Our Weekly Sermon

So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

—Romans 14:12.

Daniel Webster was once asked what was the most serious question that ever occupied his mind. He replied: "My solemn accountability to God." Washington had a similar feeling when he said: "I have always labored to keep alive within me that little spark of celestial fire called conscience."

Webster and Washington, like so many other great Americans, found aid and inspiration in attending Church regularly. Wherever they happened to be, they found a Church and worshipped. Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Calvin Coolidge, and other strong men of later years have, likewise attended and supported the Church, deriving peace, power and happiness from its services.

In celebrating Washington's birthday year by year our generation may well keep in mind the example of regular Church attendance set us by our first President and many of our other eminent statesmen. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."—Duplex.

We have found at least one commendable thing about the soviet rule in Russia: They have jailed seven poets who wrote free verse.

A noted speaker is quoted as saying that in the present situation "every community must get behind itself" and work its own way out of the slough of depression. That may be fine advice, but it seems to us it would take contortionists to follow it.

And here's a quotation from a story in The Saturday Evening Post: "Mabel started to put her spoon into the alleged soup, then changed her mind and wiped it hard on a napkin." We know of some minds that would be improved by scrubbing as well as by being wiped on a napkin.

An exchange tells of a movement to wear shirts that proclaim the beliefs of the wearer. He mentions the black shirts worn by the Fascisti, the red ones of the soviets, and the green ones proposed for those opposed to war, and then declares in favor of a red, white and blue one for himself. We suppose that this movement could be extended in scope and meaning. A shirt with a yellow stripe might denote cowardice, a blue one despondency, while a dirty one might mean its wearer was boycotting the laundries. The idea has possibilities.

YOUR DOCTOR AND YOUR PASTOR

In a great measure the doctors and the preachers are at the mercy of the people at all times, but especially at times like the present. Probably no two professions are now feeling the depressions more than they.

Though a doctor may charge the usual fee, yet his being a profession wholly dependent on the call of the public, he dare not proceed legally to collect for such services. In sickness there is a sort of unwritten law that the doctor must go day or night, far or near, winter or summer, pay or no pay, or suffer the severest criticism and censure along with the loss of prospective patients. There may be legal recourse, but he dare not take it.

The preacher faces even a worse situation. He has no voice in the fixing of his salary. Then when hard times come and money is scarce, people usually begin retrenching first by neglecting their church obligations.
 The preacher has no recourse whatever, to collect on the promises of his members.

Along with these individuals, hospitals face very much the same difficulties. They are considered at least semi-charitable institutions, and people expect free service or extended credit. We have been told that Rex hospital is almost facing bankruptcy because of its failure to collect and the urgent calls for charity service during the present financial crisis.

 Taxes must be paid, or the county and state will proceed to force collection. The merchant usually takes a lien on the crop, or a mortgage on other property. Even if he does not, last year's bill must be paid before this year's can begin. The carpenter, the plumber, or other tradesmen may take a laborer's lien to secure his wages. The lawyer usually sees to it that he gets his fee out of the damage suit, or provision be made for the settlement of his fee even before the settlement of the action in the courts. And so on down the line we go till we come to the two professions that are the closest to humanity where they are compelled to wait at the foot for such public benefactions as they may receive. However, we are fully cognizant of the fact that every profession is feeling keenly the effects of the times, and we do not mean to intimate that these two professional classes stand alone in this matter.

Being one of these professions, we make no plea for ourselves. But there are men—good, honest, faithful men, in medicine and the ministry who are needing the fruits of their service to pay their honest debts and support their families. They are criticised for failing to meet their obligations.
 Yet their every obligation could be discharged if they had only received a reasonable part of that which they have earned. Going into the homes of the people, the ymst wear better clothes than the average man, whether they can afford it or not. Quick calls come to them for sickness or funerals, so they must keep a car to serve them in such emergencies. The doctor or minister seriously, should have first consideration to whom they minister. This is a plea for your doctor and pastor, the two men who walk nearest to the footprints of the great Healer and Teacher.

TRUM AND ROOSEVELT

Governor Roosevelt who is actively out for the presidency said in an address in New York the other day that if we put the liquor business under state control that would give a double benefit—it would give a more satisfactory solution of the prohibition question and provide in these times of depression a much needed revenue for the state.
 Just let the governor keep this sort of argument up and if he is nominated he will not only go down in defeat but will carry his party with him. The majority of the people, especially in the South, believe more in morality and other virtues than they do in any political candidate or party.

SCHOOLS ON SATURDAYS

Danville, Va.—Divisional Superintendent Fletcher B. Watson has given his consent to the conduct of Saturday classes in the county public schools owing to the difficult situation confronting the teachers.
 Recently the county school board asked the teachers to give 15 days' time without compensation owing to lack of funds.
 The teachers are asking that Saturday be employed as a school day so that all idle time may be eliminated, reducing their boarding expenses on the scene of their teaching activity.—Greensboro Daily News.

