Balloon Falls

AMERICAN STRATOSPHERE BALLOON COMES TO GRIEF
 The balloon in which two American army officers hoped to pierce the stratosphere farther than any one else had ever gone, came to grief in a Nebraska corn field Monday. It failed to reach the record set by European explorers some months ago. The futile effort is said to have cost more than half a million dollars.

Magistrates Organize

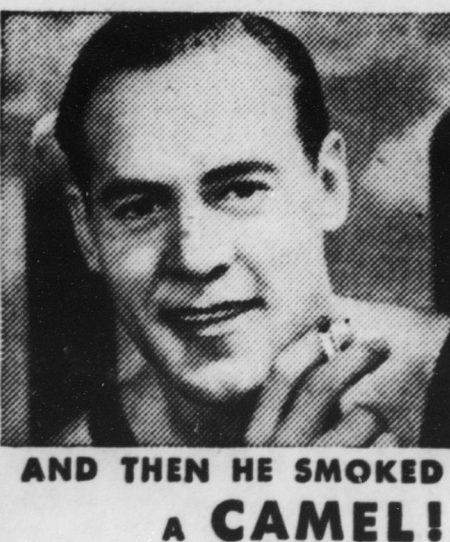

COUNTY MAGISTRATES ORGANIZE INTO "UNION"
 Wake county magistrates have organized a unit of the state association. Squire H. A. Bland has been named as president and V. L. Biggs as secretary. The purpose of the association, as set out in its constitution is to elevate the magistrates' courts and offices to the position of dignity they should have. Most folks, even the magistrates, will admit that there is room for some elevating.

"PEP" GONE

AND THEN HE SMOKED A CAMEL!

It's easy to overdo at strenuous summer sports. So remember that smoking a Camel helps to chase away fatigue and bring back your natural vigor. Enjoy Camel's "energizing effect" as often as you want. Camels never jangle the nerves!

Coca-Cola Sued By Mrs. Chandler Harris For Use Of 'Remus'

The widow and other heirs-at-law of the late Joel Chandler Harris, creator of Uncle Remus, recently brought suit against the Coca-Cola Company for ten million dollars, for infringement of copyright. The company had used Uncle Remus "cut-outs" in advertising materials. The Georgia courts threw the case out, and the Harrises appealed.

Bum Has Fortune

New Jersey police a few days ago picked up an old man moping along the road, with old gunnybags for shoes, and dilapidated and patched up clothing. When they searched him they found that he had more than ten thousand dollars in his pockets. He said he was walking because he had missed a train connection.

Henry Ford Now 71

Henry Ford, automobile magnate was 71 years old Monday. Ford is probably the richest man in the world; almost certainly he is the wealthiest in America. Unlike a great many other wealthy men he has never given anything away.
 Ford's philosophy is that in putting the automobile within reach of the average laboring man he has made a more substantial contribution to the social good than if he had charged more for his cars and given the money to charity. There is some logic in that position, but Mr. Ford has taken care of himself very well indeed while helping the poor folks to ride.

Ah Leong, who arrived in Hawaii from China almost penniless, 57 years ago, died recently leaving a fortune estimated at $1,000,000.

Fergusons Beaten

James V. Allred, red-headed and youthful lawyer, was nominated for governor of Texas in the Democratic primary Saturday. Allred is recognized as an anti-Ferguson leader. He will succeed Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson as governor. The anti-Ferguson ticket won out all down the line.

Highway Patrol Escort Activities

Considerable comment has been occasioned by the recent report of the State Highway Patrol which showed that a good part of the activities of that department had consisted of furnishing motorcycle escorts for motor parties. This comment has been mostly unfavorable. Admitting justification for a large part of the criticism, there is also justification for a large part of this activity.

Preceding the governor on his visits to football games and other events about the state, furnishing an escort of honor for various other dignitaries, real or spurious, is a useless and absurd thing for the patrol to do. But pacing funerals to keep them moving at reasonable speed, escorting motorcades where many cars tend to congest traffic, and such like duties are proper and necessary functions of the highway patrol.

The question is whether the good done by the patrol justifies putting up with the nuisance involved in this pageantry. That there is argument both for and against the patrol is conceded by all fair-minded citizens.

New Town Manager

James C. Harris took up his duties last week as business manager for the Town of Fuquay Springs, succeeding W. H. Moore, who went into government service. Mr Harris is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He is getting well onto his job and a number of delinquent taxpayers have already had "love letters" from him.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS HAVE A FINE CONVENTION

 body had a good time.
 Doyle Alley of Waynesville was elected president, Miss Mabel Penny of Raleigh, vice president, and John C. Rodman of Washington national committeeman.
 Governor Ehringhaus made his usual speech commending his administration, Senators Bailey and Reynolds assured the youngsters that the country is safe so long as the Democrats are in power and they are in Washington. A "wet" resolution, asking for a state liquor control law was passed—and just as soon as the vote was taken the governor left the platform. Later an effort was made to get that vote stricken from the record, but that effort failed.
