NUMBER 18

THIS, THAT AND THE OTHER

By MRS. THEO. B. DAVIS

For some time now I've had a kind of hankering to do a column after the manner of Walter Winchell, or those that hint at things and leave you wondering. So here goes.

What young woman came as a bride to this town some months ago and is rapidly becoming popular with both old and young because of her good qualities?

What young couple moved to Zebulon quite recently and declare they have found it to be really a friendly town and that they like living here?

What church last Sunday, when asked by the pastor to raise three hundred dollars to pay for painting the building at once subscribed three hundred and twenty?

What talented woman has given years and years of service in the Sunday School of a certain denomination and has the children's departments usually well-organized and the teachers and pupils really working?

What college girl, home for an unexpected visit, and asked by her mother if she came to see about a winter coat and if she wanted to hurry to town to buy it answered that her time was so short she couldn't spare any of it for buying clothes, but preferred to have every minute with her family and let the new coat wait?

What Zebulon matron of the younger set, when asked about attending a district club meeting replied that she'd love to go, but that she had the missionary society program for that day and could not let anyone have the idea that she put club work ahead of church work?

What young man, starting in business not long ago, has not only become dependable at his place of work, but has become the "right hand man" of his Sunday School teacher?

Again approaches the season, as the orators would say, when glorious autumn prepares to trail her gorgeous robes into the corridors of the past, leaving hard-visaged winter to reign supreme—in other words the time is coming when it will be hard to find something to make fresh-tasting sandwiches for the children's lunches.

The following recipe has been printed before, but it is so good for sandwiches, and for use as a relish that I want to be sure that everyone has a chance to use it. Some of you have probably lost your recipe, anyway; and, too, we have some new readers.

Artichoke Relish
One half peck artichokes
One small head cabbage

A joint meeting of the Missionary societies of the Wendell and Zebulon Methodist churches will be held at Mrs. C. L. Read's Friday of this week from 10 to 3 o'clock. A mission study class and talks on Japan will be the program. All members are asked to carry a light lunch.

W. F. Evans Lands

W. F. Evans has landed on his feet. Despite the active opposition of Senator Bailey and the utter indifference of all the rest of the Democratic leaders in North Carolina, the man has got another good federal job—at $5000 a year. Maybe you don't like him, but you've got to respect his job-getting ability.

DEATH OF MRS. J. M. KNOTT

(Written from copy sent)

The death angels visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knott and took with them home to heaven their mother, Mrs. Annie E. Knott, Saturday morning at 1:30, after a short illness of pneumonia.

She left very consciously and willingly to join the great white throng and loved ones and friends up yonder.

Mrs. Knott was the daughter of the late James and Salome Hester of Buffalo Springs, Mecklenburg County, Va. She was twice married; first, to John H. Critcher the son of Anson Critcher of Granville County, Oxford; next, to John M. Knott of Granville County, the son of Thomas Knott.

The funeral services were conducted at Bethlehem Church on Sunday, October 28, 1934. Officiating was her pastor, Rev. Carl Ousley, assisted by Rev. Atkins, pastor of Bethlehem Church; Mr. Oldham of Wendell; Mr. Townsend of Hayes-Barton Church, Raleigh.

Surviving her are six children: W. E. Critcher, Raleigh; Mrs. Lillie Critcher Richardson, Zebulon; Mrs. Cy Williams, Knightdale; J. E. Knott, Wendell; Joe T. Knott, Mrs. H. H. Hood, Zebulon, and 23 grandchildren.

News Briefs

BUDGET TO RAISE FED PAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1— At a meeting of the president and reporters here today, the president announced that budget estimates for the year 1935-36 will be made to include a salary increase of 5 per cent for all federal employees.

This will bring the federal workers back to their original salaries. The original pay reduction was 15 per cent. Ten per cent of this was restored in two installments during the last session of congress.

Charge and Counter Charge

Political controversies gain in heat as election day draws nearer. Republicans charge that Democrats have used relief funds as a means of buying votes. Administrator Hopkins retorts that hunger is not debatable. Republicans assert that the president's promise to raise salaries of government employees is another attempt to influence voters. A Democratic leader states that the use of government funds for persuading voters is not confined to his party. Each day brings more of such debate.

We are sorry to report little Janette Horton is sick.

All enjoyed the day. Mrs. King received some pretty presents and many good wishes.

Trains of the Canadian National Railway were held up for several hours between Ft. William, Ont. and Winnipeg, Man., by slippery rails caused by the millions of caterpillars which covered the tracks.

