LIKE A TOWER

Out of all earth's maze of sorrow,
Rising higher like a steeple—
Like a church's simple tower,
Is the courage of the people.
We can see it, clear and vivid,
Miracle of sweet profoundness—
High with meaning, never failing.
'Tis a marvel and as boundless
As the beauty of the earth.
Yea—this courage of its people!

Engagement Announced

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Mary Wilton Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harper of Wilson to the Rev. Carl Lee Ousley of Zebulon, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ousley of Buies Creek.

The announcement was made Monday at a lovely tea given by Misses Mamie and Anne Harper at their home on Lee Street.

The guests were greeted by little

Ann Bullock, cousin of the bride-elect, who presented each a white scroll tied with white satin ribbon and valley lillies showered with tiny silver balls and bearing the names "Mary—Carl" and the date "July 29, 1936."

Guests were received by Mrs. H. S. Hilley and Miss Fannie Harper and directed to Mrs. J. M. Waters, who presented them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. W. C. Harper, Miss Mary Harper, bride-elect, Misses Mamie Harper and Anne Harper, and Mrs. J. T. Allen of Wendell. Misses Gladys Baker and Frances Watson directed the guests to Mrs. Howard Watson, who received at the dining room door. Mrs. C. A. Jarman, assisted by Miss Eva Louise Shelton, presided over the punch bowl. Sandwiches and mints were served by Misses Effie Lee and Marjorie Watson.

Guests were invited to register in the bride's book, presided over by Miss Myrtie Harper and Miss Doris Shelton.

Graceful arrangements of summer flowers were used with slender tapers in the halls and rooms of the home. The bridal motif was attractively carried out in the dining room, the tables being centered with a bowl of Talisman roses flanked by pink tapers. Miniature silver slippers and tiny flower baskets were suggestive of the bridal note.

Miss Edna Alphin entertained during the afternoon with soft music.

Approximately 60 guests called. Miss Harper is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N. C., where she received her A.B. degree and diploma in piano. She has since attended N. C. C. What the Telephone Rate Reduction Means to YOU

1 If you already have telephone service:

You can use the saving resulting from the rate reduction to have an extension telephone installed upstairs or in some other handy place. It will save time and steps in answering calls.

Or, you can have the more attractive and convenient handset type of telephone installed, and your saving would make it easy to pay the small cost.

If you are a party-line user, dividing the use of the line with others, you can change now to a higher grade of service and enjoy greater freedom in the use of your telephone.

To make any of these changes, or for information, just get in touch with the Business Office.

2 If you do NOT have telephone service:

The rate reduction means that you need not delay longer in having a telephone installed in your home or office.

Always a bargain, telephone service is now so low in cost that it is within reach of even the most modest income.

Consider the value of the telephone in the business and social life of your family. In almost every daily activity, it keeps you in instant reach of almost everyone, anywhere, at very small cost.

It is easy to order your telephone. Just get in touch with the Business Office. Or, any telephone employe will be glad to take your order.
