

Wakelon Statement

- 3—More regular attendance on the part of the pupils.
- 4—A smaller teaching load.

The very fact that we see the need of these things is one evidence that we will demand them, and that they will soon be forthcoming, not all at one time, but they will come. People are demanding more efficient schools. They know that they want the school to make progress, and render service. We feel that our school is striving to serve the community in the best manner possible, considering the funds that are allotted by the state for its operation.

STATE UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION COM.

Governor Ehringhaus has appointed Chas. G. Powell and Mrs. J. B. Spilman to serve with A. J. Fletcher, State Commissioner of Labor on the board of the new Unemployment Compensation Commission. Powell only a short time ago was promoted from private secretary to the governor to Secretary of State, succeeding Stacey Wade who resigned to take a government position. Mrs. Spilman has never occupied an office before but served her apprenticeship as a politician in the last campaign.

Four Harnett county farmers have planted certified Red Hart wheat this fall to establish a seed supply for this county.