Club Meeting

WAKEFIELD H. D. CLUB

The combined business and social meeting of the Home Demonstration Club at Wakefield on Wednesday night of last week was most enjoyable. Rev. Mr. Wilcox was kept away by sickness, but Rev. Carl Ousley, pastor of Wakefield Church, was an acceptable substitute. Mrs. Jane McKimmon of Raleigh added much to the pleasure of all present.

ZEBULON WOMAN'S CLUB

The meeting on Tuesday p. m. of the Department of Music of the Woman's Club was pronounced by those members present one of the very best ever held. The program was on American music. Mrs. J. G. Kemp gave a paper on Indian music and Mesdames Haywood Scarboro, Mallie Todd and W. G. Smith, of Wendell, sang "The Sun Worshipers," with Mrs. Paul Brantley, of Wendell, at the piano. Mrs. Scarboro next sang as a solo "From the Land of Sky-Blue Waters."

Mrs. T. B. Davis spoke briefly on Negro music and Mesdames Scarboro, Todd and Smith sang several characteristic melodies of the race. A composition by Dvorak based on Negro music, was also used by the trio.

Mrs. Paul Brantley spoke interestingly of the work of her brother, Lamar Stringfield, director of the Symphony Orchestra of the state. She told of his developing simple tunes into orchestral arrangement and of their reception by music lovers, weaving in bits of the home life of the musician's childhood, which showed the early bent of his talent. Mrs. Smith at the piano played motifs from "Cripple Creek" and "John Henry," as arranged by Mr. Stringfield.

At the close of the program an opportunity was given those present to speak to the visiting musicians and to Mrs. Griffin mother of Mrs. Scarboro, and Mrs. Stringfield, mother of Mrs. Brantley. Mesdames Kemp and Coltrane, hostesses for the day, served hot coffee with sandwiches and cookies.

Other welcome visitors were Mrs. J. A. Kemp and Mrs. Law, who came with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Pippin.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY FAILS

An attempt to rob the Bank of Wendell on last Saturday morning was foiled by officers and a bank official. Deputies Weathers, Maddry and Attorney Philip Whitley were stationed in hiding and were awaiting the beginning of operations by the would-be bandits. Many shots were fired, but no one was injured. Five men have been arrested, four of them being from Raleigh. They are: L. B. Wilson, J. A. Waller, J. E. Johnson, Eugene Albright and "Red" Fowler, an ex-convict.

World's Fair Over

The gates of the 1934 World's Fair at Chicago closed Saturday night. The fair brought many millions of dollars to Chicago and the merchants are considering if they can do it again next year.

YE FLAPDOODLE

By The Swashbuckler

From the center of a medicine cabinet comes this week's Flap-doodle. Barring the fact that Devil's Grip, aided by malaria, and abetted by bronchitis are wroughting havoc with the remnants that were the Swashbuckler, I'm in the pink of condition.

Doe Dewell says I'm nervous as a she-wolf with pups. Who wouldn't be? Lying in bed all day is no fun when you have it to do.

I've been lying here dreaming and as my idle fantasies pass by I see Curly Wallace coming in from a weekend at four-thirty in the A. M., awakening everyone in the dormitory as he stumbles in.

Too, I see Sister Martha Bailey Flowers two-timing Leslie of the Briney-Deep for Curtis Todd and then seeing greener pastures elsewhere seeks out one James O'Neal, also of Wendell. Who was it said—"The moth doth flit from lamp to lamp and to find the hottest flame."

Bu-leave me, neighbor, Bobby Horton is like unto a plucked rose. He's fading fast from the memory of one Edna Earle Sexton. At any rate, Robert Nowell seems to be taking the cake very well at present. Well, Bobby will probably win the fair maiden back ere long.

Sir Clumsy Jones is doing his worst to beat Clarence (Wattaman) Watson's time with the little Mardesty gal. Clumsy is never on time for football practice any more, reports Coach Gerow.

Incidentally, or not, Elaine Robertson is thataway about Proctor Scarboro. Uhuh.

Earl Moser is often seen moseying around Reek Ferebee's front door. Seems Grip Daughtry was a pretty good-sized fly in his ointment.

According to one of the matrons about town, Norman Screws is the tetician at Zebulon Supply. That makes Betty Crocker a mortician, eh, wot?

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Mrs. Annie L. Knott wish to acknowledge with heartfelt thanks and grateful appreciation the kindness and sympathy shown us during the brief sickness and at the death of our dear mother and grandmother.