MURRAY FOR PRESIDENT

We are a great admirer of governor Murray of Oklahoma for his old-fashioned ways and rugged honesty.
 We believe in many ways he is superior presidential timber to the last Democratic nominee or the prospective one, but we doubt very much his nomination. He may, however, be able to get on as a running mate to the nominee.

Guinea Eggs and New Potatoes.

Mr. Collie Arnold reports that he has new potatoes nearly as large as hen eggs. They grew in his basement, and he already had enough for one meal from the vine. He also found a guinea nest containing twenty-three eggs—and a guinea on the nest. Now, if he can find a few onions, he can have a big bowl of potato salad.

Taylorsville, Feb. 24.—Garfield Jennings has been convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Ray Perdue, football coach, who died after being struck a single blow by Taylor during a football game last fall.

Chapel Hill, Feb. 24.—Five boxers from the University of North Carolina have left for Charlottesville and which opens Thursday. The Tar the Southern Boxing Tournament.
 Heels are hardly considered favorite sons in the contests, but Coach Rowe feels that they will bear close watching.

Old Orchard, Me.—N. J. Browne Muldowney have left for Buenos Aires in an attempt to break the long distance record flight. They are traveling in "The Lone Star" and the trip is to cover 6000 miles, as planned.

New York.—On Washington's birthday, eleven years ago was begun the first continuous night and day air mail flight across the continent. This flight began in San Francisco. The mail bags were passed from pilot to pilot and 33 hours and 26 minutes later were landed in New York. There are now 675 pilots flying mail and the mail crosses the continent in 28 hours.

Lakehurst, N. J.—A committee of congressmen, gathered to watch a test flight of the airship, Akron, and expecting to see it prove its airworthiness, with them aboard, were amazed to see it partially wrecked instead.
 The breaking of a retraining cable and a gust of wind were blamed for the accident. No one was killed and two hours later the airship was slid back into the hangar. Two men were injured.

High Point.—The mother of Miss Dorothy Barker of Greensboro started out last night to chaperone her daughter and three boy friends on a ride. The car struck a telephone pole and mother and daughter spent the rest of the night in the High Point jail, charged with being drunk and disorderly. None of the young men were arrested.

Kinston.—Earl Pressley was riding in a car with a girl on his lap, when another automobile struck the one in which they were. The girl was hurled upward by the impact of the collision and fell back on Pressley' breaking two of his ribs.

Asheville.—For the second time in the past five years a moonlit rainbow has been seen. The former, reported from near Franklin, had no color; the latter, seen last Saturday night near Weaverville, had all the colors.

The Americana Legion Oratorical Contest for N. C. closed Monday night. The student making first place was Ezra E. Griffin, Jr., of Goldsboro college, while the first honor for high school students went to William H. Richardson, a junior in Hugh Morson High School, Raleigh.

The subject of the oratorical contest this year was "George Washington", in honor of the bi-centennial anniversary of his birth.
 North Carolina claims to have been the first state and New Bern the first town in the state to celebrate the birthday of George Washington. This celebration was held on Feb. 22, 1799.
 "The Immortal Washington" was praised and toasts were drunk in his honor.

UNRELATED MEN

Rutherfordton.—Two men of the same age, occupation and church denomination died in the same county on the same day and were buried at the same hour, a careful checkup revealed today.
 The men were not related and did not know each other. They were buried in different parts of Rutherford county.

Each was named William Thomas Blanton. They died February 5 and were buried the next day, one at Oak Grove and the other at Kistler's Chapel, 12 miles apart.

Each man was a farmer and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. One lived near Ellenboro and the other near Kistler's Chapel.
 The Kistler's Chapel Blanton differed in one respect from the other man of his name. He had constructed with his own hands a casket four or five months before his death, saying he could not live and that he "wanted to be ready."

One man is survived by his widow and six children; the other left only his widow.

Dr. J. C. Mann
 EYESIGHT SPECIALIST and Optician, will be at Dr. Barbee's office, Zebu-lon, N. C., every second Tuesday in each month.
 His next visit will be TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1932
 From 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

BOYS AND GIRLS OF HIGH SCHOOL SWAP TEACHERS

Believe it or not, there is a group of high school boys studying in the home economics department and a group of girls studying in the manual training department.

The girls are learning under Prof.
 W. K. Whitesell to weave chair bottoms, reclaim worn furniture and to do other such work that a woman is so often called upon to do about the home.

The boys are studying table etiquette and essentials of dress from Miss Willa Campbell. The boys have donned work baskets and aprons and are, in some cases, learning to sew on buttons and to make candy.
 Miss Campbell is stressing color harmony in dress in the instruction she is offering the young men enrolled in her class for a short time.

READY TO FIGHT

Reidsville.—Tension growing out of the Sino-Japanese situation spread in North Carolina yesterday, resulting in rumors that America would join the hostilities and grew so strong at Reidsville that national guardsmen there donned their uniforms and assembled ready for duty.

