THE PRAYER PERFECT

Dear Lord! kind Lord!
 Gracious Lord! I pray
 Thou wilt look on all I love,
 Tenderly today!
 Weed their hearts of weariness;
 Scatter every care
 Down a wake of angel-wings
 Winnowing the air.

Bring unto the sorrowing
 All release from pain;
 Let the lips of laughter
 Overflow again;
 And with all the needy
 O divide, I pray,
 This vast treasure of content
 That is mine today!
 James Whitcomb Riley

Ms. Merritt Massey is recovering from illness caused by a number of boils. She was confined to her bed for some time.

Mayor R. H. Bridgers was called to Jonesboro on Wednesday by the sudden and serious illness of his father.

B. H. Richardson, formerly of Zebulon, now of near Fuquay Springs, was in Zebulon on Wednesday of this week.

Dr. J. O. Newell has moved his office to Franklinton, where he is company physician for the textile mills. His family are still in Zebulon, but will join him later. Their going will be greatly felt in Zebulon where they have made many friends.

M. L. Massey has been quite sick at his home during a part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Culpepper have moved from Zebulon to make their home in Maryland. G. C. Brannon has moved into the house that has been occupied by the Culpeppers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Barrow have gone to Florida to spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Page and son, Frederick, spent the weekend in Roxboro with Mrs. Page's parents.

Friends here will be interested to know that the Gene Utleys have moved from Goldsboro to Kinston. Mrs. Utley was formerly Miss Adie Ellis Winstead.

The B. B. Bullocks are in their new home. This is at Roxboro and not at Cedar Grove the location of the home that was burned last fall.

J. E. Gill was home for the weekend from Richmond, Va., where he has been employed for some time.

Miss Mary Louise Robertson came from Coates for the weekend with her parents, the J. T. Robertsons.

Mrs. C. B. Eddins is still in Mary-Elizabeth Hospital following a recent operation. During her absence Miss Ruth Southall, a boarder in the Eddins home, is staying with Miss Lula Gray Medlin.

Friends in this section are interested in the announcement of the marriage of Harry Satsky of Fayetteville last week. Mr. Satsky was for years a resident of Zebulon and the new Mrs. Satsky was Miss Fleishman of Fayetteville.

Eva Ruth Harris spent Tuesday night with Bessie Mae Pulley.

Miss Lorena Williams spent the weekend here with her sister, Mrs. James Pulley.

Mrs. J. J. Whitlock of Wendell spent several days here last week with Mrs. Pattie Fuller.

Mr. Earl Ray cut his knee quite badly and has not been able to walk for about two weeks. He is slowly improving.

Philip Massey has been on jury duty in Raleigh this week, being released on Wednesday because of his duties as clerk of Recorder's Court here.

Mrs. W. C. Campen was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club here this week.

Miss Margaret Harrington of Middlesex visited Mrs. R. H. Brantley on Monday of this week.

Miss Lelia Carroll went to Warrenton for the weekend with her relatives. On Saturday she attended the wedding of Miss Iola Carroll to Mr. W. B. Jordan.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Eva Modell Pulley celebrated her sixth birthday on Feb. 20 instead of Feb. 15, the real date. This was in order that Mrs. F. L. Page, for whom she was named, might bring out a group of little guests from Zebulon. This birthday party is an annual affair.

The birthday cake bore six candles. Ice cream and cake were served. Stories were told and games played. Present were: Alma Gray, Nadine, and Dorothy Pully, Jane Shannon, Helen Ann Pace, Edna Earl and Kelton Ray, Lowerbray Pully, Bobby Bridgers, Jack Eaton, Odell and Betty Ross, Bobbie and Ruth Brown, S. G. Flowers Jr., Laura James Sexton, Mary Fisher Finch, Joellen Gill, Betty Jean Gay. Eva received many gifts which were appreciated.

BIG STORE — BIG SALE

Dietz Department Store in Wendell is one of the largest of its kind in this section. Mr. Dietz is now putting on a special sale and offers remarkable values. With prices on nearly all goods advancing, it will be well to supply needs at the earliest possible date; when this can be done satisfactorily at a low price, the gain is considerable.

We hope that many who read the RECORD this week will visit the Dietz Department Store and inspect the various items of merchandise offered in this sale, choosing what is best suited to their needs.

DEFINITION DEPARTMENT

A bargain—that which is offered at a low price; as, The Zebulon Record and Pathfinder, both for a year, only $1.00.
