at the discretion of the candidate. The printed coupons appearing from week to week in this paper must be voted before the expiration date appearing thereon.

11.—In the event of a tie for any one of the prizes, a prize identical in value will be given each party.

12.—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, agent or candidate varying from the rules and statement published through the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publishers.

13.—No statement, assertion or promise, either written or verbal made by any of the solicitors, agents, or candidates, will be recognized by the publishers or campaign management.

14.—Every candidate is an authorized agent of The Zebulon Record and as such may collect subscriptions payment from present as well as from new subscribers.

15.—It is distinctly understood and agreed that candidates will be responsible for all money collected, and that they will remit such amounts in full at least three times each week.

16.—There will be several big prizes awarded, besides a 20 per cent cash commission to all active non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event ANY candidate becomes INACTIVE, failing to make a weekly cash report, he or she will, at the decision of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or commission.

17.—To insure absolute fairness in awarding the prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a "sealed ballot box" system and will be under the personal supervision of two or more judges selected from the advisory board. During the last few days of the election, the box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where the candidates and their friends will deposit their final collections and reserve votes. And not until the race has been declared closed will the seals be broken, the box unlocked and the campaign manager, can possibly know the voting strength of the respective candidates which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

18.—The management reserves the right to amend or add to the rules of the election if necessary for the protection of the interests of both the candidate and this newspaper. The right is also reserved to increase and add to the list of prizes.

19.—Twenty-five thousand extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription secured during the first period of the campaign; 10,000 extra votes will be given on each new yearly subscription secured during each of the remaining three periods.

20.—The publishers guarantee fair and impartial treatment to all candidates, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

21.—Campaign closes December 23, 1925.

THE PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of this distribution is two-fold—primarily to increase the subscription lists of The Zebulon Record and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, and in a big way through their spare time during the next few weeks. So, it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of us all concerned. In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartedly. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.

The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no "double vote" offers, extra votes given or any other inducement whatever inaugurated during this competition. Neither will there be any long term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straight-forward and simple and is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be fully understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women and boys and girls, and one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no losers in this race.

HOW TO ENTER THE ELECTION

The first step in order to become a candidate and compete for a prize is to clip the nomination coupon appearing in this issue; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to the campaign department of The Zebulon Record, Zebulon, N. C. This coupon entitles you or the person whom you might nominate to 5,000 FREE votes. These votes are given you are a starter, and to speed you on your way to win. Only one such nomination coupon will be accepted for each candidate.

HOW VOTES ARE SECURED

The next step is to call on or write the campaign department for a free working outfit, consisting of a special receipt book, sample copies of the paper and other information relative to launching an active campaign.

Thus equipped, you have but to go to your friends, neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them clip all the free coupons from their papers or pay a subscription to The Zebulon Record through you. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will never win anything unless you make the start; and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless, you should start at once. You must plan out your campaign the same as any successful business man plans out his work for a season, and, above everything else, let no one discourage you, but stick to the finish. Anything worth having is worth striving for. A few short weeks and you may be riding in your own automobile.

It takes votes to win and votes are secured in two ways: First, by clipping coupons appearing in each issue of The Zebulon Record. Begin by gathering them now. After next week these coupons will be reduced to a lesser number of votes. The only restriction placed on coupons is that they must be deposited at the campaign department of The Zebulon Record on or before the expiration date printed thereon. Get your friends to saving these coupons—they all count.

The other and faster way to get votes is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to The Zebulon Record. On each subscription turned in, a certain number of votes are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the campaign department (see schedule for votes elsewhere). So, you see, the more subscriptions you secure the more votes you can get and the better your chances are to capture the grand capital prize.

EARLY START MEANS EARLY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the FULL SIX WEEKS in which to secure the winning votes, but now and put to and including Saturday December 5, you will receive the maximum schedule of votes on subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

ADVISORY BOARD

It is the sincere aim of this newspaper to conduct this election, from start to finish, in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the interest of the participants, and absolute honesty in all dealing is guaranteed.

However, not all wisdom lies with any one man or institution and for that reason an Advisory Board has been decided upon, whose functions shall be to decide any questions of sufficient moment that might happen to arise during the competition and from which a committee shall be selected to act as judges and count the votes the last night of the election. The personnel of the board is as follows:

Messrs. E. C. Daniels, M. J. Sexton, L. L. Massey, F. E. Bunn, L. M. Gold, Rev. Theo. B. Davis, of Zebulon; Rev. A. A. Pippin, of Wakefield; J. H. Weathers, of Bunn; J. M. Stallings, of Pilot; Seba High, of Middlesex.
