THE FOUR-COUNTY NEWSPAPER—WAKE, JOHNSTON, NASH AND FRANKLIN.

VOLUME IX.

ZEBULON, NORTH CAROLINA, MARCH TWENTY-THIRD, 1934

NUMBER 39.

THIS, THAT AND THE OTHER

By MRS. THEO. B. DAVIS

For Linoleum and Imitations

Mrs. McInness told us that the following compound is fine for polishing and preserving linoleum:

Set one cupful of kerosene in hot water until it is warm. Melt one-half pound of paraffine and mix with kerosene. Apply a little of it to linoleum while hot and when it cools polish well. Be careful to use only a very small amount, as a thick coating is not desired.

You Know Why

Marbles and kites assure us that this is springtime, but for once small boys have not worried their mothers with pleas for going barefoot before the middle of March.

Whose Are They?

Have you ever seen as many stray dogs as are roaming the streets and roads these days? They trot singly or in groups, some aimlessly and some with an air of having a definite destination. Some seem friendly, some are indifferent and some seem surly and suspicious. They snoop around back doors, often casting a carefully careless eye toward the chickenyard—and you are fortunate if you do not find empty nests or a pile of shells some evening instead of eggs. There is an occasional collie that looks half-ashamed of the company he is in; a speckled bird dog with a bored air; some hungry looking hounds, a few of which always appear to be hurrying back to their families; a number of mongrels, large and small, all hungry.

I wonder if owners pay taxes on these animals; and, if so why.

The serious-minded son came at me last Saturday with one of those mental tests that so many folks believe in. He asked me to name a color and an animal and to say what came into my mind when he said money. I said green, cow and debt, and that proved that I have a very low grade of intelligence if I am not actually a moron.

I should, it seems, have said red, horse and bank, which would have proved that I am a normal person. Such a simple test. Great are psychology and psychiatry, but there are times when I think that still greater are those who put their trust in the Lord and go on doing their best.

The program of the W. M. U. at Rocky Mount on Wednesday of last week was good; but nothing was more enjoyable than the singing by the Scotland Neck choir just after the recess for lunch. They wore vestments, which to my mind, always sets singers apart and gives them an impersonal dignity. They were directed by a tall, slender woman whose black hair was smooth as satin and who made such graceful gestures that it was a joy to watch her.

They gave one number with piano accompaniment, and after that they just sang. Much of it was directly from the Bible and they sang as if they believed it.

I didn't know a member of the choir except Aubrey Tilley, who used to teach here in high school, and I had no chance to speak to him. However, it added to the pleasure of the day to see him and to hear him.

FIRST COUNT OF VOTES TO BE PUBLISHED NEXT WEEK

WILL SHOW STANDING OF EVERY CANDIDATE—WORKERS IN ZEBULON RECORD CAMPAIGN SHOULD MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO SECURE EVERY POSSIBLE SUBSCRIPTION IN ORDER TO MAKE GOOD SHOWING IN FIRST REPORT—SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE TURNED IN WEDNESDAY FOR THIS SCORE—LIST OF NOMINATIONS PRINTED TODAY

A Live-Wire Could Start Now
And Lead In The First Count

MORE WORKERS NEEDED

Candidates in The Zebulon Record's gift distribution campaign should make every effort to get as many subscriptions as possible in by Wednesday in order to make a good showing in the first published report, which will be made in the next issue of the Record.

Today, it appears—the first list of nominations. Names of nominees received until yesterday, together with their nomination vote of 5,000 are printed on this page for candidates entered in the Zebulon Record's every-candidate-wins-something all cash prize campaign.

This list published today MUST not be misunderstood. The names printed are only nominations. The list serves only to show who is entered. It does not indicate the active candidates.

If your nomination blank has been sent and does not appear in the list, kindly notify the campaign manager immediately. Nominations are not closed. In fact, today there are more prizes than there are active candidates. Opportunity without a handicap is here today for new entries who will "carry on."

And the same holds true for the candidates already entered.

