JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual Junior-Senior banquet at which the juniors are hosts, was given last Wednesday night. The entertainment took place in the Home Economics Department, which was decorated in Japanese style. The ladies were presented corsages of violets and jasmine and the men were given violet boutonnières. The place cards were small Japanese fans and a three course menu was served. During the first course a toast to the Seniors was proposed by Mike Eddins, president of the Junior Class and answered by Innie Perry, president of the Senior Class. Throughout the evening the following toasts were given: To the Grade Mothers and Fathers by Douglas Chamblee, answered by Mrs. C. E. Flowers; to the Schoolboard by Charles Flowers, answered by Dr. L. M. Massey; to the Waitresses by Lillian Denton, answered by Ruby Bridges; to the Faculty, answered by Mr. E. H. Moser.

Musical entertainment was furnished by Kay Kemp, Margaret Bunn, Mike Eddins, Jack Temple, Mary Gray Pippin and Mrs. Council Scott. Guests included the members of the School board, the high school Faculty and the Grade Mothers and Fathers.

NEW GYMNASIUM

Work on the Wakelon school gymnasium progresses rapidly during the last week or two. Owing to weather conditions little was done till the fair weather made work possible. While it will not be completed early enough to use any during this term of school it will be in first class condition before another school year.

At least $1,000 or more dollars will be needed to finish the work. Then, too, funds will be needed to equip the gymnasium. If you have not made your contribution it will be appreciated at any time. This building will be something our school has needed ever since the school was established and the community is getting it at small cost. By spending a few hundred dollars more we shall have one of the best gymnasiums among the high schools of the state.

At Chapel Hill in the Triangular Debates last week Eunice Outlaw and James Alford got as far as the semi-finals before being defeated. The winning team was from Kinston.

Miss Webb's seventh grade presented a play in the auditorium this week to help provide funds for the trip to Greensboro by the Glee Club. Wakelon is well represented at the state music contest and also has the distinction of being located in the smallest town from which glee clubs were sent to the contests.

Confesses Murder

Tracked down by a piece of twine, John Fiorenza, murderer of Mrs. Nancy Titterson of New York has confessed to the crime, committed two weeks ago. He was employed by an upholstery firm and had been to the Titterson apartment to take away for repairs a love seat. With this claim for admittance he returned the next day and attacked Mrs. Titterson, killing her and putting the body in the bath tub. He failed to carry away every scrap of the twine he used in binding her and police located the place of manufacture and to whom such twine was sold.

Fiorenza had a prison record, though his employers regarded him as quiet and trustworthy.

HOME BURNED

The Horton home, one of Zebulon's landmarks, occupied by W. A. Horton caught fire during the preparation of breakfast on Wednesday morning. Thinking that he could extinguish the blaze, Mr. Horton tried pouring water on it before turning in an alarm. A gust of wind swept the flames over the roof, which being old and dry, ignited like a flash. In spite of the efforts of the fire department, which arrived promptly when called, the house was almost wholly burned. Some furniture was saved as was the piano. There was a small amount of insurance on the place.

CANDIDACY NOTICE

I have offered as a candidate for the office of State Senator from Wake of my own choice and for the reason that I have every confidence that moderate educational opportunities, twenty years actual farming experiences, one year manager labor department for James Stewart Construction Company, construction Fort Bragg and U. S. Labor Department Office, Fayetteville, two years Solicitor County Recorder's Court, past legislative experiences, four years Service N. C. Cotton Growers Cooperative Association, 4 years service as attorney with N. C. Agricultural Credit Corporation, 5 years general law practice, amply fits me to represent the WHOLE people in the State Senate. If nominated and elected, I shall stand for and advocate, at all times, that THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE SHALL BECOME THE LAW.

Middlesex Seniors Present Play

The Senior Class of the Middlesex High School will present the annual Senior Play, Friday night, April 24, at 7:45. The play is entitled, "The Adventures of Grandpa." Admission will be 10c and 20c.

The cast of characters is as follows: Grandpa—Oliver Hopkins; Monte Ray, his grandson—Joe Lewis; Tod Hunter, who runs a dancing school—Robert Brewer; Lucy Hunter, his wife—Daisy Smith; Pansy Hopsotch, fair, fat and forty—Mary Hagwood; Dorothy May, her companion—Jonet

Allen; Kloompy, the Danish maid—Margaret Daniel; The policeman—John Linton; Marie, the French dancing teacher—Metta Philips.

It is definitely proven that nudist colonies have outstripped all other recent enterprises. Alas for him who never sees The stars shine through the cypress trees.

For Digestion's Sake—smoke Camels

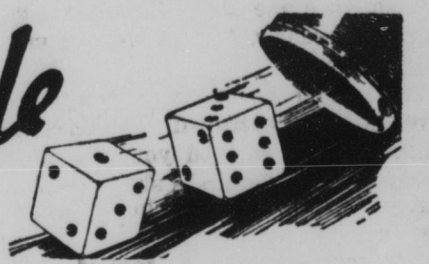

DIETITIAN. Miss L. Flinn says: "Camels cause increased flow of the digestive fluids."

DOWN FROM THE CLOUDS comes Joe Crane, ace of parachute jumpers. How about his digestion? He says: "It's natural for me to turn to Camels. They help me enjoy my food more!"
