SEXTUPLETS

As regards multiple births a Nicaraguan mother has outstripped both Canada's quintuplets and the quadruplets in the United States by giving birth to sextuplets. Four of the babies were boys and two girls. However only one of the six is now living.

CROWD AT RALEIGH

A crowd estimated at more than 25,000 watched Maj. Al Williams perform thrilling stunts at Raleigh's airport Sunday p. m. Among the number were nearly 100 young people who had submitted models of airplanes which they had made. The makes of those adjudged best were given free rides in planes Sunday, while the maker of the best of all models, Robert Loos, State College student, will be given two round-trip tickets to New York as guest of Eastern Air Lines.