MEANS WORK TO WIN

Candidates who will not produce subscriptions cannot hope to win. The more subscriptions you produce the more votes you earn. Simple nomination of a candidate does not mean anything. The nomination is but the first step—the starting point. Anyone content to rest after nomination cannot get far in this race. Active work, honest effort, constant attention to business in hand—that alone can get votes. And votes WIN. And subscriptions mean votes.

With so many candidates entered and so many of those not yet at least manifesting any life or activity, the opportunity is here for some live workers to enter and "carry on" to victory.

In fact, the more candidates entered the less votes it will take to win. If two candidates are running for office they must have all the votes between them. The winner must have a majority—over half of all the votes cast. But if five candidates seek the same office the winner only needs more votes than the next highest candidate.

Then, too, in this campaign every candidate wins something. There is the $500, $100, $50, and $25 cash prizes. And remember, too, the cash commission of 20 per cent on all subscriptions paid to all active non-prize-winning participants. In an election for office but one candidate wins. In this election every candidate wins—YOU WIN. You who are in, get busy, work, carry on; you who are still "thinking about it" get in. Go after 'em and win.

Clip or tear out the nomination blank in today's Zebulon Record, bring it or send it to the Zebulon Record office. Then spend the next five weeks more profitably than any other few weeks of your life were ever spent before. Go in and win.

PRINT VOTE FRIDAY

The next issue of the Zebulon Record will contain the first credit score for those who have accepted the Free Gift Distribution offer. Subscriptions count for more votes now than when the campaign closes. These intervening days should be the biggest vote making days of the campaign.

It behooves every candidate to get busy. No candidate can afford to allow his or her "ears to be knocked down." You cannot afford to make snap judgment. If there is anything you do not understand make it your business to find out at the campaign office.

Those of you who are expecting to get busy, who intend to start going after subscriptions in a big way next week, will do well to advance your itinerary a few days; it will pay big. It means the difference between winning your choice of prizes or being content with one of lesser value. It is up to you. It is you who must work out your own salvation. It is you who can enhance your voting strength, and you alone.

Are you going to let others walk

YE FLAPDOODLE

By The

Swashbuckler

This week's bit of scandal will probably be like the writer. Far fetched. No one has done anything out of the way with these few exceptions—

The little blonde who goes to Wakelon and with James O'neal was recently seen with another man from the adjacent city. It seems that since she couldn't marry for money, she's doin' her darndest to forgive and forget in someone else's arms. But ye gods, what arms.

Moonlight and roses apparently doesn't have to become actuality to be enjoyed by Zebulon's fairer sex. Evidently, all necessary for a good time is: a man, a car, and a place to park. For the parking place, I am very reliably informed that should the sheriff or anyone else suddenly drive in the side road that leads to the Gar Hole, there would be a mad scramble for the low-lands. Reminds me of last summer when a certain young lady, (now married to a "dam-yankee") was very abruptly driven from the water by a pair of auto lights. In making her get-away, she left a pair of her sister's pants behind. They tell me that Frank Wiggs should know something about this—He was one of those who did the catching—or vice versa—

If I am to believe my ears, Mary Frances Cockrell's Grip has fallen from his horse in the hearts of his countrymen. They tell me that he is above the average in somethings and won't enter unless he can win. Nothing personal in this only I was begged to print it, Come round som'time Grip, I still like yuh—

It is said that Martha Bailey Flowers is trying to forget her sailor lad. Maybe he's trying to forget her—You never can tell—

Mary Barrow still holds the talking championship so far as I am concerned. My ears still ring from the lats time I tried to take in all she tried to say—

Dizzy Liles 'lows as how he's beginning to become tired of everything in general—including Dizzy! Hydrochloric Acid will do a nice job, Dizzy. You don't notice the burn after the first fifteen minutes—away with gifts all for the lack of but a little effort right now?

Thanking you for your undivided attention during these three minutes, I remain, Most sincerely yours for scandal— The Swashbuckler.

Candidates must realize that work now will produce subscriptions which count more votes than when the campaign closes. This certainly should spur them to action.
