That friendship quilt, made "yo-yo" pattern, which the ladies of Hephzibah and Wakefield communities made and gave me is one of my treasures. As yet I have not even put it away, but keep it on a settee in our best room, where it will be convenient to show all who come. Someone suggested that I put up a bed in that room and show the quilt to better advantage; but the objection is that I haven't a bed that would do it jus-
