

IN MEMORIAM

On Tuesday night, April 27th, the soul of Betty Finch Harper, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Harper, passed from this world to her eternal home. Betty Finch had lived a greater part of her life in Zebulon. She was a most lovable child bringing cheer and sunshine into the home and to those with whom she came in contact. She loved her relatives and friends. Not only did she love people but she was especially a great lover of music and pets. She would spend hours talking and playing with her little white dog.

For weeks before her passing she realized that the end was not far off and every day talked to her loved ones about meeting her in Heaven. She was putting her faith in Jesus whom she loved and wanted every-body else to love.

One of her joys, even while too weak to talk, was to have her mother play and sing some of her favorite songs while she tried to sing the words or hum the tune.

Truly her life will always be an inspiration. She was wonderfully patient in all her suffering.

Her seat is vacant in the home, and the Sunday school, yet her short life is before us to lead us on to all things good here and to a glorious victory in the great beyond.

Betty Finch was loaned to us for short time. May we all be better

Christians by having come in contact with this beautiful and unusual life she spent with us here on earth. "It is not death to die, To leave this weary road, And midst the brotherhood on high, To be at home with God."

AN AUNT.

HEARING THE CORONATION

Many radios in this section were turned on bright and early Wednesday morning that nothing of the coronation ceremonies that might be transmitted should be missed. For here as in England the crowning of a king was the most important order of the day. At times static gave an effect probably unique in such broadcasts, but few stopped listening because of that. Long after noon the speeches were still being delivered, and it is safe to say that the king and queen were weary hours before the ceremonies were concluded. In fact, it is to be hoped that nothing harder to endure may befall the new monarchs than was their task on Wednesday.

What I am concerned about in this fast moving world in a time of crises, both in foreign and domestic affairs, is not so much a program as a spirit of approach, not so much a mind as a heart. A program lives today and dies tomorrow. A mind, if it be open, may change with each new day, but the spirit and the heart are as unchanging as the tides.—Owen D. Young.