PREDICTS GREAT GROWTH IN SOUTH

Atlanta, Ga.—General R. E. Wood, president of Sears, Roebuck and Company, predicts the southeast will develop in ten years into the greatest industrial center of the United States.

Addressing a meeting of Georgia manufacturers, he declared "the South has more young people under the age of 20 than either the North or West, and it is this advantage of youthful population that in the next ten years will make it the greatest industrial section of the nation."

General Wood added the southeast has every possible natural advantage in the way of facilities, minerals, timber and other resources. "This section has the advantage of being near deep water, and has the raw materials, minerals, timber and cheap power that make manufacturing possible."

DECLINE $30,000,000 IN TOBACCO

Raleigh, N. C.—North Carolina's tobacco crop was worth $30,000,000 less to the farmers of the state for the 1931-32 selling season than in 1930-31 it is revealed by the report of the state crop reporting service just issued.

Up to the same time last year the sales had amounted to 541,114,488 pounds of producers' sales at an average price of $13.14 per hundred-weight for receipts to farmers of $71,102,444.32.

Sales for the month of January showed a sharp decline in quantity total producers' sales amounting to 35,145,640 pounds at an average of $6.12 compared to January, 1931, sales of 49,097,523 pounds at an average of $10.66.

"Prices at this season of the war are unusually low due to the inclusion of much scrap tobacco," the report said.

When TEETHING
 makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly.
 For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless.
 When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name:

Food For Week

The Government's council on Unemployment and relief, with the special help of Mrs. McInness, county home demonstrator, has worked out a list of necessities in groceries for a week. This should be of interest and service to all who have to do with relief work, since it gives a definite idea of the smallest amount of food that will maintain strength. It is also suggested that in many cases it may be better not to give out a week's supply at one time, but only enough for a few days; because it is regrettably true that being a charity case does not always mean that one is not wasteful. The list following is for a family of three children and two adults.

Cornmeal, flour, oatmeal, grits or rice, to total 16 lbs.
 Fat meat, 3 lbs.
 Molasses or preserves and sugar, 4 pints, or 2 pints and 2 lbs. sugar.
 Dried peas or beans, 3 lbs.
 The above foods are those mainly furnished by charitable units. The foods given below are supplementary and should be added to the ones already listed.

Milk, 7 quarts or 10 small cans.
 Collards, turnip greens, cabbage, turnips, or other vegetables, 4 lbs.
 Potatoes, sweet or Irish 1 pk.
 Canned tomatoes, 4 small cans.
 Pork, beef, salmon or cheese, 2 lbs. or 1 1-2 doz. eggs.
 Soap is a necessity and coffee may be added if possible.

At present prices in our town the food listed above for a family of five for a week would cost less than three dollars, allowing for half of the breadstuff to be flour and half cornmeal, and also allowing for a quart of molasses and 2 lbs. sugar, 2 cakes of soap. (The molasses costs more than sugar, but is more valuable in the diet than all sugar would be.)

CARPSBORO EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Privette of Pilot were the Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mason.

The Woman's club, the Willing Workers, met last Tuesday and a beautiful program was rendered.

Miss Rochelle Privette of Wendell spent the week end with Miss Aleene Mason.

We are sorry to report that Mr.
 Donald Raper is very sick with his teeth and hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. Hardy Bunn of Middlesex spent the week-end with Mr. Leroy Mason.

Mrs. Noah Crowder is spending the week with her father, Mr. Will Martin of Pilot.

We are very sorry to report that Mrs. William Carroll is very ill and is in the Smithfield hospital.

A QUESTION

Will some one tell us why, with such a mild winter as we have had, the fruit trees are not blooming. We have frequently seen peach trees in bloom by this time.

A Letter From Mary To Her Ma

Zebulon, N. C., Feb. 24, 1932.

Dear Ma,

I went to Zebulon last Saturday and went to the Supply Store to look at the oil stoves. I've been wanting one a long time. Well, they've got some of the prettiest ones you ever saw. I liked the Nesco best. The one I want has an oven built in almost like an electric stove. It is enamelled and can be washed off with a cloth. If I can get the oil stove I could help Bob more in the crop, for I could cook breakfast on the Nesco by the time our old wood stove would heat. Bob thinks we ought to burn wood because we have it; but we could sell a few cords of wood and buy enough oil to cook with all summer. And the oil wouldn't have to be split up when Bob was so tired and just out of the field. I know I'd not get half so hot canning, if I had the Nesco to use. I'm going to keep on talking about it, and if I can persuade Bob, we'll certainly have that new 4-burner Nesco by the time you come to see us—and you won't get hot sitting in the kitchen to talk while I cook.

P. S. I ask Mr. Percy Lewis at the Zebulon Supply Store to put a picture in this week's Record, and something telling other women about the stove. Here it is:
